BRADFORD COUNTY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Towanda, April 14.—At Sayre it is claimed that private detectives are hunting the barrooms, and whenever possible pictures are taken of railroad men, while drinking, and such to be used as evidence when necessary.

John Scott, one of the country's oldest and best known colored men, died at his home in Towanda, aged eighty-two years. He was born a slave in Shennandoah valley, and in 1848 he made his escape and went to Bellefonte, thence to Pittsburg, where he was engaged as a teamster. Being suspected by his former master, he donned female attire and again made an escape, going to Canada. After working on Lake Erie for several years, he later went to Buffalo, then to Elmira and during the Civil war was in Troy, this county. Afterwards he came to Towanda, where he won the esteem of many friends. He is survived by a widow and one sister.

stage, for while he is a comparatively young man (under 30) he has already been accepted as a leading actor in the most successful theatrical (which is distinctly pleasing). He has much to do with the act which has been vouchered him, added to this he has a commanding stage presence and a beautifully melodious baritone voice. Mr. Hamilton will be in the city on Thursday night in "The Song of the Sea," "The Land of the Living," "The Mother's Lullaby," "The Retribution," "My Native Land," "The Blue Bird," etc., etc.

THEATRICAL.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC—The Corsic Payton Stock company. Matinee and night.

GAIETY—Fred Irwin's Big Burlesque show. Matinee and night.

The Corsic Payton Stock Co.

If any one doubts the popularity of the Corsic Payton Stock company, a visit to the Academy of Music this afternoon, where they begin a week's engagement in our city, will serve to dispel those doubts. If any one cares to search for the cause of this popularity, strict attention to the stage and performance will discover the reason. Miss Edna Earle Lindon is a leading actress of acknowledged ability and versatility, and every member of the supporting company is an actor in the true sense of the word. Every production is made with the same care, scenery, costumes, furniture and other details that characterizes the original productions in New York. The plays selected are the best of metropolitan success, and their origin and intelligent direction make them the most complete ever attempted by any popular priced manager.

The engagement in this city will begin Monday afternoon by the presentation of that popular success, "Only a Fanner's Daughter," which will be given for the first time in this city at the Academy of Music. The play, which is a comedy, is a masterpiece of wit and humor, and is a leading actress of acknowledged ability and versatility, and every member of the supporting company is an actor in the true sense of the word. Every production is made with the same care, scenery, costumes, furniture and other details that characterizes the original productions in New York.
