OBSERVANCE OF EASTER

SPECIAL SERVICES IN ALL OF THE CHURCHES.

Music Was a Strong Feature of the Exercises—Meeting of Boys Employed About the Mines Called for This Evening—Fourth Anniversary of Moses Taylor Sister Lodge.

The usual Easter services were held in all of the West Scranton churches yesterday, and while the weather was more like the middle of February than April, large assemblages turned out both morning and evening to praise the risen King and sing songs to the Great Jehovah.

The members of the Young Women's Christian association held their Easter services in the rooms Saturday evening, under the direction of Miss Lizzie Price. Special music was rendered by Mrs. Burdick, Misses Louise Flynn and Emma Frank. Mark's communion service was rendered at St. David's Episcopal church at 10.30 a. m., and the musical programme was selected from the best composers. A special offering was taken up during the day, which will be devoted to current expenses. Children's vespers were sung at 3 p. m., and evening at 7.30 o'clock.

A sunrise prayer service was the first assembly of the day at the Washburn Street Presbyterian church. This was followed by the usual morning service at 10.30 o'clock, at which Dr. Moffat preached a special Easter sermon. The music was especially arranged by Prof. C. B. Derman, and was up to the usual standard of excellence. A choral service was held in the evening, with orchestral accompaniment.

Prof. Plumley occupied the pulpit of the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church last evening and spoke to a large assemblage. Chorister William Phillips and Organist Miss Edna D. Evans were in charge of the music at the Plymouth Congregational church. The soloists were Mrs. A. B. Eynon, Miss Agnes Joseph, Miss Gertrude Hughes and Richard Phillips. Rev. Hoyl preached at both the morning and evening services. The exercises at the Sherman avenue mission were of an interesting nature.

At the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. Benninger spoke in the morning on "The Resur-

The Silk Department At the Globe Warehouse

Is one of the recognized features of this city, because it has not a duplicate for hundred miles around. It is a complete department in every sense of the word, and the marvel of every stranger visiting us, is that a city like Scranton can maintain a silk department of such generous proportions. But when you consider the fact that we have been building it up and educating the people to the fact that we carry everything that any silk buyer can want, there is no mystery about it. We have the stock, the outlet for it and as keen a grip on the market as any house in the trade possesses. Silk buyers will find this department exceptionally interesting just now, as it is bountiful of the season's newest and best productions.

This Week There Is a Special Bargain Sale of Fine Silks

Every yard of which is guaranteed, and as the values are exceptional, we suggest the advisability of our patrons taking advantage of this money saving opportunity.

- Black Taffeta Silks: Full 22 inches wide, firm, solid cloth, from the looms of reputable makers. NORTH SCRANTON FINE MUSICAL SERVICE AT M. E. CHURCH.

A Repetition of the Sacred Cantata, "The Great Light," Was Last Night Given—Rev. Mr. Smith Assumes Pastorate of North Main Avenue Baptist Church—"Because She Loved Him So" Will Be Presented Tonight at Auditorium—Other News Notes and Personals.

The service at the Providence Methodist Episcopal church last evening was almost wholly of song under the direction of Prof. J. H. Cousins, the chorister, and an augmented choir of fifty voices. A short address was made by the pastor, Rev. G. A. Cure, touching on the Easter season.

The feature of the song service was the repetition of a large portion of the sacred cantata, "The Great Light," which was so acceptably given on last Thursday evening. The solos were taken by Mrs. J. H. Cousins, soprano; Mrs. Susie Barnes-Stoier, contralto; Jonathan Broadbent and David Watkins, baritone; Mr. Thomas, basso, and Joshua John, tenor. Others who were prominent in the numbers were Prof. Martin, Mrs. Shook, Mrs. Weatherby, Misses Padden, Service, Alice Williams and Harrison. The different numbers were sung in splendid manner.

The following is the programme to be given Tuesday evening, April 9, at the North Main Avenue Baptist church by the Junior pupils of Miss Elizabeth Owens, assisted by Joshua Johns, the talented tenor singer of Scranton. It will in all probability be the last appearance Mr. John will make in Scranton, as he will leave the end of the week for Washington, D. C.

Concert Tuesday. The following is the programme to be given Tuesday evening, April 9, at the North Main Avenue Baptist church by the Junior pupils of Miss Elizabeth Owens, assisted by Joshua Johns, the talented tenor singer of Scranton. It will in all probability be the last appearance Mr. John will make in Scranton, as he will leave the end of the week for Washington, D. C.

Perhaps the numbers which caused the most surprise were the difficult "Scherzo," by Edward Norm; the "Mazurka, No. 2," by Barowski, and Professor Bovard's own composition. Miss Lena Gendall, who has received to good advantage three pretty numbers. She shows careful work as an elocutionist and that training is essential to a good reciter. Miss Lena Gendall, one of Professor Bovard's advanced pupils, shows excellent work and training in her rendition of the second piano parts.

All through his long illness he retained that superb quality of his nature which had always endeared him to his many friends, perfect cheerfulness. His death comes as a great loss to all with whom he has ever come in contact, for he was one of those rare men to whom one becomes attached through mere association. Mr. Croft became well known in musical circles through his ability as a tenor, having sung in the choir of the Second church, the Young Men's Christian association in Scranton and Binghamton, the Trinity Protestant Episcopal and other churches.

Judge Kelly on Saturday returned an injunction to the case of A. L. Spenser against Fred Buckley and Thomas Huzler, his partners, in the Emery State Packer Manufacturing company. The judge granted a writ of habeas corpus to George Lotz, financial secretary, Martin Coleman; treasurer, Martin Cavanaugh; sergeant at arms, John Healey.

Mrs. George Archbald, of 1923 Wayne avenue, is very sick.

The Easter-tide services in the Providence Presbyterian church will conclude this evening with a sacred concert participated in by the full strength of the choir, assisted by W. A. Roberts, Mrs. D. M. Brundage, Mrs. and Mrs. W. A. Whitman and others who have assisted in many of the festive occasions at this church. The music will be of a Christmas and Easter character, blending the great themes of the Nativity and the Resurrection.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S RECITAL. Professor Bovard's Piano Playing Delights Dunmore Music Lovers. Professor Ernest Bovard, the talented pianist and teacher of this borough, of whom so much has been said regarding his wonderful piano playing, gave his second recital in the Methodist Episcopal church Saturday night. Never before have Dunmore people heard in their town such an exposition of piano playing. The audience expected great things, but were not expecting to hear a finished artist. From the first ringing chord at the opening through the long programme of sixteen numbers which were played by Professor Bovard, entirely from memory, it was clearly demonstrated that the report of his clear-cut playing and brilliant technique were not exaggerated.

Perhaps the numbers which caused the most surprise were the difficult "Scherzo," by Edward Norm; the "Mazurka, No. 2," by Barowski, and Professor Bovard's own composition. Miss Lena Gendall, who has received to good advantage three pretty numbers. She shows careful work as an elocutionist and that training is essential to a good reciter.
