

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

MONTROSE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Montrose, April 4.—Carlton Shafer, of Princeton college, is at home for the Easter vacation.

William S. Mulford was at Hallstead on business Tuesday.

The marriage of Frank E. Tyler and Miss Minnie Green occurred at the home of the bride's parents, on Dupont street, in this borough on Wednesday, April 3, Rev. H. K. Thomas, officiating.

Mrs. A. E. Scott is at the home of her sister, Mary Brown, at Dalton, having been summoned there by the illness of her mother, Edwin Hill.

The annual gentleman's supper at the Methodist Episcopal church will be held tomorrow evening, April 5. An elegant menu, to include all the delicacies of the season, will be served, and live entertainment will be rendered by local talent, assisted by Mrs. E. M. Tiffany, a gifted vocalist of Hoperton. Supper, 75 cents; entertainment, 10 cents.

The young people of the Zion African Methodist Episcopal church will give a sacred concert at the church on Sunday evening.

Miss W. O. Fine and three children have been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Williams, at Kingsley.

Hungry Smith has moved his tinsmith parlor from under Oakley's store to the handsome and commodious room in the postoffice block, just vacated by K. D. Westbrook.

Harry Phillips, wife with Albert Miller, ten-year-old artist, is here, having been visiting at the home of her brother, the door bell rang and as the door was opened, Rev. E. K. Thomas, pastor of the church, entered, followed by a large number of the congregation who, with the members of the choir already there, at once took possession of the house. The surprise of Mrs. Little was complete, and her feelings can better be imagined than ours when we observed the number of the local congregation. Pastor Thomas presented Mrs. Little with a beautiful mahogany table and an exquisitely cut glass berry dish. Mrs. Little graciously responded to Mr. Thomas' remarks and after raving her visitors with a solo, they bade her a happy good night and departed to their homes.

HONESDALE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Honesdale, April 4.—The Honesdale banks will be closed tomorrow.

Mrs. Joshua A. Brown and daughter are in New York city to spend the Easter vacation.

Susie Allen, Mrs. and Miss Jeannette Bigelow, teaching in the Honesdale schools, are spending their Easter vacation at their home, the former at Preston, the latter at Niagara, Wayne county.

District deputy grand master C. H. Wilmarth installed the following officers of Freedom Lodge of Odd Fellows on Monday evening: Buel Dodge, noble grand; J. A. Bell, vice grand; two appointed trustees, and three secretaries.

Special Easter services will be held in all of the Honesdale churches next Sunday.

The new firm, Whitney & Spencer, of Honesdale, have opened a branch store in White Mills.

William Weidinger has reopened his bakery shop in the small town adjoining his former general store.

The first passenger train on the Gravity railroad between Carbondale and Honesdale was run twenty-four years ago tomorrow (Friday).

Miss Grace A. Ceteri will go to Brooklyn, N. Y., tomorrow. She will take a course in stenography and typewriting.

At the annual meeting of the Honesdale Improvement association the following ladies were elected officers for the ensuing year: President, Miss Carrie Peterson; first vice president, Mrs. Charles R. Johnson; Dr. M. Betz, second vice president; Mrs. T. L. Hunt, treasurer; Miss Tillie Weisheit, executive committee; Mrs. James W. Weston, W. H. Hubizer, Wallace Lambert, James Bush, H. G. Kester, E. A. Pennington, W. B. Holmes, W. H. Terry and W. F. Fuller. There was a large attendance. The society is in a flourishing condition. It starts the year with a blooming treasury. This association has done a noble work in the campaign report it was shown that their reputation had spread far and wide, letters of inquiry coming from the Philippines islands. It was decided to hold a rummage sale next October.

Mrs. W. B. Holmes, Mrs. C. E. Rockwell, Miss Edith Swift and Miss Mattie Gillan, represented the Honesdale Presbyterian church at the interdenominational convention in Green Ridge Wednesday and Thursday.

TUNKHANNOCK.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Tunkhannock, April 4.—Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts, of Carbondale, were calling on friends in town on Thursday.

Mr. P. R. Borden is building an addition to his residence on Putnam street.

Miss May Lull, of Sayre, who have been vis-

HAVE TO GIVE UP.

Its All Over When Nervous Sick Headache Comes to Young or Old. Everything Stops and Nothing Goes on but the Nervous Sick Headaches.

If anything will engender a disregard for even life itself it is continued or oft-repeated attacks of sick headache. You may be able to partially describe it, but the English language fails to fully do it justice. It's misery so concentrated, so condensed, so prostrating that all else is enveloped in its meshes.

Mr. Thomas Summers, of No. 1619 Jackson street, Scranton, Pa., says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are a splendid cure for nervous sick headaches. Mine were terrible times. I was nervous at the same time. The nerve pills were recommended to me and I got a box at Matthews Bros' drug store, No. 329 Lackawanna avenue, and they completely cured the headache and nervousness. This, I think, is recommendation enough."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50¢ a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.
