SUSPECTS ARE NABBED.

Five Arrests Were Made Yesterday of Suspicious Characters.

That the police of this city are not going to stand around idle and allow burglars to break into stores and offices with impunity was evidenced yesterday by the action of Chief McAndrew...

There are several shanties up above this city along the railroad tracks which have been empty for a long time. Reports came to Chief McAndrew on Wednesday that in one of these abandoned houses a gang of tramps had been making their lodging.

When the officers returned after their fruitless chase they took the three prisoners to the city jail, where they were locked up. The red-headed man was among the bunch, but the gray-clad tramp was one of those who escaped.

There was a hearing given the first three yesterday morning by the mayor. Two of the men were discharged, as no one could be found to identify them.

Will Have to Move. William B. Fuller appeared before Alderman Atkinson yesterday afternoon, on a writ issued at the instance of a Mrs. Reardon...
