FUNERAL OF A YOUNG PRIEST

REMAINS OF REV. P. J. MCAFREY LAID AT REST.

Impressive Services Held in St. Patrick's Catholic Church Yesterday Morning—Eulogy Delivered by Rev. Father Welbers, of Wilmington, Del.—Austin Ringler, of Division Street, Has Become Insane and It Was Found Necessary to Take Him to the Hillside Home.

The funeral of the late Rev. P. J. McCaffrey yesterday morning was unusually large and impressive and the services were held in St. Patrick's Catholic church at 9:30 o'clock, where a solemn high mass of requiem was sung. The remains were encased in a beautiful black casket, and were clothed in the vestments of the order of St. Joseph. The services for the dead were chanted by Rev. J. J. O'Reilly, of St. Peter's cathedral; Rev. John Dunn, of Holy Cross church; Rev. J. McCann, of Philadelphia; Rev. J. Loftus, of St. Paul's, Green Ridge; Rev. E. J. Griffin, of the cathedral, and Rev. E. J. Melley, of South Scranton. Rev. Justin McCarthy, of Epiphany college, Baltimore, Md., celebrated the mass. Rev. D. McHale, of St. Joseph's seminary, Baltimore, was deacon; Rev. John Dunn, of Holy Cross church, sub-deacon; Rev. J. J. Lavelle, of St. Patrick's church, officiating in the choir. Rev. Joseph Anthony, of St. Joseph's seminary, Baltimore, master of ceremonies.

The Tertorian mass was sung by the regular church choir, under the direction of Miss Johnson, the organist, and the offertory, Miss Susan Burns sang the "Ave Maria." The sermon was preached by Rev. Father Welbers, of St. Joseph's church, Wilmington, Del., where the late Father McCaffrey had been stationed for some time. The speaker did not discuss any text, but spoke directly on the life of the deceased. Among other things, he said that Father McCaffrey had been a zealous and indefatigable worker in the cause of Christ. His labors were crowned with success, and his talent, zeal, humility, charity, modesty, cheerfulness and courage endeared him to the hearts of the people among whom he labored.

After the services the remains were conveyed to the cathedral cemetery, where they were interred in the priests' plot. At the graveside the assembled priests chanted the burial service of the Catholic church. The pall bearers were John Connelly, Daniel Lafferty, Patrick McCaffrey, Daniel Connelly, James Early and Patrick Lafferty.

The funeral was attended by many life-long friends of Father McCaffrey, who had been associated with him prior to his entering the ministry, and all regret his untimely death just at a time when he had begun his real life work.

Young Man Insane.
Austin Ringler, aged 19 years, son of Mrs. William Ringler, of Division street, was affected with an aberration of the mind yesterday while at his home and it became necessary to remove him to the Hillside Home. The young man had been working on a farm near Lake Winola until recently, when he returned home.

He suffered from nervousness more or less, but became violent yesterday and it was necessary to enlist the help of several men to overcome him. The boy had suffered an impediment in his speech, but, strange to relate, this was overcome by the attack he had yesterday.

It is an exceedingly unfortunate case and the sympathy of the community goes out to the mother and the affected boy's brothers. Under the excellent care of Superintendent Beemer and his assistants it is expected that he will soon be restored again.

Events of This Evening.
The newly-elected officers of Silurian lodge, No. 763, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will be installed this evening in D. D. Evans' hall, South Main avenue. Recorder Mohr and other speakers will attend.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.
A large number of the local Salvation Army folk attended the mass meeting last evening in the Second Presbyterian church, at which Colonel W. J. Cozens and others spoke.

Sluggish Blood

causes nine-tenths of all sicknesses. Indigestion followed by headache, general listlessness, despondency, enfeebled action of the mind and body, cold, clammy feet and hands, and paleness, the sure signs of poor circulation. If not taken in time, serious trouble will follow. That tired feeling comes from sluggish blood.

BANG SCOTLAND'S SONGS.

Concert Given by the Caledonian Club Choir.

The good songs of bonny Scotland were given most intelligent interpretation at Guernsey hall last night by the Caledonian club choir, which gave an excellent concert. The programme was opened by introductory remarks by James Skochee, and then followed a number of finely rendered vocal numbers, both individual and by the choir as a whole.

Professor Walter played several difficult piano selections and L. McMillan gave in a most stirring manner the "Battle of Stirling." The Misses Lizzie and Ellen Jeffrey sang in sympathetic strains "Oh! Wert Thou in the Gloom Blast," and Messrs. McMillan, Glenross and McMillan, sang the rollicking strains of "Willie Brewed a Peck of Maut." Miss Lizzie Jeffrey sang "Robin Adair," and Miss Ellen Jeffrey, "Cold Waters." B. Jeffrey recited, "O'Grady's Cat," and "Scots Wha Hae." "There Was a Lad," and other selections were sung by the choir.

Recorder James Moir was present and gave one of his characteristic speeches. He spoke of the music of Scotland and the beauties of its household poetry, and interspersed his talk with a number of witty sayings and anecdotes. A dance followed the concert.
