A LOVE STORY. Synopsis of the Play "When We Were Twenty-one."

"When We Were Twenty-one," which comes to the Grand Saturday night, is a love story pure and simple and is told in a straightforward homely way. It is a story of how Dick Carew and his comrades rear and guide the only son of a deceased chum; how they guard and save him from the pitfalls and snares that lie in the path of life at twenty-one. It is a story of hearts bound together by ties of friendship that nothing can break and of how the comrades save their ward from the results of his foolish impulsiveness.
