

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

PITTSBURGH.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Pittsburg, April 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Glennon, of Susquehanna avenue, have returned home from Mr. Clemens, Mich., where they have been for the past four weeks for the benefit of Mr. Glennon's health.

Miss Bena Knappmann, of Mill street, has returned home after a four weeks' visit with her mother, Mrs. M. B. Knappmann, who is recovering from the effects of the influenza epidemic.

The city council will meet in joint session this evening to elect a city engineer and city solicitor. For the former office there are two aspirants, Harry Meyers, the present engineer, and James Langan, an upper Pittston young man, whose father, Mine Foreman Langan, was one of the victims of the big cave in the Twin mine.

Miss Rebecca Thompson is home from New York city for the Easter holidays. Judge G. S. Purdy is presiding over the Lackawanna courts in Scranton this week.

The announcement that Manager Silverstone has secured Thomas Jefferson for the closing of the Opera House season at an early date, will be good news for the lovers of the play in Honesdale.

An election will be held in the Army May 18, by Captain D. B. Atherton, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of First Lieutenant Edward Welch, of Company E, Thirtieth regiment.

She is a graduate of the class of 1901 and has high recommendations from her teachers. Coal Operator J. L. Coker this morning posted notices at his Clear Spring colliery, at West Pittston, to the effect that the plant would be closed down until further orders.

Not since last Tuesday has "old Sol" shined so brightly in the sky as today by some of the weather-wise, but the cheering assurance is given that it will "clear off" within twenty-four hours.

Charles H. Smith, the well known insurance man of Wilkes-Barre, spent Easter with relatives in Montrose. Bert Barnes, of Binghamton, has accepted a position in the tonorial establishment of Albert Miller, in this place.

Robert H. Jessup, esq., of Scranton, was in Montrose over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hichner, of West Pittston, are visiting at Dr. W. H. Conklin's.

Mr. C. C. Rose, of Binghamton, is visiting at the home of his father, George C. Hill, in this place. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Dushoff, of Auburn, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Frink, on Saturday.

Edwin H. Shafer, of Scranton, was visiting at his mother's in this place over Easter. Daniel Seale, of New York, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Seale, on Chenango street.

April court opened in this place today, before Judge Daniel W. Seaton. A very small list of criminal cases is to be disposed of, and it is likely that the jury will be discharged no later than Wednesday.

Harford, called on New Milford friends the forepart of last week. Mrs. E. I. Dwight attended the wedding of her sister, Miss Susie Barnes, to Almon Stoner, which took place in Scranton, March 29.

Insurance Agent C. P. Burns, of Great Bend, was in town on business last week. Mr. and Mrs. George Hayden, who have resided in Scranton the past twenty years, have returned to New Milford to live.

On April 1, Dwight D. Hall, of New Haven, and Miss Nettie DeLong, of Mexico, were married in New Milford by C. M. Sheple.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith attended the funeral of Hyatt Crocker, in Montrose, last week Saturday. Miss Katherine Shields recently entertained her friend, Miss Mildred Shoemaker, of Elmhurst.

Peter Beveridge, of Nebraska, and Thomas Beer, of Vandling, have been chosen as the judges and Ralph Shields the past week.

Miss Kate Daley, of Scranton, is the guest of Miss Kate McDermott, of Grove street. Mrs. Patrick McAndrew, of Main street, is seriously ill.

Forty hours devotion will open in St. Mary's church after 10:30 o'clock mass next Sunday. The funeral of Thomas, the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Seaton, will be held on Sunday afternoon.

Interment was made at Pleasantville. The altars in St. Mary's church on Sunday were radiant with Easter lilies, hyacinths and palms.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet this afternoon in the parsonage. Rev. R. M. Pascoe will leave tomorrow for the residence of the pastor, to attend the Methodist Episcopal conference at West Pittston.

Peter Walsh removed his family to Throop yesterday. The Young Ladies' Friendly circle will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Ida Frederick.

All matrons of the recent Primitive Methodist fair are requested to take their books and receipts to the meeting this evening. The Valley freight office was broken into on Sunday evening and many boxes broken.

Two chairs were taken out and forty-one fine shirt waists, consigned to Hollister & Bowler, Detroit, O. were taken from the scene in a few hours. Miss Kate Daley, of Scranton, is the guest of Miss Kate McDermott, of Grove street.

Mrs. Patrick McAndrew, of Main street, is seriously ill. Forty hours devotion will open in St. Mary's church after 10:30 o'clock mass next Sunday.

The funeral of Thomas, the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Seaton, will be held on Sunday afternoon. Interment was made at Pleasantville.

The altars in St. Mary's church on Sunday were radiant with Easter lilies, hyacinths and palms. Rev. James Morrison celebrated 10:30 o'clock mass and gave a beautiful sermon on "The Resurrection."

Sheehan's orchestra assisted the choir, which has been thoroughly trained and showed excellent work on the part of the instructor, Mr. Sullivan, and the orchestra. There will be a sale of home made bread, cake and pies at the home of Mrs. William Laird, next Friday afternoon from 3 to 7 o'clock.

The Broadway Burlesques were greeted with packed houses at the Gaiety theater yesterday on their closing tour. The burlesques were in a state of hilarity at both matinee and evening performances by Harry Leclair and other funny people of the troupe.

The Broadway Burlesques were greeted with packed houses at the Gaiety theater yesterday on their closing tour. The burlesques were in a state of hilarity at both matinee and evening performances by Harry Leclair and other funny people of the troupe.

The Broadway Burlesques were greeted with packed houses at the Gaiety theater yesterday on their closing tour. The burlesques were in a state of hilarity at both matinee and evening performances by Harry Leclair and other funny people of the troupe.

The Broadway Burlesques were greeted with packed houses at the Gaiety theater yesterday on their closing tour. The burlesques were in a state of hilarity at both matinee and evening performances by Harry Leclair and other funny people of the troupe.

The Broadway Burlesques were greeted with packed houses at the Gaiety theater yesterday on their closing tour. The burlesques were in a state of hilarity at both matinee and evening performances by Harry Leclair and other funny people of the troupe.

The Broadway Burlesques were greeted with packed houses at the Gaiety theater yesterday on their closing tour. The burlesques were in a state of hilarity at both matinee and evening performances by Harry Leclair and other funny people of the troupe.

The Broadway Burlesques were greeted with packed houses at the Gaiety theater yesterday on their closing tour. The burlesques were in a state of hilarity at both matinee and evening performances by Harry Leclair and other funny people of the troupe.

The Broadway Burlesques were greeted with packed houses at the Gaiety theater yesterday on their closing tour. The burlesques were in a state of hilarity at both matinee and evening performances by Harry Leclair and other funny people of the troupe.

Many Stores Combined JONAS LONG'S SONS Many Stores Combined

The Great Surprise Sale of Ribbons Goes Merrily On. Thousands of yards of Ribbons have already been sold. The rainy weather of the last five days can be blamed for the completeness of the assortment at this writing.

There is no more of the fancy corded taffeta or the double-faced black satin ribbon. But the following widths and qualities are still intact. Remember, this is the best grade of standard ribbon, at from a third to a half off former prices.

Extra Quality All Silk, Satin and Gros Grain. Width No. 1, price 1c a yard or 10c a piece. Width No. 2, price 2c a yard or 15c a piece.

All Silk Taffeta Ribbons. Width 1 and 1 1/2, 5c a yard. Width 2 and 2 1/2, 7c a yard. Width 3 and 3 1/2, 10c a yard.

All Satin and Gros Grain Ribbons. Width No. 2, 3c a yard or 25c a piece. Width No. 7, 6c a yard or 50c a piece.

THE MARKETS. Wall Street Review. New York, April 8.—The call loan trade proved again to be the solar plexus of the stock market.

Philadelphia Grain and Produce. Philadelphia, April 8.—Wheat—Moderately active at a slightly lower range of prices on some grades, although generally fairly steady.

Scranton Wholesale Market. (Compiled by H. G. Dale, 27 Lackawanna Ave.) Butter—Creamery, 20c; Salted, 18c; Butter-Firm, 18c; Butter-Soft, 17c.

New York Grain and Produce. New York, April 8.—Wheat—Moderately active at a slightly lower range of prices on some grades, although generally fairly steady.

Philadelphia Live Stock. Philadelphia, April 8.—Cattle—Moderately active at a slightly lower range of prices on some grades, although generally fairly steady.

Chicago Live Stock Market. Chicago, April 8.—Cattle—Receipts, 9,000; including 300 Texas steers to 100; higher; market good to strong; but not too heavy.

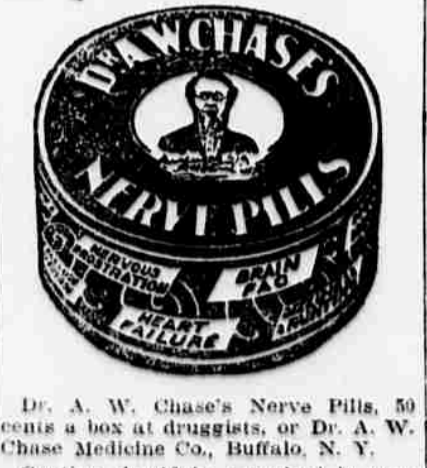

LOOKING BACKWARD.

It is with a Sigh One Looks Back to the Time the Power—The Strength to Accomplish—Existed.

Nothing is So Discouraging to an Active, Ambitious Person as the Feeling of Inability to Go Ahead.

FOR STRENGTH, ENERGY, WON BY SCRANTON PEOPLE

By reason of waste and wear the human system becomes heir to symptoms governed by conditions—the immediate cause of the symptoms is lack of nerve force—bring that up to the standard of nature's requirements and the symptoms disappear.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills, 50 cents a box at druggists, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

DURYEA.

Duryea, April 8.—Sunday evening, while the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school was celebrating the resurrection of Christ by exercises, some person outside created a disturbance by ringing the bell, rattling the door and annoying the congregation in every way possible.

The Easter exercises rendered in the Methodist Episcopal church by the Sunday school were the most pleasant ever held here. The scholars and teachers deserve much credit for their earnest and delightful manner in impressing upon the minds of the congregation the meaning of Easter.

Miss Mary Nolan and William Nolan visited in Scranton Monday. Mrs. Rufus Godwaller visited in Scranton, Monday.

BRADFORD COUNTY.

Towanda, March 8.—According to the auditors' report of the financial condition of Towanda borough, the receipts of the past year were $17,124.75; expenditures, $17,124.75.

The borough council of Athens have granted Vice Grant and others, representing the Valley Telephone company, the privilege to construct and operate a telephone system in that borough. The franchise will be asked to pay a pole tax of $25 per annum.

The Star office has been equipped with a new Lambert gasoline engine. K. D. Westbrook, for a time doing business as "The Star," has opened a shoe store in Towanda.

Jangling Nerves. Are you irritable? Do you sleep badly? Is it hard to concentrate your thoughts? Is your appetite poor? Do you feel tired, restless and despondent? Try Lichty's Celery Nerve Compound.

Spencer Trask & Co BANKERS

27 & 29 Pine St., New York. Transact a general banking business; act as Fiscal Agents for Corporations, and negotiate security issues of railroads and other companies.

Members New York Stock Exchange. Branch Offices: 65 State St., Albany.

Investment Securities. Descriptive list of bond offerings furnished on application.

East Liberty Cattle. East Liberty, April 8.—Cattle—Moderately active at a slightly lower range of prices on some grades, although generally fairly steady.

Oil Market. Oil, April 8.—Cottonseed oil, 10c; Linseed oil, 11c; Kerosene, 12c.

Chicago Live Stock Market. Chicago, April 8.—Cattle—Receipts, 9,000; including 300 Texas steers to 100; higher; market good to strong; but not too heavy.