HANGED HIMSELF IN JAIL

PETER M'CANN, THREE HOURS AFTER BEING PUT IN. COMMITS SUICIDE.

He Was Arrested in Wilkes-Barre and Brought Here at Noon Yesterday on a Charge of Larceny. Made a Noose of His Suspenders and Slowly Strangled-Was Dead

Peter McCann, thirty-two years old, of Greenfield township, committed autieide yesterday afternoon in the city fail by hanging himself with a rope formed of his suspenders and fastening it to the top gratings of his cell. was discovered by Chief of Pollec McAndrew a fifthe after I o'clock, who promptly our him down, but the discovery came too late to save McCann's life. How long he had been hanging is a matter of conjecture, but his death must have been slow, as the noose was simply passed under the jaw and up behind the ears, and did not go around the throat. The poor fellow must have been desperate, indeed, for his sufferings must have been neute, and he could have saved binself at any time by reaching out with his foot to his bunk or grasping the bars at the top

A little after 4 o'clock Chief McAndrew was passing out of the city building when he thought of McCann and went into the jail back of the building to apeak to him and to see if he wante i anything. When he peered into the cell, the second from the end, he as once saw a figure hanging from the middle of the cell, with the head close up against the top bars. He opened the cell door quickly and saw that the feet swung clear of the floor. He took out his knife, cut the body down and examined it to see if there was life in it. The body was warm, and he hastened up to the mayor's room to relephone for a doctor. Mayor Kilpatrick was in his room, and as the chief hurriedly told of his ghastly find he called over the 'phone for a doctor. The mayor van up Main street to Dr. Niles' office, but the doctor was out. Then Dr. Kelly was called on the 'phonand he responded as quickly as possible, but when he examined the body

he found that life was extinct. The causes leading up to the suicide had been employed on the farm of John Marray Cobb, of Greenfield, for some time, and frequently the twain have had disputes. Mr. Cobb has been saving money for quite a little while, stowing it away to a convent bag and beling the bag in a closet in his bedroom. According to Cobb, he had accumerlated $30 in his canvas bank up to Thursday morning. At that time: Motivan invaded the bed-chamber, ouof at the time by Mrs. Colo, and remeach the room for the treasure. He was a hard worker most of the tim but occasionally induiged in sprees and was several times an inmate of the city prison on account of this failing. It is said that his father committed suicide by drowning several years ago. Peter was unmarried. He was about 5 feet 7 inches in height and weighted about 150 pounds. He had a sandy moustache, light eyes and brown hair. POOR BOARD MEETS.

The Board Deadlocked on Awarding Bids and No Action Taken.

It was $.20 last night when Chairmeeting was a special one for the conideration of the bids for steward and matron or the farm, attorney and do tor. The gathering, however, wound up in a wrangle on parliamentary law, and no action was taken. Messes, Meabe, Williams and Thomas formed me side and Lynch, Rivenburg and Cook were the insurgents. At the last meeting Mr. Rivenburg called the roil. Sixth ward. To this Chairman McCabe objected, but waived the question. In the meantime, he has posted himself on parliamentary law, and he announced last night that the roll must be called beginning at the First ward and continuing in order.

A dozen resolutions were quickly introduced and as quickly defeated. There were several clashes between the hairman and members, and finally the board adjourned "to meet at the call of the majority of the directors."

FIFTY YEARS OLD.

Governor William F. Johnston Signed the Incorporation Papers March 15, 1851.

Yesterday the city of Carbondale nched its fiftieth birthday. On March 15, 1851, Governor William F. Johnston signed the act incorporating the Anthracite city and the township advanced in one step, without an intermediate borough government, into that time was not nearly so far medernized as it is today, but it stood we'l abreast of the other cities in regard to progressive methods, public-spirited men and had as brilliant a future before it as any municipality in the state.

The lower end of the valley was unsettled, or nearly so. The city of eaccful as if he had had a pleasant Wilkes-Barre was undreamed of, and dream at the time his soul took its the great city of Scranton was designated by the title of Slocum's Hol-low. Yet these communities have exphone, and he will probably come to panded and become great cities, out-his city this morning. The body was stripping the Pioneer City in many moved at about 5 o'clock to McHale's things. They have drawn upon us for sorgue. At the time it was ready to the material to direct that expansion, s brought out from the jail to the our youth have gone from their early agon in waiting the street in front homes and become the foremost citizens of the greater towns, and Carbendale has but a few thousand more

One reason for this is perhaps to be found in the fact that the city has leaned too strongly upon one great industry, instead of reaching out after ommitted suicide in the city fail. An others, as our neighbors have done. attempt was made several years ago | Yet this is the natural field for manufacturing enterprises, with its cheap coal, its railroad facilities, and its industrious population. A hustling committee on trade and transportation, with the co-operation of some of the leading land owners and taxpayers, could present arguments to prospecting firms that would induce them to come here and make this beautiful valman Metabe cailed the poor board to ley transformed into a teeming beerder, All members were present. The hive of industry. This will have to be done before many years, if the Pioneer City is to continue to grow. The anthracite veins are not inexhaustible; some of the carliest workings have been abandoned already. The railroad company that furnishes employment for so many of our tollers may extend its terminals and move its shops. But a manufacturing center would hold the rallroads and induce others to extend their lines.

Today this city stands well abreast of the spirit of modern times and thought, and there is much for its citizens to be proud of. Its police and health statistics show it to be a clean and orderly place. Its schools and churches are institutions that can be pointed to with feelings of justifiable esteem. But America is the greatest manufacturing country in the world, and therein lies her pre-eminence. Carbondale should have her share of these interests. Today she is not getting it. Some cities have more than their share; why not this one?

No public eslebration of the city's nictioth birthday was held yesterday, event being deferred until the liest four days in September, when a mammoth jubilee and demonstration will be held, with features that will embrace every department of the civil, religious, municipal and social life.

The Tribune congratulates the city on attaining its golden jubilee and heartily extends its best wishes for its presperity and future welfare

AFTER EFFECTS OF LA GRIPPE.

Pe-ru-na a Specific Restorative That Has Stood the Test of Time.

Hon. James R. Guill is one of the eldest and most esteemed men of Omaha, Neb., coming to that city in its early days when it little dreamed of being a metropolis. He has done much to make it what it is, serving on public boards a number of times.

A recent letter written by him to The Peruna Medicine Co., of Columbus, O., endorsing their remedy. Peruna, for entarril, consequently carries with it considerable weight and importance. The following is his Omaha, Neb., January 25, 1900. The Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio:

"Gentlemen-"I am 68 years old, hale and hearty, and Peruna has helped me attain it. Two , ears ago I had la grippe-my life was despaired of. Peruna saved me."-J. R. Guill. Without raising the discussion as to whether la grippe is produced by a specific microbe or not, at least this much is certain and admitted by all, that it will produce chronic catarrh if these are restored to a normal condinot promptly and properly cured. It tion, leaves a person haggard, weak, sallow. many ongested, appetite changeable, diger tion capricious, and just about empties life of all meaning or desirability.

There is no remedy in the world that meets the conditions produced by la grippe better than the remedy, Peruna. Peruna strengthens as it renovates soothes while it atimulates, heals as it expurgates. Peruna is not a purgative, or cathartic, or sedative, or stimu-lant, nor a vegetable or mineral prison. It reaches the source of all diseases of the mucous membranes by its action these are restored to a normal condi-tion. This Peruna will do. A great many temedies have been suggested for this condition from time to time, but Peruna appears to be the only remedy that has any substantial value in these cases. It has stood the test of forty years' experience and still occubotty years experience and soin occu-ples the unique position of being the leading (if not the only) specific reme-dy for the after-effects of la grippe. Among the many prominent people who have been cured of the after-ef-fects of grip are the following:

Mrs. Harriet A. S. Marsh, President of the Woman's Benevolent Association, of Chicago, writes: "I suffered with grip seven weeks. Nothing helped me. Tried Peruna and within three weeks I was fully restored. Shall never be without it again."

The following letter was received from Mrs. M. Wright, secretary Good Templars Lodge, No. 47, and Lady of the Maccabees:

I am still using Peruna and find that it helps me greatly. "I have influenced several friends affileted with chronic catarrii to take Peruna and they all show wonderful improvement. I believe to be the best medicine before the public."—Mrs. M. Weight.

Mrs. M. Wright.

At the appearance of the first symptoms of grip people should stay indoors and take Peruna in small doses (teaspoonful every hour) until the symp-toms disappear. This will prevent a long, disastrous sickness and perhaps

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

The Jermyn borough council held : special meeting for the purpose of granting a new franchise for the Crescent Electric Light company. The meeting was quietly planned and successfully carried out. The new company was represented by J. D. Stocker, Attorney Frank Stocker and William Walker, of Mayfield. The Jermyn Electric Light company, who got wind of the meeting, were represented by W. H. Hutchings, Attorney W. Hand and Superintendent Gebhard, and the meeting was notable as one of the stormiest sessions of the council for many years. At first mild insinuations were made, but as the meeting proceeded strong personalities were indulged in and there was quite a scene for a few minutes after the meeting was over. The first proposition was | Burtleipute. The following programm made by the Crescent company, who offered to light the borough on a tenyear contract for $75 per light and pay into the borough treasury the sum of $1,200 for the privilege. To this the Jermyn company made a counter proposition, offering to supply the lights for ten years at $72.50 and pay $1,250 into the borough treasury. Thereupon the Crescent representatives raised their original offer by lowering the price of the lights to $72.50 and paying into the borough treasury the sum of $1.400. The Jermyn company were prepared to make an additional offer, but it was not entertained and a motion to lay the matter over being defeated, the second offer of the Crescent company was carried by the following vote: For the motion, Theren Moon, Davis, Sullivan, Badger, Albert

Moon and Cahaney; against the motion, Rawling and Wheeler. The opening of the Debt Fund Lecture course Thursday evening was most auspicious. Henry J. Whalen, D. D., of Carbondale, delivered in the First Baptist church his popular lec-ture on the "Wit and Humov of the Irish People," to a large audience. The ordinary seating capacity of the church was taxed well nigh to the limit. Dr. Whalen more than fulfilled the high expectations of his audience. presentation of the glorious early history and of the genius and possibilities of the Irish race was convincing and powerful and revealed a deep and powerful love for his peaple. His portrayal of the Irishman in his worldfamed wit and humor kept the audience in a roar of laughter. This first evening demonstrates that the people of Jermyn and Mayfield enjoy thoroughly a first class course of lectures and the Baptist people are to be congratulated on their success in placing before the public such an excellent course.
