SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION WORK

The Ninth Semi-Annual Session Convened Here Yesterday—Sixteen Sunday Schools Send Delegates—A Fine Address by Rev. D. L. Davis, of Mount Carmel.

The Sunday School union of the Wyoming Association of Congregational churches held three sessions yesterday in the First Congregational church of this city.

The president being unable to attend on account of illness, Mr. Jenkins, the vice-president, presided, and Griffith E. Thomas, of Scranton, then read a paper on "The Relation of the Sabbath School to the Church."

The afternoon session began at 2 o'clock with devotional exercises. The first paper on the program was to have been read by Elias E. Evans, of Scranton, on the "Importance of Teaching Congregationalism in the Sunday School."

After this address, Mr. Evans was again called on to read his paper, but he was not present. A call for impromptu speeches on his subject, "The Place of Music, Vocal and Instrumental, in the Sunday School," was answered by short addresses.

The fact that all women suffer during the birth-hour leads a great many women to accept a degree of suffering which is altogether unnecessary. Sometimes it is only a matter of hours before the struggle is over.

BURLARS TRY AGAIN.

John Mohr's Grocery Store Visited Tuesday Night—Scared Away. For the second time within twenty-four hours burglars made an attempt to ply their vocation.

The church, seventy England, gathered in 1901. The established form of worship by the National church was insisted upon, which amounted to tyranny.

Nothing in the store had been disturbed, and it was evident that Mr. Reynolds had just come along in time to prevent the bold thieves from carrying off their booty.

INSTANTLY KILLED.
