

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

DEATH OF MISS GRAMBS.

Honesdale Lady Drops Dead from Over-exertion in Escaping a Shower.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Honesdale, March 27.—On Tuesday evening about 8 o'clock Miss Sophia D., daughter of Hon. Lorenzo Grambs, of inner Main street, was caught in a thunder shower when returning home from town, she entered the residence of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Krantz, to escape the heavy rain, and immediately sank into a chair and breathed her last before her sister could call assistance.

Miss Grambs suffered a paralytic stroke of a apoplexy about two years ago, from which she never fully recovered, and she was affected by an over-exertion. He haste to escape the shower probably brought on a second stroke.

Deceased was born July 21, 1853, and was the eldest of the family. She is survived by her father, two sisters, Mrs. W. H. Krantz and Miss Tillie, of Honesdale; William J. of Seattle, Wash.; L. O. of the Honesdale Shoe company; H. W. of Valley City, North Dakota; August B. and Frank G. of Bismark, North Dakota; J. Louis, of Scranton, and Albert A. at home.

The funeral services will be held at her late home, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in Glencliff cemetery.

TUNKHANNOCK.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Tunkhannock, March 27.—John Jennings, of the Jennings Milling and Lumber company, at North Mehoopany, was doing business in town on Monday.

Miss Nina Carney, a student at Wood's Business college, at Scranton, was visiting her aunt, Mrs. Joseph Luce, on Pine street on Monday.

Mrs. William Woodward, of Mehoopany, was the guest of Mrs. Martha Bunell, on Monday.

The diagram for reserved seats for the "Old Fashioned Husbands," to be given at Platt's Opera House on Friday evening next, for the benefit of Trifton Hose company, is now open at Goodrich's jewelry store on Toga street. Those holding tickets should see that they are marked at once.

Judge Frank M. Vaughn, of Mehoopany, was doing business in town on Tuesday.

Edward Huffsmith, who is in the meat and live stock buying business at Mill City, was a caller in town Tuesday.

Timothy on part of defendant in the case of desertion brought by Elizabeth Waterman against her husband, William Waterman, will be taken on Thursday afternoon before J. Wood Platt, commissioner.

Mrs. McEwen, an aged lady, mother of Mrs. Peter McEwen, of the Warren street hotel on Monday, of old age, she has been an invalid for a long time.

John B. Fassett, who has been confined to the home by illness for two weeks past, is able to be out again.

T. S. Burson, of the Warren street upholstery and bicycle establishment, has gone out of business here, and will remove his family to Binghamton, N. Y.

Attorney Charles B. Little, of Scranton, is visiting his parents at this place.

The building on Warren street, formerly occupied by John Townsend as a tailoring establishment, is being fitted up as a store, and James G. Leighton will open a grocery store there about the first of April. Mr. Leighton was engaged in the mercantile business here a number of years ago, but has recently been living on his farm in Tunkhannock township.

FOREST CITY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Forest City, March 27.—Michael Manovich, who was severely injured at the Forest City breaker, was yesterday taken to the hospital at Carbondale. His injuries are very serious and his recovery doubtful.

John Franko has closed his barber shop in the Aldrich building.

The many friends of B. F. Maxey in Forest City will be pleased to learn that the Luzerne county association of Retail Druggists.

There seems to be some misunderstanding as to the basis on which the silk mill girls returned to work in the Harvey mill yesterday. Some of the girls state that they are to receive an advance of 25 cents per week, but Mr. Harvey says they go back under the same scale and that they will be advanced as they grow more skillful under the old arrangement.

Misses Grace Menhennett and Alice Melvin left Monday for Bloomsburg Normal school, after spending their vacation here.

D. J. Harris and F. T. Gelder are home from their southern trip.

Monday was quarterly return day at Montross.

Jacob Kritehik has been appointed high constable by the borough council.

Clifford Lodge of Odd Fellows elected officers last evening.

A ball will be held in the Opera house Thursday, May 30, under the auspices of the Young Men's Institute, for the benefit of P. Morrison, who recently had an arm taken off as a result of injuries received in the mine.

PITTSBURGH.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Pittsburg, March 27.—The heavy rain storm of last night and the melting of snow on the mountain woodlands to the north have brought the Susquehanna river up to a point sixteen feet above the normal mark, and it is still rising. The low farm lands at the mouth of the Lackawanna, where that stream joins the Susquehanna river, are already flooded. Word has been received here from Binghamton to the effect that the Susquehanna and Susquehanna have overflowed their banks and that the cellars of houses near the river have been flooded.

Mrs. Annabelle Gorman, of William street, this city, was the first worthy grand matron of the Order of the Eastern Star of this state and the grand officers have given her a fitting recognition in the gift of a gold emblem of the order. The presentation was made at the regular meeting of the local chapter last evening by W. H. Saunders, Plummer, chairman of the badge committee.

Michael Flynn, for that forty-five years a resident of Port Griffith, died at his home at that place yesterday. The funeral will take place Thursday morning.

Rev. W. J. Judd, of Watertown, Conn., a Methodist minister, who held the pastorate of the Pittsburg church from 1864 to 1868, is visiting his niece, Mrs. F. H. Banker, of West Pittsburg.

General Manager W. A. May, of the Erie company's mines, Mine Superintendent Sidney Williams, of the Pennsylvania Coal company, Major W. W. Ingalls, superintendent of the Hillside Coal and Iron company, and Mr. Miller, an Erie official, made a tour of inspection of the Pennsylvania coal company's collieries in this vicinity today.

The ice cream dealers of this vicinity have agreed on a uniform rate for their toothsome summer delicacy. Thirty cents per quart or thirty-five cents per brick is the price.

The union of this vicinity has made a demand on the proprietors for an increase in wages for its members.

Druggist G. D. Stroh, of West Pittsburg, will embark in the butter and egg business on this state and the grand officers have given her a fitting recognition in the gift of a gold emblem of the order. The presentation was made at the regular meeting of the local chapter last evening by W. H. Saunders, Plummer, chairman of the badge committee.

Rev. Austin Griffin, of West Pittsburg, presiding elder of this district of the Methodist Episcopal conference, is in Syracuse, N. Y., attending a meeting of the presiding elders of the conference.

Delegations from the Jr. O. U. A. M. of this city and other places will journey to Tunkhannock Thursday evening, when they will attend a social session of the lodge at that place. The state officers will be present.

AVOCA.

A young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Barrett is seriously ill of spinal meningitis.

Miss Sarah Fadden has accepted a position as milliner with Dougherty & Thomas, of Scranton.

The funeral of Mrs. D. C. Morton took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence on Main street. Services at the house were conducted by Rev. D. T. Smythe. The sermon was taken from the worldly lessons of life and the sentiments expressed were consoling to the grief-stricken friends that gathered about the casket. The choir sang passages from the Psalms of David. The pallbearers were: Alex. Allen, Alex. Conkey, C. L. McMillan, William Stephenson, James Rierdon, J. H. Anderson. The flowers were carried by John Hinkle, H. C. Johnson, William Amos, George Allen, Robert Cranston, John Graham, D. M. Hessler. Among those from out of town were: John Moffitt and son, Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton, George Allen, M. J. Sullivan, Hon. James D. McMillan, and Mary McCullough. Undertakers Donnelly, Cutler, Burns, Howell, Mrs. John Hastie, Mrs. James Hastie, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Mungo Thompson, Pittsburg; Mr. and Mrs. James McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McMillan, Mrs. Henry McMillan, West Pittsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wiley, Carbondale; Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Hessler, Wilkes-Barre.

W. J. Remman is recovering from a severe attack of appendicitis.

Rev. Father Fleming, of Hyde Park, preached a beautiful sermon in St. Mary's church Tuesday evening.

The remains of Francis, the five-weeks-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Leonard were taken to New Britton, Conn., on Monday evening for interment.

The Primitive Methodist bazaar opened in the basement of the silk mill Tuesday evening. The booths are beautifully decorated and are well stocked with ornamental and useful articles of great many articles will be sold at reasonable prices.

The Delaware and Hudson company has posted notices at their colliery in regard to establishing a fund, which is to go into effect on April 1. Each member of the association will be charged one day's pay for his dues. Those receiving $1.20 or more for their day's wages, will receive $1 per day, or in case of death the widow will receive $30 and $3 a week for one year. Those receiving less than $1.20 per day will receive 50c per day for one year.

Thomas Robinson, of Hoboken, N. J., is visiting at the family residence on Spring street.

The Hillside Coal company will pay its employees today.

The funeral of Margaret, the 7-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Doran, was interred yesterday afternoon in St. Mary's cemetery.

FACTORYVILLE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Factoryville, March 28.—Miss Pansy DeLanier, of this town, spent last Saturday in this place. Miss Eliza Carr and family are moving to Dalton. They have formerly occupied the Pike house.

George E. Stanton has rented the bakery and lunch rooms in the factory building and will about April 1 open up a first class establishment. He will reside in D. D. Gardner's house on Main street.

Louis Rifebaby has rented the new residence on Main street owned by the Linsley estate, where he will live with his family April 1.

Mrs. A. E. Bush will dispose of part of her household goods at public sale next Friday before leaving for Canada with her daughters.

A strong fight is being put up here this spring against the liquor license. A gentleman, who has a number of legal voters has been elected. A remonstrance containing nearly one hundred names of legal voters has been filed.

Bob Jackel, No. 35, Independent Order of Odd Fellows of this place, will bring before their anniversary on the evening of April 2, Factoryville camp, No. 230, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will be in regular session this Wednesday evening, and the second degree will be conferred. All members are requested to be present.

The Episcopal league convention held at the Episcopal church in this place last Saturday was well attended, there being many delegates from out of town present. A carefully prepared programme was carried out and evening worship was conducted for the success of the convention. Dinner was furnished at the church for the visiting delegates.

Next Friday evening at the Methodist Episcopal church the second lecture of the course under the auspices of the Episcopate will be given, when Homer Green, of Honesdale, the poet and author, will appear for the first time before a Factoryville audience. He will read his own poetry, published and unpublished. This will be a rare treat and should not be missed. Admission will be but ten cents.

The date, Tuesday evening, April 9, for the Episcopate and Gaiter club of Binghamton, N. Y., to appear at the Episcopal church under the auspices of the Episcopate league, has been changed to a later date. The new date will be given in this column. Key-note speakers will close next week for the Easter season.

D. L. Gardner, representing the International Conference of churches, at Scranton, in this district, has a window display in the store window of Bliss & Hunt.

A. E. Bodeh, the blacksmith, will go to Dalton on April 1, where he will conduct a shop.

George W. Lester's Shakespearean theatre, London, and New York Casino success, "The Belle of New York," will be seen at the Lyceum on Saturday afternoon and night. Most of the London company are excellent actors. The manager will be true, but a chance will be given those who attend to make a free-will offering to a benevolent cause.

Mrs. Kate M. Post, an esteemed resident of the Oakland side, is about to take up her residence in Thomson.

The Helping Hand society of the Methodist church met at the language class afternoon on the 26th inst. in Oakland. The supper will be true, but a chance will be given those who attend to make a free-will offering to a benevolent cause.

Mrs. Mulhany and son, late of Laurel street, has removed to Scranton.

In the matter of the contention between the Erie engineers and the Chicago publishers of the book, "The Lives of Erie Engineers," a Chicago judge has granted an injunction restraining the publishers from further presentation of attachments.

Rev. E. B. Barston, of Scranton, preached an able sermon in Christ Episcopal church this evening.

NEW YORK GRAIN MARKET.

WHEAT. Open: High: Low: Close: 11 11 1/2 11 11 1/2

CORNS. Open: High: Low: Close: 47 47 1/2 47 47 1/2

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

WHEAT. Open: High: Low: Close: 75 75 1/2 75 75 1/2

CORNS. Open: High: Low: Close: 47 47 1/2 47 47 1/2

FOUR. Open: High: Low: Close: 13 13 1/2 13 13 1/2

SCRANTON BOARD OF TRADE EXCHANGE QUOTATIONS—All Quotations Based on Par of 100.

First National Bank 100 100

Scranton National Bank 100 100

Third National Bank 100 100

Home Deposit and Savings Bank 100 100

Economy Light, H. & P. Co. 100 100

Lacka. Trust Sale Deposit Co. 100 100

Clark & Snover Co., Pr. 100 100

Scranton Iron Foundry & Mfg. Co. 100 100

Lackawanna Dairy Co., Pr. 100 100

County Savings Bank & Trust Co. 100 100

First National Bank (Carbondale) 100 100

Standard Drilling Co. 100 100

Traders' National Bank 100 100

Scranton Bank and Trust Co. 100 100

BONDS.

Scranton Mortgage Railway, First Mortgage, due 1918 115 115

People's Street Railway, First Mortgage, due 1918 115 115

People's Street Railway, General 115 115

Scranton Mortgage Railway, Second Mortgage, due 1921 115 115

Scranton Mortgage Railway, Third Mortgage, due 1924 115 115

Scranton Mortgage Railway, Fourth Mortgage, due 1927 115 115

Scranton Mortgage Railway, Fifth Mortgage, due 1930 115 115

Scranton Mortgage Railway, Sixth Mortgage, due 1933 115 115

THEATRICAL.

At the Gaiety Today.

The attraction at the Gaiety for three days beginning Thursday matinee, will be M. M. Tiesens' "Wives, Women and Song" company of entertainers, and also, the best of its kind on the road. This organization of fun makers will go to do battle with the old fashioned patrons of the Gaiety when here before.

The company this season is if anything better than last and includes some of the best known vaudeville acts of the business, including Gilbert and Sullivan, Four American Tumbrelles, King and Gottlieb, Hansen and Drew, and Mignon Gilbert. Of course there is the usual chorus of pretty girls, without whom the musical comedy would be incomplete. The programme opens with a musical fancy comedy entitled "The Vandeville Circus," being a clever satire on the invasion of the vaudeville stage by many prominent dramatic and operatic stars. The specialty acts come next, followed by a laughable burlesque. There will be the usual matinee.

At the Gaiety Tonight.

Tim Murphy tonight.

Tim Murphy, supported by the Sol Smith Row and company, will appear in "A Bachelor's Romance" tonight.

ACADEMY—"The Tide of Life." Night.

GAIETY—"Wives, Women and Song" company, Matinee and night.

LYCEUM—Tim Murphy in "A Bachelor's Romance" tonight.

"A Bachelor's Romance" is a gentle fancy, nothing in narration and feeling of unctuous humor and quaint pathos. The play is one of the best of its kind selected for the various parts and the company which Mr. Berger has chosen is competent in every way. All the characters are emblematic and typical. Sylvia Somers is being played by Dorothy Sherman in a manner that is winning for her the undivided praise of the press and the public.

Marie Dressler, Friday Night.

"An Angel Looking for an Angel," which Marie Dressler sings in the musical comedy, "Miss Primm," never fails to get five and six crows.

"Miss Primm," the musical comedy which will be seen at the Lyceum theatre Friday night, has been played for one week of one night stands this season. It opened in Boston for a five weeks' run, then played six weeks in New York at the Victoria theatre and three more weeks at the Lyceum, and after this week goes to Philadelphia for a run. The piece is a musical comedy and is supported by forty people and the title role is played by Marie Dressler.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.

"The Belle of New York" is a paragon of Ella Wheeler Wilcox's famous lines, which are the most beautiful and successful of the American stage. Her success as a star this season has been phenomenal and she comes to the Lyceum theatre next Friday night direct from a long run at the Victoria theatre, New York, and presents her entire production here as seen there with its special scenery and a company of fifty people.