THE PEOPLE'S EXCHANGE. A DOUBLE CLAIMING HOUSE for the Best...

A TWICE ACCUSED MAN. His Flippancy Before the Mayor Causes Him Expense.

Edward Riley, of Hospital street, faced two accusations yesterday as a result of letting his reporting activities get the better of him on Wednesday night.

This morning the mayor's heart, and after a few more fruitless questions he imposed a fine of $5. The young prisoner had no money and asked to be allowed to borrow it.

Alderman Jones asked Riley what he had to say, and he pleaded "guilty." He had lost much of the strength he displayed before the mayor.

family in the sitting-room, where I received a Bible from which to read two verses, one for Red and one for myself. This part of the progress has indeed, the person began to pray. All went until he came to that part of his prayer where he referred to the "unfortunate brother in our midst" and asked that Red's speech and hearing be restored and we were both ashamed.

"Just then Red heard the whistle of our freight, he forgot everything, all that I had said and all that he had tried to do, and with a wild whoop he sprang to the door, shouting back to me as he went out: "Hustle, hustle, there's our rat-ter!"

"There was nothing to do but follow after him as fast as my legs would carry me, and I did so in my liveliest manner. I have never been in the town since this experience, and it is to be hoped that the parson's family have forgiven and forgotten both Red and me."

"Hustle, hustle, there's our rat-ter!"
