MRS. COGLIZER BRINGS SUIT

SHE ASKS DAMAGES FOR DEATH OF HUSBAND.

He Was a Fireman on the D. L. and W. Road, and Was Killed in a Wreck on July 3 Last—Non Suit in the Kilmartin Case Refused. Verdicts in Two Other Cases. Number of Deeds Acknowledged by the Sheriff—Wills That Were Admitted to Probate.

Mrs. Catharine Coglizer yesterday began a suit against the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company, in behalf of herself and three children, to recover $50,000 damages for the death of her husband, Harry Coglizer, who was killed on that road at Henryville on July 3 last. She is represented by Attorney Joseph O'Brien, M. J. Martin and L. H. Burns. Harry Coglizer was a fireman on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road, and was coming towards this city on the day of his death. The engine on which he was employed was one of three attached to a heavy freight train. There had been a wreck on the east-bound track and cars toppled over on the rails of the west-bound track. The engine attached to the freight train crashed into the wreck and Coglizer was killed.

Common Pleas Court.

It was so cold in the main court room yesterday that Judge Kelly had to move into No. 2. There was no case for Judge Albright to try in that court, the last having been disposed of and all cases were discharged from further attendance at court, with the exception of those sworn in the case of Mrs. Annie Kilmartin against the Fire Insurance company of Philadelphia to recover $1,000 on an insurance policy.

After the plaintiff rested yesterday morning the defendant asked for a non-suit, but it was denied. The defense argues that the building occupied by Mrs. Kilmartin was deliberately set on fire. The case will go to the jury today.

In the case of H. P. Williams against the Electric City Land and Improvement company, a verdict was yesterday returned for the plaintiff for $27,250.

A verdict for the plaintiff for $30,000 was returned yesterday in the case of Tripp & Co. against J. E. Johnson.

Wills Admitted to Probate.

The will of William Stern, late of South Scranton, who died last Saturday, was admitted to probate yesterday and letters testamentary granted to Harriet Stern, his widow, who is left his entire estate.

The will of Elizabeth A. Sweet, late of Benton, was admitted to probate and letters testamentary granted to Elliott Sweet.

Thilo Turack was named as executrix in the will of Frank Trefler, late of Pridmore, and letters testamentary were granted to her.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES.

Local business yesterday began an action in equity to recover household goods valued at $200, which he claims were wrongfully seized by Sarah L. Lee and Constance L. S. Booth.

The trustees of the court house appealed in various systems, including the collection of dark blue, the outside of the double-breasted variety and are ornamented with brass buttons. Each trustee is designated by a number, which is inscribed on a badge he wears. (Under the Rules is No. 1.)

Judicial deeds were yesterday acknowledged in open court by the following for properties recently sold: Margaret A. Vandenberg and Corbely, Cooperative Building bank, George S. Kimball, Gannon Building Association, No. 9, P. K. Manley, Charles Robinson, The Cabaret Building and Loan association, James H. McLaughlin, John B. Yeager, executor, Elizabeth D'Angelo, Michael J. McAndrew, Cooperative Building bank, these properties; John Ruppel, Edmond Scott, German Building and Loan association, No. 4, North Second. The sheet will acknowledge additional deeds next Tuesday.

In the matter of Henry Bellin, Jr., against Marie M. Everett and others, Judge Archibald yesterday handed down a decision directing the following distribution of $100 in the hands of the sheriff, being a part of the funds derived from the sheriff's sale of defendant's property, and in contempt, $100, in addition to $200, balance for distribution, $300, which will be distributed as follows: To George H. Binham, ex executor, $100; to Henry Bellin, Jr., on judgment on second mortgage, $200.

THOMAS FORD WAS HELD.

Alleged Highwayman Committed to Jail Without Bail.

Thomas Ford, the man who was arrested by Patrolman Louis Day at 2 o'clock yesterday morning for assaulting and robbing Stanley Deniski, was committed to the county jail without bail yesterday.

Ford and his partner, at present unknown, fired Deniski in the Delaware and Hudson tracks, under the Linden street bridge, and while Ford grasped him by the throat, the other hit him with his fist. They hurriedly examined his clothing and extracted $15. About 10 o'clock the prisoner was found in a half-conscious condition and taken to the Center street station.

He described one of his assailants as a man with a wooden leg, and with this clue Patrolman Day succeeded in arresting Ford in the rear of the Columbia hotel.

Ford was arraigned before Alderman Kason in police court yesterday, when Deniski preferred the charges. The prisoner denied all knowledge of the affair, but Deniski unhesitatingly identified him as the man who knocked him down.

Ford recently completed serving a three months' term for selling liquor without a license in West Scranton.

IT IS NOT MANDATORY.

Collection of a Poll Tax Is Optional with Councils.

Much discussion has arisen as to whether the levy and collection of a poll tax of $1 as provided for cities of the second class is mandatory or not. A careful reading of the law would seem to show that it is not mandatory but rather optional with councils. Common council sat down on the proposition on Wednesday night and amended the tax levy ordinance so as to exclude the provision for its levy and collection.

The act of 1878 explicitly sets forth that the councils of cities of the second class "shall" levy and collect such a poll tax in lieu of an occupation tax. The "tipper" bill, however, merely gives council the "power" to impose and collect such a tax. The early act makes it mandatory while the latter makes it optional. Both provisions are inconsistent one with another and the established rule in such a case is that the later act prevails.

AN EASY WAY.

To Keep Well.

It is easy to keep well if we would only observe each day a few simple rules of health.

The all important thing is to keep the stomach right and to do this it is not necessary to diet or to follow a set rule or bill of fare. Such pampering simply makes a capricious appetite and a feeling that certain favorite articles of food must be avoided.

Prof. Weichold gives pretty good advice on this subject; he says: "I am 65 years old and have never had a serious illness, and at the same time my life has been largely an indoor one. I have made it a daily practice to keep healthy by eating a healthy breakfast, not by eating cran crackers or dining of any sort; on the contrary I always eat what my appetite craves, but for the past eight years I have made it a daily practice to take one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal and I attribute my robust health for a man of my age to the regular daily use of Stuart's Tablets."

My physician first advised me to use them because he said they were perfectly harmless and were not a secret patent medicine but contained only the natural digestives, pepsines and dilators, and after using them a few weeks I have never ceased to thank him for his advice.

"I heretofore believe the habit of taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals is the real health habit, because their use brings health to the sick and cures and preserves health to the well and strong."

Men and women past fifty years of age need a safe digestive after meals to insure a perfect digestion and to ward off disease, and the safest, best known and most widely used is Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

They are found in every well regulated household from Maine to California and in Great Britain and Australia are rapidly pushing their way into popular favor.

All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, full sized packages, at 50 cents and for a weak stomach a fifty cent package will afford a fifty dollar worth of good.

position on Wednesday night and amended the tax levy ordinance so as to exclude the provision for its levy and collection.

Both provisions are inconsistent one with another and the established rule in such a case is that the later act prevails.

An occupation tax, however, cannot be collected in a city of the second class and with councils refusing to impose and collect the poll tax, the city will be out during the coming year just about $1,000 which is approximately the aggregate amount of the occupation tax levied last year.

TO HOLD MEETINGS AT NOON.

Secretary Atherton Sounding Board of Trade Members on Proposition.

Secretary D. B. Atherton, of the board of trade, is sending out inquiries to each member of that organization asking them whether they favor holding board of trade meetings in the future at the noon hour instead of at night. If a majority of the members signifying their approval of the plan it will be adopted and put into force beginning with the April meeting.

All the large boards of trade in the country hold their meetings at the noon hour and many advantages are claimed for the plan. The business men are all in the business part of the city at that time and the hope of a cheerful hour or so in social intercourse with the other members of the organization is said to be a powerful incentive which secures a large attendance and consequently a greater interest in the matters up for consideration.

If the plan is adopted, Secretary Atherton proposes to have a lunch served in the Scranton club at the close of every meeting so that the members will not be able to offer the excuse that they've got to go home to luncheon.

STATUE OF LINCOLN.

Suggestion That One Be Erected in Charleston S. C. Made at a Meeting of Colored Citizens.

An indignation meeting was advertised to be held at the Howard Place African Methodist Episcopal church last night, when it was proposed to pass resolutions protesting against the so-called outrages of South Carolina. Resolved, That, Mayor W. S. Miller and City Solicitor A. A. Vosturg were stated to address the meeting, but other business prevented their presence.

Rev. D. S. Bentley, pastor of the church, presided over the meeting, and John Walker opened the exercises with a prayer. President Campbell Hughes, of the Keystone Republican club, stated the object of the meeting, denouncing in bitter terms the present attitude of the Southern people towards his race, as chairman of the steering committee arrangements, he introduced the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we, the colored citizens of Scranton, hereby enter our unqualified protest against these violations of the organic laws of the country and the utter disregard of all divine and human, as exhibited in the repeated outrages perpetrated upon the negro by mobs in the south.

Resolved, That we wish to see a monument in the south erected to Abraham Lincoln and will assist in every possible manner for its grand consummation.

Resolved, That Charleston, South Carolina, is the most desirable place for such commemoration of President Lincoln, and its erection will at last give the assurance of no north, no south, no east, no west, and being in a town that for which we all have waited and sighed, permanent political prosperity to our country and all of its inhabitants.

After some little discussion, brought on by John Walker, who did not fully understand when connection the monument had with the question under discussion, and who expressed some little alarm as to how and by whom the money was to be raised to defray the expenses of the memorial, the resolutions were adopted as recommended.

ANOTHER CHARMING RECITAL.

Given by the Pupils of Conservatory of Music.

The Conservatory of Music gave another of its charming pianoforte recitals last night in St. Luke's parish home auditorium. Although the seating capacity of this hall is much greater than that of the one used on former similar occasions, the auditorium was crowded with an enthusiastic audience. As usual, the admission was free, but the privilege of being able to pick out an excellent seat and have it reserved for the nominal sum of ten cents was taken advantage of by a large number, fully half of the hall being reserved. Thus the plan of Director Pennington to provide a scholarship fund to assist needy but talented students has been inaugurated with excellent success, for all money reserved from reserved seats is appropriated to this use.

Musically, the recital was probably the best given by the Conservatory this year, and showed much progress on the part of individual pupils. One of the prominent features of these recitals is that all grades and departments of the systematic training are represented. Thus the programme was made up of solo pieces ranging from the easiest played by a lot of seven, to difficult selections from Chopin, Rubinstein, Raff, Liszt, Schubert, and Beethoven, varied by ensemble numbers rendered by two different sets of eight pupils each at four pianos and class recitations by younger pupils. In all, sixty-five young people were upon the programme.

The results obtained by the use of the Fuesler system of pianoforte instruction are surprising and the illustrations given last evening by the younger pupils showed a positive knowledge of key relationship and transposition which is never expected save in musicians of long study and experience. Thus this knowledge is so clearly within the grasp of the youngest pupils that it is a musical education is apparent to every one acquainted with musical study.

As usual in these recitals the playing of pieces in any key asked for by the audience, made a sensation, and especially so when this was done by little Gyrodoni Marjorie Christian, the youngest pupil of the school. It would be unfair to single out for special mention any of the others since all who played, from the youngest to the more mature, whether in solos or ensemble numbers played musically and with more than usual technical proficiency.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Had this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune does not assume responsibility for opinions here expressed.

O'Malley Requested to Answer.

Editor of The Tribune:

Sir: Will Mr. William G. O'Malley, select commission of the Twentieth ward, please answer the following questions:

First—Did Mr. O'Malley ask the judges of election in the several districts in the Twentieth ward to procure the ballot out of the special election for select commission, held on Dec. 18, 1906?

Second—Did Mr. O'Malley receive the said ballot from the judges in the several districts in his name?

Third—Did Mr. O'Malley make a list of all who voted against him, said names being taken from the ballot out of his name?

Fourth—Did Mr. O'Malley make threats to discharge men working under him who voted against him?

Fifth—Did Mr. O'Malley ask the several judges of election how they felt this was a state prison office?

As a voter of the Twentieth ward I think it is my duty to ask these questions, and I am sure that which is answered it is about time that a stop should be put to it, and that specially, it is an outrage on every good citizen of the ward to think that his select ballot is nothing but a sham.

It is my duty to ask Mr. O'Malley to be given names of all the voters in the ward who are not correct to put a stop to these ballot out of the special election. Please insert this above in your valuable paper and oblige.
