

Office: BURKE BUILDING

Carbondale Department.

Phone: NEW, 286 OLD, 0423

THE WATER RATES.

The Supreme Court's Decision Opens the Way for Discussion.

The decision of the United States Supreme court on Monday in the case of an appeal from the Supreme court of the state of Illinois, implying among other things, that municipal bodies have the right to raise water rates...

AT TRINITY CHURCH.

Services Each Day During Holy Week—Bishop Talbot to Preach. The Rev. W. B. Johnson, of Calvary church, Wilkes-Barre, delivered the mid-week sermon last evening in Trinity Protestant Episcopal church...

At S'mother Carbondale?

The iron work for the new bridge over Racket Brook, due to reach this city a week or so ago, has not yet come into view, despite the city engineers' anxiety to start the work...

Tobacco Men to Dance.

The annual dance of the Tobacco Manufacturers' Ass'n. will hold its annual social in Wertz hall on the evening of Easter Monday, April 8...

New Officers.

The members of Lackawanna tribe of Red Men elected the following officers on Tuesday night, to serve for six months: Prophet, Joseph Jenkins...

A Surprise Party.

Miss Ruth Bailey was pleasantly surprised by a number of her friends on Tuesday evening and a number of hours were passed with cards, games and music...

New Locomotives.

Four of the six monster engines just finished by the locomotive works at Paterson, N. J., for the Ontario and Western railroad, will be used as pushers between Mayfield yard and the junction at Gudonia...

Another Church by F. N. S. C.

The Friday Night Social club will give the second of its enjoyable socials on Monday evening, April 22. Music will be furnished by an orchestra...

Another Enchir Party.

Encouraged by the success of their recent encheir party the Young Ladies' Communion Table association is making arrangements to have a repetition in the near future...

To Help Install Pastor.

The Rev. Charles Lee, of the First Presbyterian church, will assist in the installation of the new pastor at Hanna today, when the Rev. Edwin E. Rely will be formally installed...

To Live in Providence.

Edwin Moon, of Terrace street, ex-poor director, will remove with his family to Providence, before long. He has accepted a position there as foreman in a large hosiery manufacturing plant...

May Be Perpetrated.

The fair and reception of Cottage Home company, which is scheduled to open in the Burke building on April 15, will in all probability be postponed until after a critical operation which will open in St. Rose church on April 15...

Discharged.

Miss Benjamin Spahr, who had been in the hospital at Carbondale for the past five weeks, returned to her home last evening after a critical operation was performed while she was in the hospital—Wayne Independent.

A New Locomotive.

"Anaska, No. 16" is the name and number of a small locomotive just put in service at Carbondale for use between the breaker and the Wilson Dickson mines. It is a product of the Dickson works.

At the Opera House.

"Tomorrow night—Tim Murphy in 'A Bachelor's Romance'."

DAVID HOLMES' SURPRISE.

Quaint Story Told by Tim Murphy Blending Tears and Smiles. Mr. Tim Murphy, supported by the St. Smith Russell company, in the South Russell's new play by Martha Morton, 'A Bachelor's Romance'...

Unclaimed Letters.

List of letters remaining in the Carbondale postoffice, March 28, 1901, for persons unknown: William Alexander, Walter W. Cole, M. J. Connor, John P. Chibberton...

Teachers' Institute.

There will be a teachers' institute at the Mayfield public school on the afternoon and evening of April 13, to which some of the local teachers will contribute papers.

To Attend Funeral.

The Pioneer Father Mathew society will meet in their hall this morning at 8:15 o'clock, to attend the funeral of their brother, Patrick Carden.

Meetings Tonight.

George E. Randolph camp, No. 128, Sons of Veterans. Branch No. C. M. B. A. Carbondale canton, No. 46, Patriarchs Militant.

A Coming Social.

Arrangements are well under way for the seventh annual dance of Division No. 11, A. O. H., which will be held in Burke's hall on Wednesday evening, April 25.

THE PASSING THROG.

Mr. John Brennan, of River street, is critically ill. William Bates is round again after a severe illness. M. J. Connor, of New York city, is recovering from his illness.

OLYPHANT.

Work on the narrow gauge railroad from Egg Creek to the new shaft which is now being sunk near Jerome's dam, will be commenced today. A special meeting of the Excelsior Ice company will be held tonight.

MAPLE SUGAR MAKING.

A Tribune Representative Explores the Land of Sweetness. Factoryville, March 27.—About two and one-half miles east of this place, and about one mile northeast of La Plume...

PECKVILLE.

A sad accident befell 17-year-old John King last evening. The lad was on his way to work and was walking on the Delaware and Hudson tracks in the vicinity of the Peckville creek bridge...

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

The funeral of the late Edward Stubbs was held this afternoon from the home of C. E. Bell, of Bacon street. Burial services were conducted at the home and Methodist church by the Rev. M. J. Fulton...

To Prevent Pneumonia and Grip.

Laxative Bismuth-Quinine removes the cause. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is the best remedy for pneumonia and grip.

Advertisement for Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, featuring the product name and a small illustration of the bottle.

A number of people from out of town were present. Miss Annie McChrone, of South Main street, was a Carbondale visitor yesterday.

The Delaware and Hudson colliery will pay their employees here tomorrow (Friday). Mrs. Thomas Bray and daughter, Edith, spent yesterday with Carbondale friends.

Edith, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Seymour, of Third street, is ill of pneumonia. Benjamin Mendelson, of Mayfield, left yesterday for New York city.

Miss Margaret Quinn left yesterday for New York city to select the spring gown for her school. Misses Alice Hanwood, Annie Kilkor, Sarah Quinn and Surie Cure left Tuesday to resume their studies at the Stroudsburg State Normal school.

Clark's Green. Mrs. Sarah Boardman, of Dalton, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. E. J. Chapman, for several days this week. Miss Bessie Mulliney visited relatives in Scranton and Carbondale over Sunday.

Miss Elsie Carey, of Taylor, is visiting her aunt and cousins, Mrs. Elizabeth Wells and daughters, Carrie and Mary Wells. Miss Grace A. Davis has been confined to her home by sickness.

Miss Imogene Akerley was recently elected delegate to the grand convocation of the Rebecca lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, which convenes at Gettysburg in May next. Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Potter and family attended the funeral obsequies of Mrs. Charles Spencer...

The fourth quarterly conference of the Methodist Episcopal church of this charge was largely attended on Sunday evening last. A special item of note was that no many of the conference officials responded at roll call. All were present except two. Rev. M. S. Godshall, who has done very efficient work among his people here, was asked to be retained.

Jay Richards has accepted a position in the employ of Walter L. Matthews of this place. M. H. Coon has broken ground for a fine stable on his creek lot, which will be much appreciated for its great convenience. How to Cure a Cold. Don't go to bed. Don't stop work. Don't take a Turkish bath and render yourself liable to an attack of pneumonia...

Maple Sugar Making. The tract belongs to the late Clark Sisson estate and is owned and operated by his son, George Sisson, of this place. As the season is now on for the manufacture of the reliable sweetest maple syrup, it will be untimely to say a little something for the benefit of the many readers of the Tribune...

SCRANTON'S BUSINESS HOUSES

Advertisement for Scranton's Business Houses, listing various services and businesses including The Gilhool Wagons, Dime Bank Barber Shop, Cigars, Ladies' Tailors, and Real Estate.

The Victorian Literary society met at the high school yesterday. Frank Fryer left Tuesday for Philadelphia, where he expects to undergo an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Thomas McDowell is visiting friends in Scranton. The funeral of Thomas Turner will be held this afternoon at 2:30 in the Methodist Episcopal church.

A large number of our taxpayers attended the meeting of the late Mrs. Dave Martin, of Avoca, yesterday afternoon. Miss Verdie Dix was a caller in Scranton yesterday.

Maple Sugar Making. The tract belongs to the late Clark Sisson estate and is owned and operated by his son, George Sisson, of this place.

Garnets in Pennsylvania. In Delaware County Are Two Quarries That Do Well. Dr. T. C. Hepburn, in Mines and Minerals.

Garnets occur in large numbers in the mica schists in many localities in the southeastern counties of Pennsylvania but in only one locality are they mined in commercial quantities.

Democracy's Future. Not a Bright One in the Opinion of Colonel Denby. From the March Forum.

Among those who, for want of a better name, are called Gold Democrats, there is an impressive minority who will either a biography or an epitaph for the Democratic party.

In the first place, it may be remarked that the subject catches no flies. The high-handed denunciation of all the Democrats who failed to support Mr. Bryan and their eternal exclusion from the party...

LIVERITA THE UP-TO-DATE LITTLE LIVER PILL CURES Biliousness, Constipation, Dyspepsia, Sick-Head-ache and Liver Complaint.

Advertisement for Liverita, featuring the product name and a small illustration of the bottle.