Special Diseases of Men

IS MY SPECIALTY.

I Do Not Scatter My Faculties

I Center Them on My Specialty

If you are suffering from any disease or condition peculiar to men, or if you have been disappointed in not getting a permanent cure, I want you to come and have a social chat with me. I will explain to you MY SYSTEM OF TREATMENT, which I have originated and developed after my whole life's experience in treating special diseases of men. I have no belts, specifics, free samples, trial treatments or electro medical combinations or similar devices which do not and cannot cure diseases peculiar to men. My education, my experience, my conscience, my reputation condemns all such quackery. If you will pay me a visit I will give you FREE OF CHARGE a thorough personal examination and an honest opinion of your case. If you are incurable I will tell you so, and advise you so that you will not be bamboozled by unscrupulous practitioners who claim to cure all. If after examining you, I find you curable, I will insure you of a permanent cure, inasmuch as I will give you a written guarantee to refund you every cent you have paid me in case I fail to effect a cure. I make no charge for medicines, as they are always included in the nominal fee, asked, and you know to the cent, before you start what your whole treatment is going to cost, and I will make no false promises as to the time for the sake of getting you as a patient, as I promise only what I can do, and do as I promise.

UNNATURAL DISCHARGES stopped in 5 to 10 days.
EMISSIONS and Drains stopped in 5 to 15 days.
ULCERS. I care not of how long standing, I will dry them up at once.
STRICTURE cured without cutting or dilating.
HYDROCELE or any swellings or enlargements reduced at once.
IMPOTENCY by my system of treatment is curable irrespective of the time standing or your age.
BLADDER AND KIDNEY derangements by my system of treatment show signs of improvement from the very beginning.
RHEUMATISM, being caused by impure condition of blood, is cured permanently by me.
SPECIFIC BLOOD POISONING, permanently cured without the use of Iodide of Potash or Mercury.
WRITE if you cannot call. All correspondence strictly confidential and all replies sent in plain envelopes. Inclose 2-cent stamp to insure reply.

CONVENTION OF EPWORTH LEAGUE

Semi-Annual Meeting of the Simpson Union Held at Factoryville.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Factoryville, March 26.—The semi-annual convention of Simpson union, Epworth league, was held at Factoryville, March 22 and 23. The programme consisted of a study of the English Reformation, interspersed with recitations and singing. A lecture was given on Friday evening by Rev. M. D. Fuller, of Jermyn. The convention was a decided success. The next session will be held at Newton in October.

Some of the work gone over was: "Henry VIII. and His Time," Rev. A. W. Cooper, Dalton; "Edward VI. and Protestantism," Rev. Wrigley, Newton; "Queen Mary," Iva Dean Stephens, Nicholson; "Ridley, Latimer, Cranmer," James Kocher, Nicholson; "Development of Protestantism During Elizabeth's Reign," Miss Georgia Hunt, Clark's Summit; "Mary Stuart, Queen of Scots," Miss Bertha Dewitt, Falls; "John Knox," Arthur Decker, Falls; "Cromwell and the Reformation," Ida Hopkins, Shultzville.

Recitations were given by Miss Mary Stone, Miss Eleanor Biesecker, Miss Bertha Dewitt, Miss Edna Townsend and Miss Anna Bard; solos and duets by Miss Carrie Clifford, Miss Miller and brother, Misses Smith and Dershelmer and Mr. Jesse Cooper.

THOMPSON.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Thompson, March 26.—C. M. Lewis was doing business in Scranton yesterday and today.

Rev. J. T. Logan, district elder of Wilkes-Barre, is in town today, superintending the removal of the lumber and other effects of the Free Methodist camp meeting from the old ground at Ararat to the grove of C. Z. Pickering, just on the border of the borough limits, where the next meeting will be held.

William Starbird returned this morning from a visit with friends at Windsor, N. Y.

The eighth grade of our school will give an entertainment on Tuesday evening, April 2.

Our community was greatly shocked to hear of the death of Miss Evangeline Cargill, which occurred at Scranton Sunday morning. Two years ago she went to Scranton and entered upon a course of training for a nurse. She had nearly finished her course, when she was stricken with typhoid fever, which proved fatal. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elias P. Cargill, of the township, and is survived by them and by two sisters, a brother and other relatives. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church here and was highly esteemed by all who knew her. The remains were brought up on the forenoon train and the funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal church at 11 a. m., conducted by her former pastor, Rev. A. D. David, who was assisted by Rev. P. R. Tower. The choir rendered three very appropriate selections very sweetly. The interment was in the Whitney cemetery. H. M. Benson was funeral director.

Mrs. Egbert Witter and her mother, Mrs. H. Gelatt, were called to Odessa, N. Y., today to attend the funeral of a niece and granddaughter.

Harry Blockham has secured a position as fireman on the Erie and begins his work today. His run will be on the Susquehanna division for the present.

Hon. W. W. Mumford, of Starrucca, was in town yesterday.

S. L. French and wife are in Susquehanna today.

Stephen Jenkins, one of Thompson's most highly esteemed residents, is quite sick at his home on Milk street. He is 76 yearsold.

John Stockwell and Miss Anna Payne, of North Jackson, were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Payne, last Wednesday evening.

A breakdown this morning at Gelatt's sawmill delays operations for a little time.

NICHOLSON.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Nicholson, March 26.—Dr. H. K. Wilkins is spending a few days at South Gibson, looking after dental work at that place.

Miss Lena Bonner, who has been visiting friends in Scranton, returned to her home Friday.

Rev. E. Melville, formerly of England, will lecture in the Universalist church, April 11, for the benefit of the St. James Episcopal church of this place. "The Lights and Shades of London" is the subject of Rev. Melville's lecture.

Bert Ward, of Scranton, and Miss Carrie Meade, of Hallstead, spent Sunday with Miss Bessie Taylor.

M. D. Kelly spent Sunday at Hallstead.

Mrs. V. C. Decker is visiting friends at Scranton.

Among those who attended the Epworth league convention, which was held in the Methodist church at Factoryville, Saturday, March 23, were Mrs. L. E. Sanford, Mrs. A. L. Thayer, Misses Cora Kling, Ruth Johnson, Florence Wilkins, Bertha Dix, Ivadean Stephens, Lena Billings, Messrs. James Kocher, M. A. Werkheiser and A. J. Kling.

G. W. Johnson, of Scranton, is spending some time with friends in town.

C. H. MacConnell was a business caller at Dalton on Monday.

Tonight (March 27) the second entertainment of the series of entertainments given by the Epworth league of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held at the opera house. Miss Saidee Estelle Kaiser, the famous soprano soloist, of Wilkes-Barre, assisted by an elocutionist, make up a programme well worth hearing, and will be a treat to all lovers of music. Diagram of seats on sale at J. E. Harding's store.

KINGSLEY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Kingsley, March 25.—C. S. Vail, of New Milford, was in town Tuesday.

Mrs. G. C. Finn was in Binghamton Monday, buying spring millinery.

Miss Blache Sloat has returned from a week's stay in Scranton.

J. F. Adams, who has been visiting his parents at South Harford, has returned.

Mrs. W. W. Adams was last week a guest of her brother, W. L. Brundage, at New Milford, and of her cousin, Miss Celia Edwards, of Binghamton.

Mrs. Lizzie Tiffany spent Saturday and Sunday at Harford, with her brother, Hugh McConnell.

Mrs. M. J. Titus, of Harbottom, was a recent visitor here.

Miss Myrtie Ireland, of Binghamton, is a guest of Miss Maggie McCarthy.

Mrs. T. McCarthy, who has been quite ill, is improving. Dr. Merrill, of Hallstead, attended her.

J. W. Adams, of Brooklyn, and Charles Sickler, of Wilkes-Barre, were calling on friends here Saturday.

The Rev. Father Feeley, of Nicholson, was in town one day last week.

The infant son of John Wagner, one of the twins, two months old, died of pneumonia March 24. The funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal church on Wednesday, Rev. G. D. Fisher officiating. Interment was in the Oakley cemetery.

SUSQUEHANNA.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Susquehanna, March 26.—The Erie paymaster will arrive tonight and on Wednesday morning pay the shopmen for services in February.

Miss Lucy Gowelock, of Laurel street, last evening returned home from a visit with Binghamton relatives.

Uniondale is erecting a co-operative creamery.

Nelson Cargill is in Thomson today, attending the funeral of his sister, the late Miss Evangeline Cargill, who died at the Hahnemann hospital, in Scranton, on Sunday.

Joseph Clark, jr., founder of the Susquehanna Transcript, is now state secretary of the Ohio Sunday School association.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Burns, of Montrose, have returned home from a visit with Susquehanna relatives.

The East Main street saloon, formerly occupied by the late John H. McMahon, will hereafter be conducted by Martin Kendrick.

At the commencement exercises of the Oakland graded school, to be held in Hogan opera house on Friday evening, June 7, Dr. Charles T. Steck will deliver his popular lecture, "Popular Hero Worship."

Miss Bessie McCauley is the guest of friends in New York city.

Rev. E. E. Reilly will on Thursday evening be installed as pastor of the Presbyterian church.

Hon. George B. Tiffany, one of the assemblymen from this county, has introduced a bill in the legislature, appropriating the sum of $10,000, to be used in the instigation of diseases of domestic animals.

THEATRICAL.

TODAY'S ATTRACTIONS.

ACADEMY—Wills Brothers, Afternoon and night.

Haverly's Minstrels.

There was a big audience at the Lyceum last night to see Haverly's Mastadon Minstrels, notwithstanding the very unpleasant weather.

It was a good example of the old time minstrels. The jokes were not bad, the singing was decidedly good and the specialties gave the necessary spice of variety to the performance.

George Wilson, the old time favorite, appeared in the first part and also did one of his famous monologues, which was received with great favor by the audience. The performance closed with a pantomime, "The Haunted Mill."

Tim Murphy.

Tim Murphy and the Sol Smith Russell company will appear at the Lyceum tomorrow night in "A Bachelor's Romance." Mr. Murphy has done the very sensible thing, in taking up a play owned by Sol Smith Russell, of playing the part in his own name," says the St. Louis Republic. There was a suspicion that he would lead off with a Russell imitation. He has not done it. On the other hand, he is presenting an entirely original conception of the quaint character that loved books, and a girl at the same time, and was willing to give the girl up without teling her of his love—because the other fellow was so much younger—and a friend of his.

Marie Dressler as "Miss Prinnt."

Marie Dressler has caught on as a star and has caught it most emphatically with "Miss Prinnt," which comes to the Lyceum theater next Friday. It is just the sort of a show that one wants. It is a chaser of the blues. Miss Dressler is really a public benefactor, for a comedienne that is able to cheer the multitude as she does, is nothing short of that. She has been seen here in many a success in the past, but in nothing that could compare with "Miss Prinnt." She is a "good fellow," the programme tells one, but that does not begin to give one an idea of what she does in the course of the play. She springs jokes, innumerable; she sings clever and catchy songs; she dances with grace and muscularity.

She is doing something all the time, and she keeps everybody in a roar of laughter as long as the curtain is raised. The play is one that requires a good company and that is exactly what has been provided. There is Robert Harris and William H. Lytell, comedians of varying types, Nettie Black, tall and statuesque; Zella Frank, a bundle of daintiness and feminine charm; Iona DuBois, she of the shapely limbs, and—but why go into details further? Everyone should go to "Miss Prinnt" and see her himself.

"The Belle of New York."

"The Belle of New York," the great Shaftesbury theater, London, and New York Casino success, will appear in this city for one night and matinee at the Lyceum next Saturday. "The Belle of New York" held a record of 697 performances at the Shaftesbury theater. This is a record which has not been achieved by any other American play in London, and indeed few plays, English or otherwise, have ever obtained such popularity. The cables brought glowing descriptions of the tumultuous enthusiasm at the conclusion of the London run of this piece; but it would seem that this was quite equalled by the warmth of the reception given to the company upon their return to the New York Casino.

The cast of "The Belle of New York" this season will be a notable one, most of the members of the company being retained. New in the cast will be Miss Beulah Dodge as Violet Grey, the Salvation lassie. Miss Dodge is said, when she made her metropolitan debut in this part last season, to have given a most worthy and meritorious performance, and everywhere she has appeared she has met with instant success in the role.

Wills Brothers.

The Wills Brothers continue to draw large crowds to the Academy of Music to witness their farce comedies. Yesterday afternoon "The Two Old Cronies" was repeated, and last evening their new comedy, "In Atlantic City," was the attraction.

Both plays pleased immensely. This afternoon "In Atlantic City" will be repeated, and tonight "Bosom Friends" will be offered as the drawing card.

"The Tide of Life."

"I believe in actors knowing how to sing," says Manager McDowell, of "The Tide of Life," which is to be produced at the Academy of Music next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. In this place of mine, several of my comedians sing and most of them dance, too. An actor who can sing is sure to be a better elocutionist than one who cannot, and dancing gives a grace to him that seldom comes from any other source.

"I know that my patrons like music as a relief from the serious element in a drama, and hence I have put in liberal slices of light entertainment, with music, singing and rollicking fun. This enables the audience to enjoy the dramatic features, because there is nothing which prepares the human heart for the strenuous happenings of life like a taste of its joyousness. I would not think of offering so powerful and realistic a drama without a large mixture of comedy and fun."

"Wine, Women and Song."

Patrons of the Gaiety will remember with pleasure M. M. Thiese's "Wine, Women and Song" company, which made a favorable impression at that theater early in the season, so that the announcement that Mr. Thiese will bring his company to the Gaiety for three days, beginning Thursday matinee, should pack the house at each performance.

There have been many new features added to the entertainment this season, and Mr. Thiese has secured an unusually clever lot o. performers to carry out his ideas. The opening farce comedy is a clever satire on the invasion of the vaudeville stage by the prominent operatic and dramatic stars. The impersonations of various well known performers are excellent, while the costumes and make-up are absolutely correct. The vaudeville acts are far above the average and include some of the best that can be obtained. Gilbert and Goldie are credited with being the best team of comedians in the business. Bonita has proved the reigning sensation in vaudeville this season. The four American Trumpeters are clever musical artists, while Kline and Gotthold, Hanson and Grew and Mignon Gilbert are sure to please every one. The chorus is composed of a number of charming and talented women. A laugnable burlesque closes the programme.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, March 26.—The recurrence of the story of a northwestern railroad deal coupling Northern Pacific and Burlington, was occasion for an extraordinary and impressive upward movement in the late stock market today. In the early dealings the bears offered prices down very boldly and made inroads in practically all the active stocks in the list. The Grangers and Southwesterns proved themselves especially vulnerable. Northern Pacific itself was forced down nearly a point, but Burlington was held above last night's level throughout. Missouri Pacific, after being lifted to 102½ fell back 2¼. The local traction stocks were notably weak, declining from 2 to 2¾ and there were especially notable declines in the industrial list, Amalgamated Copper falling 2¾ and Sugar 2 points. The steel stocks shared in the general weakness and many of them dropped from 1 to 2 points under last night. It was after nearly the whole session had been consumed in this process of extension of short accounts that the Northern Pacific movement developed. The bears were completely routed and found the supply of stocks very small, bidding up prices on themselves by rapid strides. There was an almost complete recovery in the general list and Northern Pacific surged upwards 5¼ points to 91⅝, a record price. The rise in Burlington reached 4⅝. Total sales today, 1,651,600 shares. Railroad bonds continued active and irregular. Total sales par value, $1,720,000. United States old 4s coupon advanced ¼ per cent. on the last call.
