

BONI SEES THE EDITOR

Anna Gould's Little Husband Admonishes Ghasitsem and Invites a Duel.

RODAYS' EARS ARE BOXED

Indignant at a Paragraph in the Figaro, Count Boni de Castellane Visits the Editor, M. Fernand de Rodays, and Failing to Receive Satisfaction Lays Violent Hands Upon the Latter's Countenance—A Duel Is Expected to Follow—The Count and the Editor Make Statements—Sensation at Paris.

Paris, March 14.—Count Boni de Castellane boxed the ears of M. Fernand de Rodays, editor of the Figaro, this morning for publishing a paragraph which the count interpreted as a statement that he (the count) had betrayed the Drouotville plot on the occasion of the funeral of the late President Faure on Feb. 23, 1899. A duel is expected.

MINE WORKERS ADOPT MANY RESOLUTIONS

Addreses Delivered by Paul Pulaski and D. J. McCarthy—Mr. Mitchell's Statement.

Hazleton, March 14.—The United Mine Workers' convention was in executive session all morning considering the reports of the committees. The following resolution was adopted: Instructing each local organization to appoint a committee of five members to visit from 10 to 15 miles of country to ascertain whether the men are receiving the ten per cent. bonus; providing for the holding of a convention in the month of May to discuss the report of the committee and to take such action as may be deemed proper.

THE CHILDREN ARRIVE

Mrs. McKee and Russell B. Harrison Reach Indianapolis—Mrs. Harrison's Collapse.

Indianapolis, March 14.—Mrs. Harrison and the members of the household secured last night the first rest they have had for six days. Mrs. Harrison had spent only four hours since last Thursday, having been almost continually at the bedside. Her mental and physical condition finally became such that she was unable to take scarcely any nourishment. When the end came she collapsed completely for a time.

PEASNY'S NEW GONDOLAS

Altoona, Pa., March 14.—Five limited gondolas are of an improved pattern have been ordered at the local shops. Half inch steel channels are being used in the construction of the gondolas. The channels are fastened to steel crossbars. The gondolas are intended to be used for the purpose of carrying a large number of passengers in many cases probably for pleasure purposes. They are expected to be ready for use in a few days.

INCREASE FOR PUDDINGS

Yonkers, N. Y., March 14.—At the bi-monthly meeting today between the iron manufacturers and the officials of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers, the manufacturers granted a voluntary increase of 15 per cent. for puddlers, and 2 per cent. for the other grades. The increase affects about 20,000 hands.

RAMPAGE WATER ACT REPEALED

Albany, N. Y., March 14.—The bill repealing the Rampage Water Act, which gave extraordinary powers to the Rampage Water company, has been repealed by the legislature.

COL. SANGER ON DUTY

He Is Appointed Assistant Secretary of War to Succeed Mr. Meiklejohn.

Washington, March 14.—Colonel William Sanger, of New York, was today appointed assistant secretary of war, and immediately entered upon the duties of his office. The commission was signed by the president during the forenoon. Soon afterward, Colonel Sanger appeared at the war department, and was immediately ushered into the private office of Secretary Root. There, in the presence of Lieutenant General Miles and Chief Clerk Schofield, he subscribed to the regulation oath of office.

THE SEASON OF MOURNING

Flags on Federal Buildings, Army Posts and United States Warships to Be at Half Mast for Thirty Days. Mr. McKinley to Go to Indianapolis—Grief in the Capital—Visitors at the Harrison Mansion. Funeral Arrangements.

Washington, March 14.—The national capital is in mourning today for ex-president Harrison. Flags are at half-mast, not only upon all the public buildings, but upon the hotels, stores and many of the private residences. The act of 1891 prohibits the draping of public buildings in black, and this is the custom formerly, upon the death of an ex-president.

PROCLAMATION BY PRESIDENT

Mr. McKinley's Eulogy Upon the Late General Benjamin Harrison.

Washington, March 14.—The national capital is in mourning today for ex-president Harrison. Flags are at half-mast, not only upon all the public buildings, but upon the hotels, stores and many of the private residences. The act of 1891 prohibits the draping of public buildings in black, and this is the custom formerly, upon the death of an ex-president.

INSTRUCTIONS TO OUR CONSULAR OFFICERS

Directed to Pay Proper Respects to the Memory of General Harrison. Supreme Court Adjourns.

Washington, March 14.—The state department has addressed the following circular letter to all United States consular officers abroad:

BANK CASHIER MURDERED

Charles W. Ryan, of the Halifax National Bank, the Victim of Desperate Robbers.

DESPERADOES CAUGHT

With Drawn Revolvers Henry Rowe and Weston Keiper Hold Up the Attaches of the Bank and Collect All the Cash—Mr. Ryan Attempts to Push Aside the Guns and in the Struggle Is Shot in the Groin Receiving Fatal Wounds.

Harrisburg, Pa., March 14.—Charles W. Ryan, cashier of the Halifax National bank, was shot to death by Henry Rowe and Weston Keiper, of Lykens, at noon today, in an attempt at the most daring bank robbery in the history of Dauphin county. The robbers were captured by a party of citizens soon after the crime, and were brought to the Harrisburg jail.

THE CRISIS AT PEKIN

Manchurian Difficulty May Stop All Negotiations on Part of Powers.

Shanghai, March 14.—It is understood here that the negotiations in Peking may be suspended owing to the Manchurian difficulty. The Chinese merchants and other residents here have issued a call for a mass meeting to convene in Shanghai tomorrow to discuss the adoption of measures aimed to uphold the Chinese coast against Russia.

MISCHIEF ON FOOT

Visiting Congressmen Are Suspected of Having Indulged in Disorderly Talk in Cuba.

Havana, March 14.—General Wood and staff today accompanied the congressional party on a visit to the Congress building, which includes members of the river and harbor committee, to Aqueduct, to inspect a sugar estate. The Cuban delegates to the constitutional convention are eagerly seeking information from the American congressmen regarding the proposed amendment to the constitution.

DISFRANCHISEMENT BILL IS PASSED

Democratic Majority in Maryland Senate Finally Accomplishes Its Purpose.

Annapolis, Md., March 14.—The Democratic majority in the senate, after a tedious session lasting from 11 a. m. to 8 p. m., aided by the application of the cloture rule, succeeded in passing the "disfranchisement" bill tonight, by a vote of 14 to 11, a strict party division.

GOVERNOR WELLS APPLIES VETO

Bill Favoring Polygamy in Utah Fails to Become a Law.

Salt Lake, Utah, March 14.—The bill of State Senator Manning, which passed the Utah legislature last week, has been vetoed by Governor Wells. The bill provided for the punishment of polygamy in Utah.

DE JAEGER SENTENCED

Portsmouth, N. H., March 14.—The trial of the most prominent man in this county, a man named De Jaeger, has been concluded. He was sentenced to five years' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $5000.

FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS

Remains of General Harrison Will Be Buried on Sunday.

Indianapolis, March 14.—The arrangements for the funeral of General Benjamin Harrison, ex-president of the United States, have been completed. The body will lie in state at the capitol on Sunday from 11 o'clock in the morning until 10 o'clock in the evening, and the funeral services will be held from the First Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS

New York, March 14.—Arrived: Kensington, Atlantic; Sailed: La Champagne, Havre, Liverpool; Arrived: Trenton, New York, Queens-Sailed; Massena, Boulogne and New York; Sailed—Arrived: Trux, New York via Gibraltar.

ROLLER MILLS BURNED

Watertown, N. Y., March 14.—Fire today destroyed the Watertown roller mills, the largest in the state. Estimated loss, $100,000; partly insured.

WEATHER FORECAST

Washington, March 14.—Forecast for Friday and Saturday: Partly cloudy; Friday, probably rain; Saturday, snow in northern portion. Saturday, cloudy; variable winds.