ST. BRENDEN'S OPEN HOUSE

PUBLIC RECEPTION AT COUNCIL'S NEW QUARTERS.

Rooms Visited by Several Hundred People, an Entertainment Provided and an Address Given by Attorney W. F. Shean on the Aims and Objects of the Y. M. I.—Funerals of H. D. Jones, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Hughes and Others—News of the Churches and Other Notes.

The newly furnished home of St. Brenden's council, Young Men's Institute, was thrown open to the public last evening and for several hours several hundred people enjoyed the council's hospitality and an excellent musical and literary programme, which was provided by the house committee.

The rooms were brilliantly lighted, and the guests were accorded a splendid welcome by the host of popular young men who comprise the organization. In the lecture hall seats had been provided for about two hundred, but the hall was totally inadequate to accommodate the throng of young people present, many of whom were ladies.

President Thomas McHugh was chairman of the evening and, after a few brief introductory remarks, introduced Miss Rose Conway, who executed a pleasing piano solo with much ability. This was followed with vocal solos by Misses Lillian McDermott, Carmel Fahy, and James McHugh.

After William Gilroy had declaimed in a dramatic manner, Attorney William F. Shean, editor and publisher of the Catholic Light, gave an instructive talk on the aims and objects of the Young Men's Institute. His remarks were attentively listened to and made a good impression on the audience.

The other features of the programme were vocal solos by Miss Anna Scanton, John Shaughnessy and Edward Walsh. The entertainment was thoroughly enjoyed, and no doubt many who are not now members will avail themselves of the opportunity to unite with St. Brenden's council after last evening's demonstration of good fellowship.

The house committee in charge of the reception consisted of Edward McLain, chairman; William Larkin, William Vanston and T. J. Fleming.

ANNUAL MISSIONARY COLLECTION AT M. E. CHURCH.

Annual Collection of Providence Methodist Episcopal Sunday School Was Held—Live News of the Basket Ball Players—North Scranton Police and Corner Loafers—Large Police Court of Many Moons Held Yesterday Morning—Personals and Other Notes.

Yesterday was the time for the annual missionary collection at the Providence Methodist Episcopal Sunday school, and in connection therewith an interesting programme was rendered.

There was singing by the school, prayer by the pastor, Rev. G. A. Cure, and an address by Rev. F. C. H. Dreyer, who has for a number of years been engaged in missionary work in China, and who recently returned home from that far-off country.

There was also a recitation by Miss Gertrude Newberry and a sketch of early missionary work, particularly in reference to that of the Providence Methodist Episcopal Sunday school, by Miss Florence Walker, which proved very interesting.

Besides this was singing by a male quartette, Messrs. C. W. Dawson, W. D. Watkins, David Watkins and Prof. J. Cousins, one of their selections being, "Joy and Peace."

The collection was then announced for the year from the different classes and much interest was shown as the different amounts were read. The sum announced from the different classes are as follows: Mrs. Cure, $4.23; Miss Rosegrans, $4.35; Mrs. Lewis, $3.36; Hattie Benjamin, $2.00; Mary Lewis, $4.70; Mamie Thomas, $2.71; Mr. Cure, $20.50; Spencer DeWitt, $17.73; Mrs. Nyhart, $2.70; Mrs. G. Cowles, $26.00; Mrs. G. Hinde, $21.00; Miss F. Walker, $5.00; Miss A. Cowles, $9.00; Miss Bernice Conger, $10.70; Mrs. Robinson, $2.01; Miss Annie Padden, $8.28; Miss Margaret Williams, $1.68; Alvin Blain, $4.47; Minnie Stott, $5.48; Nellie Benjamin, $1.81; Stella Weidman, $3.00; Susan Knapp, $2.44; Mrs. Hatch, $5.50; Eliza Guess, $10.00; Annie Williams, $3.13; Lena Sicker, $4.17; Mr. Broadbent, $1.94; primary department, $54.02; officers, $12.00; total, $229.32.

This year's collection was several dollars in excess of that raised a year ago, and shows a splendid interest by this Sunday school in this work.

The North End Stars' basket ball team will play the Taylor Stars this evening at the Auditorium, and it is expected that this game will be one of the liveliest played in this section for some time, as the Taylor boys are very quick and clever at the game.

The Stars have met them only once before, the score then being 2-0 in favor of the North Scranton team.

The Crackerjacks' basket ball team would like to play the John Tighe team next Friday evening at the Auditorium. The entrance to the games will hereafter be at the side door, owing to the confusion caused in the lobby at the main entrance.

Joseph Anley, sr. Joseph Anley, sr., aged 75 years, who for many years was the owner and manager of Anley's planing mill, situated on the Bloomsburg division of the Lackawanna railroad, near Scranton, died at his home on Meridian street, Scranton, after a lingering illness of twelve months' duration. Deceased had resided in Scranton thirty-five years, and was one of the city's most substantial and respected business men. He is survived by his wife and the following sons and daughters: Joseph Anley, jr., Lincoln Anley, Edward S. Anley, Mrs. Anna Anley and Mrs. Sarah Porter, all of this city. The funeral services will be conducted at the home, 125 Madison street, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The remains will be taken to Putnam street, Wayne county, Tuesday morning, when they will be privately interred.

Mrs. P. M. Eagan. Catherine, wife of P. M. Eagan, of West Lackawanna avenue and Chestnut street, died at 4:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Deceased was 48 years of age and had been ill for some time. She is survived by her husband and several children. The funeral will take place at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning with a high mass at St. Patrick's church. Interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

Mrs. David Anfield. Jane, wife of David Anfield, of 425 Fontaine street, aged 40 years, died at her home on Saturday. She is survived by her husband and several children. The funeral services will be conducted at the home by Rev. B. L. Evans, at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Interment will be made in the Washburn street cemetery.

Michael Coggins. Michael Coggins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Coggins, of 504 Exton street, died at an early hour Saturday morning, after a two weeks' illness. The funeral services will be held at St. Patrick's Catholic church at 9 o'clock this morning. Interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

David Davis. David Davis, aged 37, of the engineering department of the Dickson works, died yesterday at Taylor, after a short illness with pneumonia.

May Be Incendiary Blaze. About 1:30 o'clock Saturday the firemen were called out by an alarm sounded at the result of a fire discovered in the planing mill of Hugh Burke, on Rigg street. Owing to the quick response of our fire fighters the damage done was very slight. There had been no fire in or about the mill for several days and it is supposed to have been of an incendiary origin.

Borough Brevities. By the sudden starting of a car upon which he was standing on Saturday while about his duties as weighmaster at the Spencer breaker, M. W. Chamberlain received a severe fall, which resulted in his being severely bruised about the face and body, but he fortunately escaped serious injury.

Francis Heering, of Hoousburg, is visiting at Oscar Voss's home on Blakeley street.

O. A. Simmons, of Easton, is visiting friends in town for a few days.

John Moffatt, jr., of Elm street, leaves today for New York, where he will resume his duties in the auditor's office of the Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad, which was transferred there on Saturday.

Gerald, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James Davitt was buried yesterday, interment being made in St. Mary's cemetery.

Letters remaining unclaimed during the period ending March 25, 1901. Persons calling for these letters will please say advertised: Mike Minnehan, A. J. Frantz, I. J. Williams, 221 Chestnut street; J. B. Miller, Anna J. Snyder, 1507 Adams avenue; A. R. Jones, Miss N. Toussaint, 219 Clay avenue; J. J. Moran, 163 Deinker street; Lizzie Knapp, 222 Grove street; A. M. Golden, 113 Chestnut street; J. Butler, Henry T. Yagile, Jefferson avenue and Larch street; Frank Galbraith (2), Dora Schott, T. E. Hannigan, Mrs. Ann Dempsey, Quincy avenue; Joe Delaney, Giuseppe Guerra, Passacono Commodore, Bernardino Gervase.

Yesterdays morning the largest police court held in this section of the city for some time was seen.

There were eight prisoners lodged in the Hotel Thomas for being drunk and repeating the offense.

The Crackerjacks' basket ball team would like to play the John Tighe team next Friday evening at the Auditorium. The entrance to the games will hereafter be at the side door, owing to the confusion caused in the lobby at the main entrance.

Each was fined $5, which they all paid, after their friends, who came to their assistance.

They have already received notice from a number of the residents along these streets that they want no more annoyance from the girl and boy loafers who gather upon the sidewalks, seated upon the fences, or perched upon the stone walls in front of their
