

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

FACTORYVILLE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Factoryville, April 1.—Solomon Beynolds and family left today for New York city, from where they will proceed to their new home in Yonkers, on the Hudson, where they will reside in the future.

There was an old-fashioned amateur social held under the auspices of the Baptist church last Friday night, at the home of Mrs. Conrad, on Maple street.

The rehearsal of the Singing club will be held this Tuesday evening instead of next Wednesday evening, as is customary. The series of rehearsals is drawing to a close, the date of the final concert having been fixed for Friday evening, April 12. Saturday evening choirs, amateur and part songs have been promised, which will be given on the above date. The programs will also include some compositions of the director of the club, Mr. W. N. Mattheson.

As usual, quite a large number of changes have been made here today in regard to place of residence. O. T. Spencer took possession of his new home on North Main street, today, formerly the Bush property. Some few families have moved out of town, but a few more have come in than went out, just to keep the population up and business booming. Nearly every house in town is occupied, as is all of the business places.

The members of Pauwels-Burckel Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of this place, will go to Nicholson's Woolworth's evening to assist in the institution of a similar lodge at that place.

Union Temperance services were held Sunday evening at the Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. J. R. Smith, of the First Methodist church, delivered a eloquent sermon, along the line of Temperance work.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Simrell, of Scranton, spent Sunday here with their parents.

ARIEL.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Ariel, April 1.—Rev. L. E. Sanford, of Nicholson, a former pastor of this place, will lecture in the school building on Tuesday evening on "Through New England on a Wheel." The general admission will be ten cents.

Mrs. Ammerman is suffering with a severe cold.

Mr. James Rollins visited in Dupont Monday.

G. F. Ace removed his family to Scranton today.

The funeral of the late Samuel Reed of Avoca, took place Sunday afternoon. The deceased was 53 years of age and was highly respected in this vicinity. Interment was made in the Marcy cemetery.

The remains of Ethel, the 15-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Humphrey of Hughestown, were interred in the Marcy cemetery Sunday afternoon.

Erith, the 15-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Koschek, died Friday. The funeral took place Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment was made in the Marcy cemetery.

The latest removals are:

Mr. W. Johnson, who moved his family from his former home on Bridge street, to Woodward's residence, on Grove street. Mr. Johnson was formerly proprietor of the Park hotel, but recently retired from business. The hotel will be under the management of Mrs. Rockefellor, of Wilkes-Barre, who removed her family from that place to this place Saturday.

Mr. Aistonborer has removed his family from this place to Avoca, where he has accepted a position as cleric at Hollister's company store.

Mrs. Ammerman of Grove street, is suffering from a severe cold.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dennis is ill from measles.

Laden, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cox, is suffering from the measles.

It is reported that the Erie shops will be still further enlarged by the erection of a $60,000 building. It is a cheerful rumor, to say the least.

Miss Belle L. Seymour, of Corning, was one of the soloists in Christ Episcopal church today. A very elaborate programme has been arranged for the services in the church this week.

Roger H. Williams today returned to Bucknell university, to resume his studies.

Captain Charles F. Birdsell, of Rockland Military academy, Nyack, N. Y., is spending the vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Birdsell.

It is reported that the Erie shops will be re-located in the new building, the cost of which is estimated at $60,000.

The supporting members of the company are above the average usually seen with a popular organization, they are exceptionally strong and well educated. The work done is remarkably well done, the money used in the production was all new and handsome, the costing thoroughly in keeping with the play, and the electrical effects were superb. Between the two of the drama high class specialties were introduced by the vanguard members of the company, all of which proved immensely interesting and amusing. The illustrated songs and dances were well received, especially on the part of the audience. There will be a performance by this company every afternoon and evening for the entire week.

This afternoon the play will be "Flaming Million," and tonight, "The Cross Takes" will be presented. Mr. Leyburne and Miss Emma Bunting will positively appear at each performance.

Miss Belle L. Seymour, of Corning, was one of the soloists in Christ Episcopal church today. A very elaborate programme has been arranged for the services in the church this week.

Roger H. Williams today returned to Bucknell university, to resume his studies.

Captain Charles F. Birdsell, of Rockland Military academy, Nyack, N. Y., is spending the vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Birdsell.

It is reported that the Erie shops will be re-located in the new building, the cost of which is estimated at $60,000.

The supporting members of the company are above the average usually seen with a popular organization, they are exceptionally strong and well educated. The work done is remarkably well done, the money used in the production was all new and handsome, the costing thoroughly in keeping with the play, and the electrical effects were superb. Between the two of the drama high class specialties were introduced by the vanguard members of the company, all of which proved immensely interesting and amusing. The illustrated songs and dances were well received, especially on the part of the audience. There will be a performance by this company every afternoon and evening for the entire week.

This afternoon the play will be "Flaming Million," and tonight, "The Cross Takes" will be presented. Mr. Leyburne and Miss Emma Bunting will positively appear at each performance.

Miss Belle L. Seymour, of Corning, was one of the soloists in Christ Episcopal church today. A very elaborate programme has been arranged for the services in the church this week.

Roger H. Williams today returned to Bucknell university, to resume his studies.

Captain Charles F. Birdsell, of Rockland Military academy, Nyack, N. Y., is spending the vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Birdsell.

It is reported that the Erie shops will be re-located in the new building, the cost of which is estimated at $60,000.

The supporting members of the company are above the average usually seen with a popular organization, they are exceptionally strong and well educated. The work done is remarkably well done, the money used in the production was all new and handsome, the costing thoroughly in keeping with the play, and the electrical effects were superb. Between the two of the drama high class specialties were introduced by the vanguard members of the company, all of which proved immensely interesting and amusing. The illustrated songs and dances were well received, especially on the part of the audience. There will be a performance by this company every afternoon and evening for the entire week.

This afternoon the play will be "Flaming Million," and tonight, "The Cross Takes" will be presented. Mr. Leyburne and Miss Emma Bunting will positively appear at each performance.

Miss Belle L. Seymour, of Corning, was one of the soloists in Christ Episcopal church today. A very elaborate programme has been arranged for the services in the church this week.

Roger H. Williams today returned to Bucknell university, to resume his studies.

Captain Charles F. Birdsell, of Rockland Military academy, Nyack, N. Y., is spending the vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Birdsell.

It is reported that the Erie shops will be re-located in the new building, the cost of which is estimated at $60,000.

The supporting members of the company are above the average usually seen with a popular organization, they are exceptionally strong and well educated. The work done is remarkably well done, the money used in the production was all new and handsome, the costing thoroughly in keeping with the play, and the electrical effects were superb. Between the two of the drama high class specialties were introduced by the vanguard members of the company, all of which proved immensely interesting and amusing. The illustrated songs and dances were well received, especially on the part of the audience. There will be a performance by this company every afternoon and evening for the entire week.

This afternoon the play will be "Flaming Million," and tonight, "The Cross Takes" will be presented. Mr. Leyburne and Miss Emma Bunting will positively appear at each performance.

Miss Belle L. Seymour, of Corning, was one of the soloists in Christ Episcopal church today. A very elaborate programme has been arranged for the services in the church this week.

Roger H. Williams today returned to Bucknell university, to resume his studies.

Captain Charles F. Birdsell, of Rockland Military academy, Nyack, N. Y., is spending the vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Birdsell.

It is reported that the Erie shops will be re-located in the new building, the cost of which is estimated at $60,000.

The supporting members of the company are above the average usually seen with a popular organization, they are exceptionally strong and well educated. The work done is remarkably well done, the money used in the production was all new and handsome, the costing thoroughly in keeping with the play, and the electrical effects were superb. Between the two of the drama high class specialties were introduced by the vanguard members of the company, all of which proved immensely interesting and amusing. The illustrated songs and dances were well received, especially on the part of the audience. There will be a performance by this company every afternoon and evening for the entire week.

This afternoon the play will be "Flaming Million," and tonight, "The Cross Takes" will be presented. Mr. Leyburne and Miss Emma Bunting will positively appear at each performance.

Miss Belle L. Seymour, of Corning, was one of the soloists in Christ Episcopal church today. A very elaborate programme has been arranged for the services in the church this week.

Roger H. Williams today returned to Bucknell university, to resume his studies.

Captain Charles F. Birdsell, of Rockland Military academy, Nyack, N. Y., is spending the vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Birdsell.

It is reported that the Erie shops will be re-located in the new building, the cost of which is estimated at $60,000.

The supporting members of the company are above the average usually seen with a popular organization, they are exceptionally strong and well educated. The work done is remarkably well done, the money used in the production was all new and handsome, the costing thoroughly in keeping with the play, and the electrical effects were superb. Between the two of the drama high class specialties were introduced by the vanguard members of the company, all of which proved immensely interesting and amusing. The illustrated songs and dances were well received, especially on the part of the audience. There will be a performance by this company every afternoon and evening for the entire week.

This afternoon the play will be "Flaming Million," and tonight, "The Cross Takes" will be presented. Mr. Leyburne and Miss Emma Bunting will positively appear at each performance.

Miss Belle L. Seymour, of Corning, was one of the soloists in Christ Episcopal church today. A very elaborate programme has been arranged for the services in the church this week.

Roger H. Williams today returned to Bucknell university, to resume his studies.

Captain Charles F. Birdsell, of Rockland Military academy, Nyack, N. Y., is spending the vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Birdsell.

It is reported that the Erie shops will be re-located in the new building, the cost of which is estimated at $60,000.

The supporting members of the company are above the average usually seen with a popular organization, they are exceptionally strong and well educated. The work done is remarkably well done, the money used in the production was all new and handsome, the costing thoroughly in keeping with the play, and the electrical effects were superb. Between the two of the drama high class specialties were introduced by the vanguard members of the company, all of which proved immensely interesting and amusing. The illustrated songs and dances were well received, especially on the part of the audience. There will be a performance by this company every afternoon and evening for the entire week.

This afternoon the play will be "Flaming Million," and tonight, "The Cross Takes" will be presented. Mr. Leyburne and Miss Emma Bunting will positively appear at each performance.

Miss Belle L. Seymour, of Corning, was one of the soloists in Christ Episcopal church today. A very elaborate programme has been arranged for the services in the church this week.

Roger H. Williams today returned to Bucknell university, to resume his studies.

Captain Charles F. Birdsell, of Rockland Military academy, Nyack, N. Y., is spending the vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Birdsell.

It is reported that the Erie shops will be re-located in the new building, the cost of which is estimated at $60,000.

The supporting members of the company are above the average usually seen with a popular organization, they are exceptionally strong and well educated. The work done is remarkably well done, the money used in the production was all new and handsome, the costing thoroughly in keeping with the play, and the electrical effects were superb. Between the two of the drama high class specialties were introduced by the vanguard members of the company, all of which proved immensely interesting and amusing. The illustrated songs and dances were well received, especially on the part of the audience. There will be a performance by this company every afternoon and evening for the entire week.

This afternoon the play will be "Flaming Million," and tonight, "The Cross Takes" will be presented. Mr. Leyburne and Miss Emma Bunting will positively appear at each performance.

Miss Belle L. Seymour, of Corning, was one of the soloists in Christ Episcopal church today. A very elaborate programme has been arranged for the services in the church this week.

Roger H. Williams today returned to Bucknell university, to resume his studies.

Captain Charles F. Birdsell, of Rockland Military academy, Nyack, N. Y., is spending the vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Birdsell.

It is reported that the Erie shops will be re-located in the new building, the cost of which is estimated at $60,000.

The supporting members of the company are above the average usually seen with a popular organization, they are exceptionally strong and well educated. The work done is remarkably well done, the money used in the production was all new and handsome, the costing thoroughly in keeping with the play, and the electrical effects were superb. Between the two of the drama high class specialties were introduced by the vanguard members of the company, all of which proved immensely interesting and amusing. The illustrated songs and dances were well received, especially on the part of the audience. There will be a performance by this company every afternoon and evening for the entire week.

This afternoon the play will be "Flaming Million," and tonight, "The Cross Takes" will be presented. Mr. Leyburne and Miss Emma Bunting will positively appear at each performance.

Miss Belle L. Seymour, of Corning, was one of the soloists in Christ Episcopal church today. A very elaborate programme has been arranged for the services in the church this week.

Roger H. Williams today returned to Bucknell university, to resume his studies.

Captain Charles F. Birdsell, of Rockland Military academy, Nyack, N. Y., is spending the vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Birdsell.

It is reported that the Erie shops will be re-located in the new building, the cost of which is estimated at $60,000.

The supporting members of the company are above the average usually seen with a popular organization, they are exceptionally strong and well educated. The work done is remarkably well done, the money used in the production was all new and handsome, the costing thoroughly in keeping with the play, and the electrical effects were superb. Between the two of the drama high class specialties were introduced by the vanguard members of the company, all of which proved immensely interesting and amusing. The illustrated songs and dances were well received, especially on the part of the audience. There will be a performance by this company every afternoon and evening for the entire week.

This afternoon the play will be "Flaming Million," and tonight, "The Cross Takes" will be presented. Mr. Leyburne and Miss Emma Bunting will positively appear at each performance.

Miss Belle L. Seymour, of Corning, was one of the soloists in Christ Episcopal church today. A very elaborate programme has been arranged for the services in the church this week.

Roger H. Williams today returned to Bucknell university, to resume his studies.

Captain Charles F. Birdsell, of Rockland Military academy, Nyack, N. Y., is spending the vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Birdsell.

It is reported that the Erie shops will be re-located in the new building, the cost of which is estimated at $60,000.

The supporting members of the company are above the average usually seen with a popular organization, they are exceptionally strong and well educated. The work done is remarkably well done, the money used in the production was all new and handsome, the costing thoroughly in keeping with the play, and the electrical effects were superb. Between the two of the drama high class specialties were introduced by the vanguard members of the company, all of which proved immensely interesting and amusing. The illustrated songs and dances were well received, especially on the part of the audience. There will be a performance by this company every afternoon and evening for the entire week.

This afternoon the play will be "Flaming Million," and tonight, "The Cross Takes" will be presented. Mr. Leyburne and Miss Emma Bunting will positively appear at each performance.

Miss Belle L. Seymour, of Corning, was one of the soloists in Christ Episcopal church today. A very elaborate programme has been arranged for the services in the church this week.

Roger H. Williams today returned to Bucknell university, to resume his studies.

Captain Charles F. Birdsell, of Rockland Military academy, Nyack, N. Y., is spending the vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Birdsell.

It is reported that the Erie shops will be re-located in the new building, the cost of which is estimated at $60,000.

The supporting members of the company are above the average usually seen with a popular organization, they are exceptionally strong and well educated. The work done is remarkably well done, the money used in the production was all new and handsome, the costing thoroughly in keeping with the play, and the electrical effects were superb. Between the two of the drama high class specialties were introduced by the vanguard members of the company, all of which proved immensely interesting and amusing. The illustrated songs and dances were well received, especially on the part of the audience. There will be a performance by this company every afternoon and evening for the entire week.

This afternoon the play will be "Flaming Million," and tonight, "The Cross Takes" will be presented. Mr. Leyburne and Miss Emma Bunting will positively appear at each performance.

Miss Belle L. Seymour, of Corning, was one of the soloists in Christ Episcopal church today. A very elaborate programme has been arranged for the services in the church this week.

Roger H. Williams