ORANGES WHICH WERE NOT. Joke Played by A. P. Bedford Upon City Club.,

Andrew P. Bedford enjoys a local reputation as a practical joker, and he sustained his fame Saturday night by an elaborate hoax upon his fellowmembers of the City club. Mr. Bed ford was tendered a reception by the club, the occasion being his return from Florida.

In announcing the reception, word also went the rounds that one of the features of the repast would be a box of luscious, golden oranges sent fron Florida by Mr. Bedford as a gift to the lub. About forty members were pres ent, and after partaking of the rest of the lunch, the master of ceremonies Major W. S. Millar, introduced Colone H. A. Coursen, who presented the members with the oranges in behalf of the modest donor.

With watering lips and appetites whetted by eager expectancy, those present then watched Major Millar's ovements, as he left the room for the oranges. The doughty major soon returned, staggering 'neath the burden a toothpick box filled with kung nots, a fruit the size of a tiny marble and looking like miniature oranges. A. Warman, in a clever little speech thanked Mr. Bedford for the munificent gift. A cake walk by Miss Porter, of Philadelphia, and W. H. Fisher, of this city, was part of the night's pro-

ANNIE SOO HOO DOO.

Name of the Little Miss Who Has Come to Brighten the Local Chinese Colony.

A tiny bundle of bronze-colored humanity, who will wander through life under the appellation of Annie Soc Hoo Doo, arrived at the home of her proud Chinese parents, on Spruce street, Friday night. Soo Hoo Doo is well known as a thriving laundryman, and one of the leading Celestial citizens of this city.

A Tribune man called upon him yesterday afternoon, and on signifying his desire to see Miss Soo Hoo Doo, was met by a delighted affirmatory chuckle from the happy pater. The laundry-man's place of business adjoins his residence, and with a hospitable wave of his hand Soo Hoo Doo remarked: "Sittee down. Me gettee girl."

While awaiting the return of father end daughter, the reporter's eyes wandered about the room and saw, besides stacks and stacks of the peculiar white checks upon which the Chinese hieroglyphics are inscribed, which denoted he extent of one's indebtedness, numerous pictures of Soo and his family. These were pictures of the laundryman wearing the flowing garments of thing and others showing him in the most approved cutaway and ascot tie of the American citizen.

In the window bloomed a number of strange looking Eastern plants, bedded in large Chinese urns, Soo Hoo Doo on returned, bearing in his arms a tiny, bright-faced individual, which, on the whole, bore a resemblance to the najority of bables whose age doesn't run over one hundred hours. Close behind the laundryman trudged two other nembers of his family, all of whom ire Scranton-born.

"This," he said, indicating a brightlooking little girl whose sex was a sort of Chinese puzzle to solve, when the fact is considered that she was garbed in a long blue blouse and wide trous ers, "this Jennie. We call her seven years.

A stocky little chap, with a beaming Celestial face and a sprouting que, who was a miniature copy of Soo himself, was next indicated by the latter, who remarked, "That Harry, good boy. We call him five year. We have other boy, too. He called Willam. Not know whether William Me-Kinley or Bryan, and," added the paterfamilias with an engaging smile, we let him say which."

Soo Hoo Doo and his wife, who i getting along very well, are both Chinese born, and have lived here during the last fifteen years.

SWORN IN AT HIGH NOON

JUDGE ARCHBALD NOW A FED-ERAL COURT JUDGE.

His Commission Arrived Yesterday Morning and at Noon on the Bench in the Main Court Room He Took the Oath of Office Before Judge Edwards Who Subscribed to the Document as President Judge. Archbald's Commission and Oath of Office-Warmly Congratulated.

Hon, R. W. Archbald is now judge of the United States federal court for the Middle District of Pennsylvania. His commission arrived yesterday morning and exactly at noon he was sworn in by Judge H. M. Edwards while both were standing on the bench in the main court room. Judge Arch-bald's commission reads as follows:

William McKinley, president of the United States of America, to all who shall see these presents. Greeting: Know ye, that reposing special trust and confidence in the wisdom, uprightness and learning of Robert Wodrow Archbald, of Pennsylvania, I do appoint him United States dis-trict judge for the middle district of Pennsylvania, as provided for by act approved March C. 1901, and do authorize and empower him to execute and fulfill the duties of that office according to the constitution and laws of the said United States, and to have and to hold and United States, and to have and to hood the said office, with all the powers, privileges and emoluments to the same as of right apper-taining unto him, the said Robert Wodrow Archibald, until the end of the next session of be United States senate, and no longer subject to conditions and provisions prescribed by law In testimony whereof, I have caused these let ters to be made patent and the seal of the department of justice to be hereunio affixed. ven under my hand at the city of Washington the twenty-fifth day of March in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and one and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and twenty-fifth,

By the president, John W. Griggs, Afferney General. OATH OF OFFICE.

The oath of office to which Judge

William McKinley,

Archbald subscribed follows: state of Pennsylvania, County of Luckawanna, I. Robert Wodrow Archbald, do solemnly sweaand do could right to the poor and to the rich and that I will faithfully and impartially disharge and perform all the duties incumbered n me as district judge of the middle distrid Pennsylvania, according to the best of my bility and understanding, agreeably to the constitution and laws of the United States, so being Sworn and subscribed before me this first day

April. A. D. 1901. H. M. Edwards. President Judge Forty-firth Judicial District of Pennsylvania.

This was the first paper to which Judge Edwards attached his name as president judge.

At 11.30 yesterday morning Judge

Archbald sent a telegram to Governor Stone, which contained the information that he had resigned his position as a judge of the Lackawanna county courts, and later in the day followed it up by a formal letter of resignation. For the last week Judge Archbald has been a very busy man, clearing his desk of the cases which awaited disposition at his hands. Since last Tuesday he has handed down twelve opin ions, six of them were filed yesterday Some of the opinions are of great importance, notably the Lackawanns case filed vesterch ion in the liquor license fee matter filed Saturday and an opinion in a Lycoming case which he was called to Will iamsport some time ago to hear.

WARMLY CONGRATULATED. During the day Judge Archbald was called upon by many members of the bar and citizens generally and warmly congratulated. Similar tokens of es teem were showered upon Judge Edwards, the new president judge of the Lackawanna county courts.

Judge Archbald said yesterday that there will be but a small amount of work in organizing the new court, and that he will have little to do until the court opens at Harrisburg on the first Monday in May.

ARGUMENT ON RIPPER CASE.

Will Be Heard by Supreme Court on April 23 at Philadelphia. Word was received yesterday by Attorneys O'Brien and Martin that the Supreme court has fixed April 23, at Philadelphia, as the time and place for hearing arguments in the Ripper case. This indicates that the court was not very forcibly impressed with the necessity for haste in considering this important act. An opinion will, in all probability, not be rendered for at least a month after the argument, and by that time the legislature will be ready to adjourn. If the act should be declared unconstitutional, Scranton will be in a bad plight, unless the legislature is kept together long enough to pass a new act.

LITTLE DOG CAUSES FIRE.

He Upset a Lamp and Started Fire Which Did $2,500 Damages.

A little black and tan dog was the cause of a $2,500 fire in South Scranton last night. He is owned by Mrs. Mary O'Donnell, who lives in a twostory frame dwelling at 916 Kellerman court. She owns the house, and rents the upper floor to Thomas Lavelle and

The little dog in question was playing about the house last night about 3.30 o'clock, when he grabbed the cover of a table in his teeth and gave it a pull. Down came everything on the table, including a lighted lamp, which exploded when it struck the floor. In a moment the whole room was in a blaze, and the occupants hurried to Box 54, at the corner of Washington avenue and Maple street, and turned n an alarm.

The Century, Neptune, William Connell and Eagle companies arrived on the scene in the order named and bad a hard job getting the flames under control. They did not succeed in doing so for half an hour, and when they did so the house was practically destroyed, the whole interior being burned out The loss is placed at $2,500, on which here is $1,000 insurance.

MITCHELL LEAVES TODAY

President of the Mine Workers Will Go to Indianapolis-About the Local Strikes.

President John Mitchell, of the Unlted Mine Workers, leaves the city at 6.30 o'clock this morning, with his stenographer, Miss Morris, and good lirect to national headquarters at Inlianapolis. The national board will meet there next Monday, but it is not specied that business of any import-nce will be transacted. . "It is merely one of one regula acetings," said Mitchell yesterday afernoon, and continued: "It is not ikely that business of any importance will be transacted, but there is an imount of comparatively small matters which will come up for discussion, Among these latter is the Tennessee strike, which Frederick Dilcher will investigate.

This strike at Bon Air has been on or over eighteen months and affects etween four and five hundred men." On being approached on the anthra ite situation question, the Mine Workrs' president maintained, however, the ame silence with which he has greeted all queries on this matter since the Wilkes-Barre conference. The small local strikes, which proved such a disturbing factor in the operation of all local collieries since tast fall's settle ment of the big strike in these districts, will, it is thought, be pretty generally done away with during the coming year, but still the Mine Workers' officials by no means pledge themselves to avert these. "The men," said President Mitchell, in a sudden burst of loquacity, "do not by any means give up their right to strike, and in cases where the cause is sufficiently provocative, will in all probability do so. All talk of a general conference between employers and employes has been done away with for a year, in a way, as is made pretty clear in the statement we Issued.

ANOTHER LIBEL SUIT.

President Mitchell, of the Mine Workers, Has a Warrant Issued for Richard Little.

President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers of America, appeared before Alderman Kasson late yesterday afternoon, accompanied by his attorneys, Joseph O'Brien and M. J. Mar tin, and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Richard Little, publisher and editor of the Scrantonian, on the charge of criminal libel. The warrant was issued and will be served today. Attached to the information are clippings of the alleged libelous article which appeared in the Scrantonian on March 24. In this article about every kind of a charge that brought against Mr. Mitchell. He was referred to as being "untrustworthy and dishonorable" and as being "a whited sepulchre."

The article charges him with conspirng to ruin the Scrantonian by securng the passage of a resolution declaring it to be the enemy of organized abor. He is charged with "damnable deception" and "despicable meanness." It charges that he agreed to a settlement of the strike last fall for political easons, and sets forth that the "mysterious Mr. Guernsey," with whom he conferred in this city, was a promient Republican politician connected with the national headquarters of that party. The article wound up with these "Mitchell is not only untrustworthy but positively dangerous, and speakeasy keepers at the court house unfit to hold any power whatever."

CHARGED WITH ARSON.

A. Vosburg as additional law judge to succeed Hon. R. W. Archbald, met last night in the Auditorium building to further his candidacy.

There were over fifty present when the meeting was called to order by Common Councilman H. S. Alworth, of the Second ward. Mr. Alworth nominated Major J. B. Fish for chairman and the latter was unanimously elected Mr. Alworth himself was chosen seeretary, and in that capacity presented the following resolution for the consideration of those present:

Whereas, h is reported in the daily press that ity Solicitor A. A. Voolung has been removed from the position which he so acceptably filled, and that ar attorney residing in Dimmore has een appointed solicitor for this city; and Whereas, It is also reported that the judicial appointment which he seeks, I. c., as judge of the several courts of the county of Lackawanna to succeed then, R. W. Archbald, is to be given to another attorney; and

Whereas, There is at the present time no repsentative of the North End who is a city of except Mr. Vosburg: and there is a North End man in the court house acting in a flicial capacity, except a lipstaff and a sub-Resolved, First, that we complain of the lack the party to which we belong, The resolutions were adopted unantmously and it was decided to send a copy of them to Governor Stone and to have another copy, signed by all present presented by a committee to Congreisman Connell, Thomas Shotton, Dr. Herman Pessey and William Chap pell were appointed as members of this committee, and when the meeting had adjourned, everyone tarried long enough to affix his signature to the resolutions.

Mr. Vosburg, who was present, betrayed visibly his deep gratitude for the kindly offers of help and assistance which were made him.

"I am more than thankful to you, gentlemen." he said. "I am a resident of North Scranton, all my interests are pas entered here, and I intend that they always shall be Therefore when I realize that I have the undivided support of my fellow Republican citizens from this part of the city, I can well feel proud."

CLOSING UP SPEAKEASIES.

Eight Avoca Dealers Sign an Agree ment to Quit Business. Several months ago, Rev. W. H. Williams, the Drummer Evangelist, began crusade against the speakeasies in Avoca. He had five of them arrested and fined under the borough ordinance. He and his assistants received rather rough treatment, he claims, and not wishing to repeat the experiences, he took a new tack by notifying the conould be brought against a man is stables of the borough of the location of the speakeasies and demanding that they return them to the quarter sessions court of Luzerne.

The constables, being threatened with prosecution for neglect of duty if they failed to comply with the demand, they proceeded to make a round up. As a result, eight speakeasy keepers, so it is claimed, have quit business

Mr. Williams states that on Saturday last two of the three constables of Avoca came to see him at his headquarters in this city, with a view of being relieved of the onerous task which Mr. Williams had cut out for Yesterday, Mr. Williams states, he met the constables and eight Avoca in Wilkes-Barre, and after a lengthy conference, consented to the with drawal of the impending prosecutions upon the speakeasy keepers signing an agreement to quit business at once and never re-engage in it. The speakeasy keepers readily signed the agreement.
