INTEREST IN CLUB LIFE

MANIFESTED BY MEMBERS OF LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS.

Wheelmen Contemplate the Erection of a Bowling Alley—Republican Club Will Hold a "Smoke Talk" and St. Brendan's Council Are Preparing for a Minstrel Performance—Visitor Here from Australia. Other Shorter Paragraphs of Interest and Personalities.

The Electric City Wheelmen are looking forward to the erection of a bowling alley in the club house on Jackson street, and the committee appointed at the last meeting now have the matter under advisement. Already the boys are talking of organizing a bowling team for next season, and in that event they will apply for admission to the Northeastern Pennsylvania League of Bowlers.

It is also contemplated to complete the club gymnasium. There is a possibility of a base ball club being organized during the coming season and other athletic contests are being arranged.

West Side Republican Club.
The special committee having in charge the "smoke talks" and social sessions of the West Side Central Republican club will meet next week for the purpose of arranging another session similar to the one held last month, which proved so interesting.

It is proposed to have a well known speaker give a short address and this will probably be followed by a debate on a subject to be decided later. The committee will meet at the rooms Tuesday evening to make the arrangements.

Had a Very Stormy Trip.
Robert McGhie, of Maryborough, Queensland, Australia, arrived in the city yesterday to visit his uncle, A. B. Holmes, of South Main avenue. He was eleven weeks making the journey and underwent some thrilling experiences during the trip, which he relates interestingly.

Mr. McGhie's two sisters, Misses Jessie and Marziie McGhie, have been visiting Mr. Holmes during the winter, and the brother came to join them in their trip around the world, which they began many months ago. All three are enthusiastic over Scranton and Amer-

St. Brendan's Council.
The members of St. Brendan's council, Young Men's Institute, are now comfortably quartered in their new club house at 122 North Main avenue, where they have a splendidly appointed meeting place for interchange of thought and social life.

A new pool table has been added to the equipment and a new piano was recently placed in the parlor. The council's library is well equipped with good books and the boys manifest much interest in their new home.

Jackson Street Church.
The Easter music was well rendered. It was excellent, and the choir is to be congratulated, so many people asked for a repetition that the choir will next Sunday evening repeat their Easter programme.

Let there be a large attendance at the morning service next Sunday, as the Lord's Supper will be administered at the close.

Y. W. C. A. Notes.
The regular Gospel meeting of the Young Women's Christian association will be held in its rooms, Washburn street and Main avenue, Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Every girl and woman of the West Side is invited to be present.

All little girls, under 16 years of age, are invited to come and have a good time at the rooms Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

COMING EVENTS.
Religious services being held regularly by the choir of the Tabernacle Congregational church on the cantata, "Daniel, of the Captivity and Restoration," and a musical production is planned on Thursday evening, May 29. The chorus will be a large one and the solo parts will be in competent hands. An orchestra will assist in the production.

A drawing for a $5 gold piece will be conducted in Red Men's hall on Thursday evening, May 24, under the auspices of the Colonial club of Camp No. 78, P. O. S. of A. The proceeds will be devoted to the building fund of the new building on North Main avenue.

A number of the young ladies of this side are arranging to hold a "penny" party soon for the benefit of the Italian sisters of Chestnut street. Each young lady will be expected to donate a pound of something and each gentleman will be charged 25 cents. The date of the party will be announced later.

A drawing for a ten days' trip to the Pan-American exposition, with all expenses paid, will be conducted some time next month for the benefit of St. Patrick's church. A number of valuable prizes will be given to those who sell the highest number of tickets.

The raffle for a gold watch for the benefit of August P. Warkine, which was postponed recently, will be held on April 20.

Arrangements are being perfected for the progressive euchre party and social to be given in Mead's hall on Tuesday evening, April 23, under Catholic Benevolent association. The affair is in charge of a concert committee, with Mrs. Sarah McDonald as chairman.

Friends of John Mackrath, the young fireman who last week fell off a wreck on the Lackawanna tracks on Monday, are making arrangements for holding a benefit for him in Mead's hall on Tuesday evening, June 18. The proceeds will be utilized in purchasing him an artificial arm.

The members of St. Brendan's council are progressing nicely with their minstrel show and expect to give a performance soon in their new hall on North Main avenue.

Among the noted temperance workers who are expected to speak at the state quarterly convention of the Sons of Temperance in St. David's hall on Wednesday, April 24, will be Miss Fannie C. Mont, the noted temperance advocate, and T. F. Jones, who occupies the highest office in the order. Ample provision will be made for the entertainment of the officers and delegates during their stay.

Attorney Ernest D. Nichols, of Wilkes-Barre, will deliver an address on the subject, "Our Wilkes-Barre," at 8 o'clock, at the ball room of the West Side Protestant league in Co-operative hall next Wednesday evening. The programme will be published later.

Rev. W. H. Williams, the drummer evangelist, will speak at the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, and at the Bellevue Welsh-Catholic Methodist church at 8 p. m.

The second annual military ball of St. Paul's Pioneer corps will be held at Mead's hall on Wednesday evening, April 17. This is an event of unusual interest and will doubtless be attended by many young people.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

James W. Lewis, who has been a townman at the Bellevue mine for a number of years, has resigned and will locate on a farm in Maple Lake, Spring Brook township.

Rev. H. E. Hendrick, a former pastor, will occupy the pulpit of the Lutheran Episcopal church tomorrow morning and in the evening the sermon will be preached by Rev. J. W. Piles.

A largely attended meeting of the Women's class of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church was held in the church yesterday afternoon and much work was accomplished.

At the regular meeting of the council, Young Men's Institute, will assemble at the rooms tomorrow evening at 8:30 o'clock and proceed to St. Patrick's Catholic church, where they will receive Holy Communion in a body at 9 o'clock mass.

The Electric City Wheelmen will offer a free trip ticket to the Pan-American exposition, with all expenses paid, to the winner of the contest, which they are now conducting vigorously.

Rev. P. J. Jones conducted services over the remains of the late John Jones last evening at the home, 225 Chestnut street. The body will be taken to Spring Brook today, where interment will be had.

The condition of William T. Davis, of Washburn street, the well known coal operator, who was scalped on Tuesday by a gang of rascals, is improving, and his limbs are not so swollen as at first. His injury was caused by a steam pipe bursting while he was engaged at work near the factory, which he owns at Minooka.

The hotel residence on Scranton street is reported to be for sale. The occupants, Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Dean, contemplate taking up their residence in Backusville, N. J.

A. J. Fritz, the grocer, and James B. Doyle, the harness man, contemplate the erection of a business block on the Merifield property, which adjoins the Masonic building on North Main avenue.

Marketham James built will erect a suitable building to meet the needs of his business on North Main avenue, adjoining the new P. O. S. of A. building.

George Esterline, the commission merchant, is exchanging a $7,000 house on North Sumner avenue, for a large and substantial one in the city.

Members of the Leek club, which meets in Euclid Evans' hotel, on Jackson street, attended a banquet in Union Hotel's ball on the central city last evening.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Jones, of 714 West Lackawanna avenue, died on Wednesday and was privately interred.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. James Conroy, of 251 Kenilworth street, died Thursday and will be buried in the Catholic cemetery this afternoon.

Dr. L. H. Childs and daughter, Florence, of South Main avenue, have been called to Philadelphia to attend the funeral of the doctor's aunt, and also to visit Miss Margaret Gibbs, who is ill in New York.

John Schleiter, of Chestnut street, is visiting the son-in-law, Rev. Mr. Brucker, at Elton, N. Y.

Rev. E. J. McHenry and wife, of North Lincoln avenue, were abruptly surprised on Wednesday evening by a number of unscrupulous fellows from St. David's Episcopal church, who presented them with a picture of the rector. The occasion was thought very much of.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

William, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Reilly, had his left hand badly injured, while at work in the Pottsville road works yesterday. He was removed to his home in Prospect avenue, where Dr. O'Malley attended him.

The regular Sunday afternoon Gospel meeting of the Young Women's Christian association will be held at their rooms Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock and will be led by Miss Ann Hoffbauer.

The Young Men's Institute's rehearsal, which was held in Atlantic hall last evening, was very largely attended. Extensive preparations are being made by the members for their coming concert and entertainment to be given on Dewey day, May 1, at Germania hall. They also decided to attend the fair of the Church of Peace next Friday and there ready and ready entertainers.

The St. Joseph's society will meet in St. Mary's hall Sunday afternoon.

A baby girl was born yesterday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Blawie, of 111 Hickory street.

OBITUARY.

PAUL DUNN.—After a week's illness of pneumonia, Paul Dunn, of 1091 West Linden street, died last evening at the Lackawanna hospital. A wife and family survive him. The funeral arrangements will be made later.

MISS BRIDGET MORAN.—Patrick Moran, of Pacific avenue, has received word of the death in New York city of his oldest daughter, Miss Bridget, who had lived there for some time. The remains have been brought to this city.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Thomas, of 1224 Elyon street, died yesterday.

Funerals.

The funeral services of the late John J. Pile, who was killed at the Green Lake bridge, took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the St. Joseph's church, corner North Wyoming avenue and Green Ridge street. The casket will be laid in earth at 2 o'clock tomorrow morning at the cemetery on Green Ridge street, with a Mass at 10 o'clock.

NORTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Excellent Entertainment Given at Auditorium by Textile Workers. Notes of the Y. W. C. A.

Last evening an interesting entertainment was given at the Auditorium, under the auspices of the Textile Workers' local of this section. The spacious hall was crowded to its utmost by persons who listened to the well-rendered programme.

Misses McHale and Loftus gave violin solos in a very pleasing way, followed by the Misses Annie and Emma Moran, whose vocal solos received hearty encores. William P. Lynott's comic songs were up-to-date, as were those of Miss Mame Evans and Thomas Coyne. Messrs. Sweeney and Hoffman gave a burlesque and swing dance in a graceful manner, and Edward Harrington performed a most difficult skating feat on roller skates upon a small wire extending from one side of the stage to the other, ten feet in the air.

William F. Burke, the popular singer and song writer, rendered his greatest and latest success, "The Curse of a Pretty Face," and also Mr. O'Boyle's latest song, entitled "Just Because She Had No Union Card."

Alex. S. Singer, of Erie, Pa., a guest of Frank Harrington, of Marine avenue, sang two baritone solos, with excellent effect. Mr. Singer is on his way to New York to join an opera company.

Mrs. Mark Sullivan, of Gilmore avenue, has returned home after a week's visit with her daughter in New York city.

The funeral of Anella, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christ Barber, took place yesterday.

PARK PLACE.

Mr. Ann Brown's home at 1154 Providence road was entered by thieves between the hours of 5 and 12 o'clock yesterday morning. Mrs. Brown was at Wilkes-Barre to see her mother, who is ill.

H. T. Holley is out, after an illness with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Anderson, of Wood street, spent Wednesday with friends at Pittston.

Rev. G. C. Lyman, of Court Street Methodist Episcopal church, is attending the conference at Pittston.

Dr. E. Rodeman, of Court street, is spending ten days with friends at Williamsport.

DUNMORE DOINGS.

Second Night of the Bazaar—Tomorrow's Services in the Churches.

Last night another large crowd was present at the bazaar held at Alex. Bryden's home on Dudley street. The attendance was very gratifying to those in charge. Nearly every article has been disposed of and it is expected that the increase in the treasury will be about $300, which the ladies consider a good sum for a two-night affair.

The principal entertainment of the evening was furnished by the quartette from the Green Ridge Wheelmen's club.

In the Churches.

Tripp Avenue Christian church—Services both morning and evening, preaching by the pastor, Rev. J. D. Dabney. Morning topic, "Jesus Appears to Mary"; evening topic, "The Wonders of the Cross and Tomb." Special music in keeping with the topics has been prepared. Sunday school at 10 o'clock; men's meeting at 6:40. All are made to feel welcome at every service.

Dunmore Presbyterian church—Rev. W. F. Gibbons, pastor. Preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Morning subject, "The Will of God"; evening subject, "Neither Cold Nor Hot"; Sunday school at 12 o'clock; prayer meeting, Wednesday night at 7:30 p. m.; Dudley Street Baptist church—Preaching by the pastor, G. W. North, at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school at 12 m.; prayer meeting, Thursday at 7:30 p. m.

Breezy Brevities.

The rummage sale held by the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church has proved to be an unusually successful one. Large crowds have been busy buying bargains during the past two days, and it is expected that the affair will net about $20.

G. W. Dillon, the picture man, has taken possession of the Stanton building at the Corners, where he is pleasantly located and shows a large line of samples, including many pictures of the town's best citizens.

Miss Jessie Wertz, of Blakely street, is visiting friends at Wilkes-Barre.

Pred Stevens, Thomas Henwood and J. W. Pinnell attended the sessions of the conference at Pittston this week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Golden, of Willow street, a son.

Assistant Secretary Williams, of the Philadelphia Young Men's Christian association, visited at St. W. Chamberlain's residence yesterday.

Rev. Martin T. Williams, of Binghamton, was a visitor in town on Thursday. Rev. Williams has been mentioned as one of the possible appointees to the Methodist Episcopal church here in case Rev. Van Cleft should not return.

Treasurer August Walters will pay school teachers and school orders this afternoon, between 1 and 5 o'clock, at the borough building.

ARTHUR CAIN ARRESTED.

He Is Charged with False Pretenses by Oscar Heyer.

Oscar Heyer, the Spruce street jeweler, appeared before Alderman John T. Howe Thursday and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Arthur Cain, formerly of this city, but now of Wilkes-Barre, on the charge of false pretenses.

Cain, he claims, came into his jewelry store on January 5, last, and after looking at a gold watch valued at $25, asked for permission to take it home to show it to his wife before buying. Heyer let him take the watch, but, like the man in the song, "he never came back."

The warrant for his arrest was placed in the hands of Detective Will Clifford, who after some difficulty, located him on the street in Wilkes-Barre. He was brought to this city yesterday morning and given a hearing before Alderman Howe, who held him in $500 bail for his appearance in court.
