Miss Mary Monahan, of England, is visiting friends in South Scranton.

Edgar Twining, of March Creek, is visiting at the home of Alfred Twining on Swanton street.

Mr. Evans, of Portland, Pa., who has been visiting relatives in this city, returned home on Saturday.

W. C. Dangleberry, Charles C. Hale, William Barnes and F. M. Gilson, of Danville, Pa., are visiting friends in this city.

William H. Scranton, son of James S. Scranton, of Monroe avenue, student at Princeton college, is spending the Easter holidays at home.

Harry E. Jones, lawyer, of Philadelphia, was one of the soloists at the Second Presbyterian church yesterday and his eloquent voice was greatly admired by the many invited members of the congregation.

COMMISSION ARRIVES TODAY.

Judge Archbald Will Take Oath of Office Before Judge Edwards.

The commission of Hon. R. W. Archbald, as judge of the United States federal court, which arrived this morning, is expected, and Judge Archbald will immediately take the oath of office before Judge H. M. Edwards.

No announcement has been made of the person Judge Archbald will name as clerk of the new court. It has not yet made the appointment.

Easter Offering.

"THE LITTLE CAPTIVE" is the title of our NEW ART SOUVENIR for this EASTER, which was painted expressly for us by W. H. Beard, one of the most celebrated animal painters in the world. We have had it reproduced at a large expense—lithographed in twelve oil colors, on coated paper, and mounted on very heavy CARDBOARD. Size: 9x12 inches. It is such a charming subject that it should find a place in every home. Don't miss getting one.

MENTION OF MEN OF HOUR

DR. SUARZ OF LACKAWANNA HOSPITAL STAFF.

He is from South America and Was Graduated from the University of Pennsylvania—Mr. Clark, the New Weather Man Who Has Succeeded Observer Donaldson—Has Been in the Weather Service for Many Years—Common Councilman A. L. Lewis of Fifth Ward.

Dr. Albert Camilo Suarz, a member of the resident staff of physicians at the Lackawanna hospital, is one of the most genial and affable of men that has crossed the border line into Scranton for some time past. While Dr. Suarz's stay in this city does not exceed three months he has met and conquered by his unaffected manner a host of friends and acquaintances. As his name indicates, Dr. Suarz is of Spanish parentage, his home being in the Republic of Colombia, South America, and he discusses with all the ardor of a patriot the affairs of his native land.

Dr. Suarz has travelled over a great portion of the world, having visited different parts of France, England and Belgium. He has also visited cities in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, New Orleans and many other cities of the United States this side of the Mississippi river. He speaks three languages, Spanish, French and English and reads Portuguese. For a foreign born Dr. Suarz speaks English fluently, his pronunciation receiving an added charm from a slight accent and cautiousness.

Dr. Suarz has been in this country ten years and secured his medical education at the University of Pennsylvania, having been graduated in the class of 1900. He is loud in his admiration of the wonderful work performed at the great university.

Observer W. E. Donaldson, who was in charge of the local station of the United States bureau, ever since its opening, left the city Wednesday for Binghamton and the man who will henceforth look after the peculiar weather of Scranton whether it be already presiding over local atmospheric destinies. The ordinary man toiling along on a red hot summer day fondly pictures the weather man as calmly perched upon the heights of the observatory on the Conover building in a state of delightful composure, serenely gazing upon the unfortunate victims of old Sol. There are even some people who carry their whimsicalities to such an extreme as to actually blame the unfortunate recorder of the frocks for the sun god for the whims of that divinity.

Mr. Clark is not a man, however, who is likely to worry a great deal over mistaken notions of irritated humanity. He is a southerner and possessed of a genial good-humored nature which is destined to make him as great a favorite as his predecessor, Donaldson, was before him. Mr. Clark is a man of long experience in the service of the weather bureau, and enjoys the reputation of being one of the most efficient officials in the department. For twenty years he has been a "weather man," and stands high in the esteem of Chief of the Bureau Willis Moore.

He was in charge of the station at Little Rock, Arkansas, for nine years, and was at Binghamton, his last station, for three years. He has served in all parts of this country and has also had charge of stations in Alaska.

The young element of the Republican party in West Scranton has a capable and eloquent representative in the common council in the person of A. L. Lewis, who was recently elected to fill the vacancy in the Fifth ward, caused by the resignation of Charles E. Goldsball. Mr. Lewis came into council practically unopposed in the intricate ways of municipal affairs, but he has proved to be an apt student and has already made several pithy little speeches in opposition to pending measures.

He is an enthusiastic volunteer fireman and was for some time an assistant chief. He was opposed to the original fire department re-organization ordinance, but it could be seen from the frank and open manner in which he manifested his opposition that he was acting not from a selfish motive, but from a desire to see the efficiency of the department improved. He is popular with all alike and will undoubtedly make a good record for himself.

HON. H. M. EDWARDS.
He Today Succeeds Hon. R. W. Archbald as President Judge of the Courts of Lackawanna County—He Has Been Additional Law Judge Since January, 1894.

BOTH REJECTED SCALE.

Looks as if the Settlement of the Silk Mill Strike Was as Far Off as Ever.

At meetings held Saturday of the striking employes of both the hard and soft silk departments of the Saugott mill, the offer of an 8-12 per cent. increase made to the strikers by Superintendent Davis was rejected, and by this move it seems that all peace has been shattered once more.

A committee representing the hard silk girls called upon the Saugott superintendent Saturday morning. They were armed with a wage scale drawn up Friday afternoon by the executive committee, and this document they presented to Mr. Davis. The latter refused to consider it. He also informed them of the action taken by the operators and superintendents of this region at Saturday night's meeting when they pledged themselves to make no further concessions than those offered by the Saugott management.

ACTOR DROPS DEAD.

Edwin S. Tarr, Veteran of the Stage, Stricken by Apoplexy After the Night Performance.

Edwin S. Tarr, of the "Belle of New York" company, dropped dead of apoplexy in the office of Hotel Terrace at 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning, at the age of 63 years.

At the close of the night performance at the Lyceum Saturday night he went out with several members of the company for a lunch and then returned to his hotel. He was sitting in a chair reading a newspaper when a fit of coughing seized him and in ten minutes he had utterly collapsed. He had contracted a cold and was coughing more or less during the past two days. The exertion, it is thought, burst a blood vessel and caused death. Besides suffering from the cold and his attendant cough he was worrying considerably during the day over the death of his close personal friend, Roland Reed, which was announced in yesterday's dispatches.

AT ST. LUKE'S CHURCH.

The Manner in Which Holy Week Will Be Observed.

At St. Luke's Episcopal church yesterday there were special celebrations of the holy communion at 7:30 and 10:30 a. m., conducted by the rector, Rev. Dr. Rogers. There was a special mission service at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, when the rector delivered a sermon on "The Resurrection of the Body."

DEATH OF ROLAND REED.

Succumbed in New York, Saturday, to Cancer of Stomach.

Roland Reed, the actor for years past a frequent visitor to Scranton in a social and professional way, died at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at the home of Mrs. Ruth, No. 361 West One Hundred and Twenty-second street, New York. At his bedside were his daughter, Florence Reed, and Mrs. Ruth. The actor's death was caused by cancer of the stomach, from which he had been suffering for some time and for the amelioration of which he had been confined to several operations at St. Luke's hospital. His death was peaceful.

IN INTERESTS OF VOSBURG.

Meeting to Be Held in the Auditorium Tonight.

A meeting has been called for 7:30 this evening, in the Auditorium, North Scranton, to take action with reference to the candidacy of A. A. Vosburg for the appointment to the bench of this county, to succeed Judge R. W. Archbald.

IT IS DESTRUCTIVE.

"Now the liquor dealers voice the cry, and yet the influence of the saloon on business is morally and financially destructive. In England, whenever there is a money mart, small wonder that the rights of the people, it is a recognized fact that there is nothing so powerful as the aroused public sentiment, and no statesman can stand against it. When any man stands up for the rights of the people, he will find himself in a powerful position in the eyes of the people."

TODAY'S EVENTS.

Recognition of councils. This morning.
Concert of pupils of Scranton College of Music, Night.
Bowling match between Bicycle club team and Black Diamonds.
Meeting in the Auditorium, North Scranton, to hear A. A. Vosburg for the judgeship. Night.

SCATHED THE VAUGHAN BILL

REV. DR. ROBINSON SPEAKS OF RIGHTS OF SALOONS.

Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church Compared Local Existing Conditions with the Delinquent of Ancient Jerusalem—Was Warmly Applauded the Work of Rev. Dr. James McLeod and the Other Members of the Citizens' Committee Who Visited Harrisburg.

"The rights of the saloon," which interested fifth through was the subject of an interesting discourse by Rev. Dr. C. E. Robinson, at the Second Presbyterian church last night, during which he denounced in bitter terms the Vaughan liquor license bill and decried the efforts of Rev. Dr. James McLeod and the other members of the citizens' committee who devoted their energies to fighting the measure.

He chose his text from Nehemiah XIII:21, which tells of the prophet's righteous indignation at the sacrilegious rights he saw in the holy city. In opening his address, Dr. Robinson said: "For some time the Christian temperance people of this city have had plenty of interesting reading regarding the famous, or not to put too fine a edge upon it, the infamous Vaughan bill. A committee at Harrisburg, representing the interests of the people who are representatives of the liquor interests argued that with such a high license very reputable citizens would be deprived of the very profitable business of keeping saloons, stores would be vacant as a result, and a corresponding loss of property to the city would ensue."

WORK OF COMMITTEE.

"This committee," continued the speaker, "consisted of Rev. Dr. James McLeod, chairman; W. J. Hand and ex-Judge Jessup. All praise to them for the strong efforts which resulted in success. They arrived at Harrisburg too late to appear before the committee, but not too late to reach the legislators at the capital, by means of the public press, and by placing before each of the members a copy of this petition signed by citizens of this city showing them what public opinion was regarding the bill which passed first reading in the house, without a dissenting voice."

"Their efforts were crowned with success, indeed, and on final reading the measure was defeated by a vote of 79-77. Agitation of a great cause in the name of God and humanity is always mighty and more powerful than regiments of soldiers. The supporters of the bill argue that the more saloons there are, the more business there is, and the more business the more prosperity. Money, money, is the word. Money, money, is the same argument used then."
