THE MOCK TRIAL.

A Great Array of Witnesses-A Lady Jury.

The meek trial to be given at the Central school building on Tuesday evening will be quite an event. Below will be found the names of all who will appear in the action. A novelty will be the appearance of a jury composed of eleven ladies, with a foreman of the masculine gender. The papers in the Chief are:

Accusation-A true bill found against Mr. Robert Meaker and Mr. Robert Gardner, accused of robbery to othe amount of $5,000 and valuable papers from the safe of the Carbondale school board, on the night of December 31, in the year nineteen hundred, in the city of Carbondale, county of Lackawanna, commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

FELL TOWNSHIP CASES.

Two Suits Heard in Alderman Jones' Office Last Night.

Two suits in which Fell township was interested were heard in Alderman Jones' office last evening. The first suit of the township against Michael Gorman and Thomas Smith, in which a judgment of $29.50 was granted.

The second case was a suit of D. M. Lynch against the poor directors of the township for the rent of two houses, one for ninetcen months, a rental of $95, and the second for seven months. a rental of $35. The houses are located in New Buffalo. Mr. Lynch said that the poor directors had agreed to pay him the rent of these houses, and he called upon ex-Poor Director John T. An Ideal Site.

Another site for the Carnegie library building has been offered, or will be offered to the city. The Clune proper-ty, at the corner of Sixth avenue and Church street, almost opposite Memorial Park and right in line with the handsome churches of the city, would make an ideal site, and its owner, John Clune, would sell the property to the city at a reduction of from $1,000 to $2,000 of its real value, in order to help the project. It has a frontage of 133 feet in the most desirable portion of the town.
