TROUBLE OVER A CHILD.

Was Straightened Out in the Al derman's Office.

Anthony Scott and wife, Mary, colored, of Raymond court, were arrested yesterday at the instance of John Johnson, of Jessup, also colored, for unlawfully holding a child. Mrs. Sophia Cullen, a white woman, of Jessup, was arrested at the same time for abduction, and all three were arraigned before Alderman Millar yesterday. The story brought out at the hearing is

Their sevenyear-old child, Grace May Johnson was given over to Johnson's mother to One day in November, Mrs. Sophia Cullen found the child wandering, in a half-starved condition, in the woods near Jessup, sought out its grandmother, and took the child to The latter refused to take the little girl, and upon the advice of the stice of the peace of Winton, brought he child to this city and gave it over to the Scotts to keep, knowing that they were friends of the family.

THE MERCHANTILE TAX.

Secretary D. B. Atherton Reported on It at Last Night's Meeting of Board of Trade.

There was but a small attendance at last night's meeting of the board of trade, and the session was therefore held in Secretary Atherton's office, instead of the assembly room. A large arrount of routine business was transacted, chief among which was hearing the report of the committee which went to Harrisburg to secure a revision of the mercantile tax law, and the receipt of a communication regarding the establishing of a local horticultural association. Open Saturday evenings

Secretary Atherton, who, with A. F. Duffy, was at the state capital last Thursday, reported that they appeared before the ways and means committee and presented arguments showing why the mercantile should be reduced one-half. He said that they met with a very favorable eception, and the point they adanced that the state revenues would e increased, rather than diminished, was declared well taken. The committees theory is that the tax at one-half mill instead of one mill on every iollar's worth of business, there will be less attempt at evasion by merhants who dodge the present law by naccurate statements of the amount of ousiness transacted.

The application for membership of Hon. John Farr and H. T. Heck were unauimously approved. Mr. Heck is a member of the firm of Timmins Heck, who will operate the spike mill now being built in Keyser valley.

A resolution was adopted extending n invitation to President McKinley and his cabinet to visit this city while en route from Buffalo to New York, this June. They will visit the Pan American exposition, and it is said that on their return, short stops are contemplated at cities along the line A communication was next read from lames Gardner Sanderson, in which he stated that the late Anthony aumann, esq., had worked with him for some time in an effort to establish a Scranton Horticultural society, and that the distinguished horticulturist was no longer present to in-terest himself in the movement, he thought it a good idea for the board to Preliminary Step Taken to Have "Ripper" Opinion Reviewed by the Supreme Court.

An exception was yesterday filed to the judgment rendered Saturday in Judge R. W. Archbald's opinion sustaining the constitutionality of the 'Ripper' bill. Assignments of error will be filed later. They will be practically a copy of the amended suggestion filed before the argument of the case last Thursday. As soon as the exception was noted of record yesterday, former Senator M. E. McDonald, who is contesting the legality of the "Ripper," had his atorneys, Messrs. Burns, O'Brien and Martin, send a request to the Supreme court for a certiorari and writ of error The appeal will probably be allowed today, and the Supreme court will be at once asked to fix a special and early day for a hearing on account of the great importance of the case to the people of Scranton, Pittsburg and Allegheny.

OFFICERS IN CONFERENCE

MET BEHIND CLOSED DOORS IN THE ST. CHARLES

National President John Mitchell and District Presidents Nicholls, Duffy and Fahey Consider Plans for Trying to Bring About a Conference Between the Mine Workers and Their Employers-What the District Presidents Say About the Present Condition of Affairs.

The presidents of the three anthracite districts are now in the city, and with National President John Mitchell will formulate a method of attempting to secure the attendance of the operators at the conference of April 1. The four were in session yesterday afternoon at the St. Charles hotel, but their meeting was behind closed doors and cas entirely of a secret nature.

President Mitchell felt seriously in lisposed, as the result of a severe cold, and last night refused to see anyone A number of incidentals to the April 1 esolution will be taken action upon by he national and district presidents. Meetings will be called of the district boards, and nothing left undone to seure the attendance of the operators, If the latter refuse to attend the conference, judging from the present outlook a strike is almost inevitable.

The situation has now simmered down to a point at which the mine workers' officials demand recognition, and while no assertion has been as yet made that the renewal of last fall's offer is not satisfactory from a monetary standpoint, statements were made to a Tribune man yesterday by Prestdents Thomas Duffy, of District 7 John Fahy, of No. 9, and T. D. Nicholls, of No. 1, that something more tangible than mere notices is required and nothing short of a joint conference can adjust the numerous petty grievances entertained.

NATIONAL EXECUTIVE BOARD. After the meetings of the district boards, a session of the national excutive board will be called by President Mitchell. This may be held in Wilkes-Barre, and will take place during the latter part of the month. The board consists of eleven members, President Mitchell, Vice-President T. 1.. Lewis, Secretary W. B. Wilson and Frederick Dilcher are four of these. A majority vote will cause a strike, if the operators refuse to appear at the conference.

National Organizer Christopher Evas, of Ohio, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon, and each day will now mark the arrival of more of the mine workers' leaders. President Mitch. ell will be closeted with the district presidents this morning and afternoon. President Duffy, of District 7, when ast night interrogated by a Tellune nan regarding the feeling in his region. 'My instructons are short and weet. They are 'conference or strike.' "

President Fahy, of District 9, said: In my district the mine workers consider the action of the operators an affront, in that they have ignored the invitations proffered in all courtesy. We regret that they could not see their way clear to meet with us, as the proposition which was to have been submitted was so fair that the operators could not have failed to be impressed by it.

"The notices posted are unsatisfactory, as they are not definite enough take some action. He suggested that a company be organized, capitalized at grievances entertained, and of these latter there are many which can be adjusted by nothing save a joint con-ference. The men of No. 9 are willing o abide by the resolution passed Saturday. We would rather avoid a strike, but in certain cases it is the only remedy.

WHAT NICHOLLS SAID. President T. D. Nicholls, of District No. 1, emphatically declared to a Tribune man yesterday that unless the operators meet with the Mine Workers April I there will be a strike. He "From now until the end of the month, President Mitchell and the other Mine Workers' officials will bend all efforts towards persuading the operators to attend the conference and thus prevent a strike. We will leave nothing undone which can possibly avert a suspension of work in the anthracite field.

"The operators action in declaring a continuance of the ten per cent increrse is not enough. We have asked for a conference, as we believe that only by a joint session of employers and employes can many of the grievances entertained be done away with. We need an adjustment of many matters, and while I firmly believe that the companies could pay an advance in wages even greater than that given last year, still the greatest grievance entertained is not the amount or wages paid, but the inequality which exists in the scales of different com-

CASE AGAINST GENERAL MANA-GER WEYLAND FAILED.

He Was Arrested at the Instance of the Municipal League on the Charge of Bribery, but at a Hearing Before Alderman Fuller the Testimony of ex-Councilman Griffiths Was Not Correborated and E. B. Sturges Asked for the Defendant's Discharge.

General Manager S. E. Weyland, o the Lackawanna Telephone company was arrested yesterday on the charge of bribery, at the instance of the Municipal league; was given a hearing before Alderman Fuller, and then discharged, E. B. Sturges requesting the alderman to do so on account of lack of evidence. The hearing was conducted in the afternoon, and the first witness ex-amined was W. P. Billings, assistant cashier of the Second National bank, of Wilkes-Barre. The prosecution sought to prove by Mr. Billings that a note of the Lackawanna Telephone company's for $10,000, indersed by its president, W. J. Lewis, had been discounted at the bank on February 6. 1900, and that the money had been paid to Mr. Weyland.

Mr. Billings admitted the discount-Ing of the note, but could not tell to whom the money was paid, though he thought it was to Mr. Weyland, It was afterwards admitted by the prosecution that his testimony was of no materiality, because the money which it is alleged was paid by Mr. Weyland to the commonwealth's principal witness, ex-Common Councilman W. V. Griffiths, was paid five months before the note was even drawn.

TREASURER SWORN.

The next witness examined was former Mayor W. L. Connell, the present treasurer of the Lackawanna Telephone company. No testimony of any importance was elicited from him.

President W. J. Lewis was the next witness. He had no recollection whatever of such a note as the one mentloned by Mr. Torrey having been executed. He himself was out of the city when the franchise ordinance was fin ally passed.

Former Councilman W. V. Griffiths of the Fourth ward, was next called, and fold substantially the same story that he told at the hearing held March Sometime in the summer of 1899, he said, Mr. Weyland met him in the Delaware and Hudson station and gave him an envelope containing $200, say-ing as he did so that it was a present for the good work which he (Griffiths) had done for the company in supporting the ordinance granting a ranchise to the new company.

He was cross examined at length y Mr. O'Brien and admitted that here was no arrangement with Mr Weyland before that he was to receive any money; that he had always sup oried the new company from the very first; that when the money was given him there was no direct or indirect implication that it was for the purpose of purchasing his vote; that the money had no influence whatever upon his vote in favor of the last ordinance and the one finally passed, and that when the money was given no franchise ordinance pending in the common branch of the

When Mr. Griffiths' testimony had been completed, Mr. Torrey asked the attorneys on the other side if they would agree to an indefinite postponement, on account of the fact that the league had been unable to secure the presence of a most important witness. Mr. Warren, in a vigorous tenminutes' speech, professed against the postponement. It was an injustice, he said, to leave such a serious charge hanging over His the head of the defendant, who was a man of standing in the community There had been altogether too much dilly-dallying in these bribery cases, anyway, he said, and it seemed to be the purpose of the league to "first arrest your man and then get your evi-
