FOR THE NEW HOSPITAL?

Dr. John S. Niles Purchases the Bolton Property at a Bargain. The auction sale of the Bolton properry, on North Main street, took place on Saturday afternoon, a large number of interested townspeople being quite lively, but when $4,600 was bld by R. H. Reynolds there were no higher ones offered. The auctioneer then announced that Mrs. Bolton had a private offer of $5,000 and that if any wanted to bid higher he must do it quickly. There were no more

The private offer was made by Dr. John S. Niles, who owns the adjoining property and to him the sale was

A Tribune reporter was informed yesterday that Dr. Niles had acquired the property for the purpose of con-verting it into the new hospital of which there has been so much talk recently. The doctor was so busy last evening with his patients that he could spare but a few minutes for an interview, but from what he said it may be inferred that a new hospital is not improbable.

"Doctor," he was asked, "is it true that you purchased the Bolton property for a hospital such as is contemplated by the recently organized association here?

"Well I don't know what I will do with the house yet. I have already had several advantageous effers to dispose of my bargain all at higher figures than I paid." "But I have been informed by a physician in this city that your motive for purchasing was to turn it into a hospital," pursued the reporter.

I haven't made up my mind as yet just what I shall do. You may say, however, that the report that I shall fit it up for the use of my father, Dr. A. Niles, is incorrect. I shall probably make up my mind in a few days as to what I will do, and will let you know. The price the doctor paid for this piece of property is very low. time age Mrs. Bolton, it is said, refused $8,000 for the place.

TONIGHT'S RECITAL.

An Unusually Brilliant Programme Will Be Offered to the Public.

Tonight the third and final recital in t the series given at the Trinity Primifund will be held. #### A FORGER CAPTURED.

Fugitive from Justice Nailed on

Main Street by Constable Neary. Constable E. J. Neary, of this city nade a clever capture on Saturday of a fugitive from Tunkhannock, charged with forgery. On Friday evening Mr. Neary received a telegram from the county seat of Wyoming, asking for the apprehension of a forger and giving a description.

On Saturday afternoon the constable came face to face with the man advertised for. He knew him at once by the singular choice of apparel the gentleman wore. He was a walking embodiment of a Wild West show, without the firearms. He had on a huge bearskin overcoat, a wide Mexican combrero and other fittings to match. Mr. Neary proposed that the two take a stroll together. At first the man demurred, but Mr. Neary convinced him that it was the proper thing and escorted him to the Hotel American, where the alleged forget was staying. Later they took a train to Wilkes-Barre and arrived in Tunk-hannock early Sunday morning. The prisoner was George E. Glenn wanted in Tunkhannock for forging a promissory note, with the names o Mr. and Mrs. Albert Depew. amount of the note was $78. He had had it cashed in the Graham House there and then skipped out. He was held at the county jail after Constable Neary surrendered him, for the next term of court.

Next Friday Night at the Grand Opera House.

Mr. Tim Murphy is the special attraction. Mr. Murphy, who is supported by Miss Dorothy Sherrod and the Sol Smith Russell company, will present here "A Bachelor's Romance." the beautiful play in four acts, written by Martha Morton. In this comedy, which a writer has described as "a gentle fancy, soothing in narration and brimming with unctuous humor and quaint pathos," as may be imagined, Mr. Murphy plays the part of David Holmes-the world-weary monk of books and letters-who for years has struggled in his quiet garret, unmindful of the world about him, surrounded by his poor, struggling literary friends. About twenty years pass, during which time he has been the guardan of his dead friend's daughter, who has grown to beautiful womanbood, and David, without forgetting his duties of guardian, for he has provided for her, has still neglected his ward until one day, running away from her adopted mother, she seeks guardian in his attic home. Then follows the awakening of David. From cut of the shadow he comes, from out of his retirement, until the evolution i complete, the rejuvenation of David Holmes, As may be imagined, Mr. Murphy has never had a better role. All the scenery and properties will be brought by the company. The ladies wear beautiful gowns, some of which were made by Worth, of Paris.

Election of Officers.

The semi-annual election in Lackswaxen tribe, Improved Order Red Men, sweep of Dundarf street yesterday, takes place this evening. There will be degree work also. The matter of electing a delegate to the convention in terial swept up and carted away in New York in June has attracted such interest in the order that locally it is the one question to come up tonight John E. > Pe-ru-na Is Known the World Over as an Ideal Spring Tonic and Blood Purifier.

Why Is It April and May are so trying to the nerves and so sure to produce blood derangements? The fact that it is so is known to nearly everybody. But why it is so is not so clear to

Some of the reasons are that the bracing air of winter is a thing of the past. The enervating nearness of spring equinox is felt. The gathering heat of the tropics begins to send premonitions of its approach. The reaction of lassitude that follows the nerve tension of winter insidiously threatens everybody. Hence the prevalence of nervous diseases, flagging energies, de pression of spirits, tendency to weariness and a continuous sense of tired-

The tonic that restores without stimulating is Peruna. Unlike the bitter tonics of quinine and scrychnia, Peruna does not key the nerves up to a high tension but refreshes and restores them with a lasting exhiliration which only natural strength can bring.
