Offered Them Money and Candy to Accompany Him Carriage Riding. Mine Workers Holding Special Meetings-Story of Sheldon's "In His Steps"-What Has Become of the Viaduct-Rev. Milman's Farewell Sermon-Funeral Announcements-Notes and Personals.

Report has been made from the Fifbenth ward that a stranger has been furking around No. 32 school house for several days, endeavoring to entice little girls to accompany him carriage riding His method is to offer them pennies and candy, but fortunately ione of the children have been enticed

It is also said that the stranger had made inquiries about a certain child, but this statement could not be verified. Some of the children reported the matter to their parents and the teachers were informed, but up to last night the police knew nothing of the affair,

Rev. Millman's Farewell.

Rev. Frank J. Milman, who for the past fifteen months has been in charge of the work at the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church, will preach his farewell sermon to that congregation tomorrow evening. On Monday he will begin his work as pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of Pottsville.

During Rev. Milman's connection with the Sumner avenue church, he has been instrumental in liquidating the debt which overshadowed it and succeeded in bringing many souls to the Master.

A large number of the church and congregation tendered him a farewell reception last evening at the home of Mrs. Kiah Peters, on North Rebecco evenue. The evening was enjoyably spent in games and other diversion incidental to gatherings of that nature and at a seasonable hour refreshment were served.

Mine Workers' Meetings.

THE DEATH OF CILIBERTI

Verdict That Was Returned by the Coroner's Jury at the Inquest Last Night.

The inquest held by Acting Coroner Paine last night at Dunmore to inquire into the causes of the death of Giovanni Ciliberti brought out no new feaommandery, No. 230, Knights of Maltures in the case. County Detective ta, which was held at Hartman's hall Phillips was present and gave as his opinion that it was undoubtedly a case of murder declaring the suicide theory to be an impossibility. Coroner Palne was very emphatic in his declaration of the same thing and said that from the position of the wound it was utterly impossible for Ciliberti to have killed himself. There were no witnesses present, it being extremely difficult to induce any one in that neighborhood to say anything in reference to affairs of this kind. The jury rendered the following verdict: "We, the undersigned jurors find that the said Giovanni Ciliberti met his death from gunshot wounds at the hand of party or parties unknown

We would request that the county commissioners take some action in this case and make a determined effort to bring about the apprehension of the person or persons guilty of this crime," (Signed) John J. Brogen, W. L. Purell, James McGrail, Fred Beavers, Dr.
