MORE BONES WERE FOUND

ANOTHER HAND—OR FOOT—UN-EARTHED BY BOYS.

Third Specimen Appears to Be More Like a Human Hand Than Anything Else—Who Will Solve This Mystery?—Man Who Wants to See the Janitors Organized—Notes About the Churches—Funeral of a Child—Other Matters of General Interest.

Early yesterday morning Patrolman Thomas Jones, who is doing duty on the West Linden street boat, reported to Lieutenant Williams that another hand—or foot—had been found near where the other two were unearthed Wednesday evening, in the vicinity of E. Robinson's Sons' power house, at the end of North Seventh street.

Class Social.

On Thursday evening the pastor's Bible class of the First Baptist church held their annual business meeting and social at his home on Rock street. An elaborate programme was rendered, comprising addresses, solos, duets and quartettes. Later, a bountiful repast was served by the young ladies present.

At Simpson Church Tomorrow.

Rev. J. B. Sweet, pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, who has been transferred to Oneonta, N. Y., will preach tomorrow morning, and in the evening the choir will repeat the excellent musical programme which was rendered on Easter Sunday. It is as follows:

Installation of Officers. At the meeting of Silurian lodge, No. 783, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, held in D. D. Evans' hall, South Main avenue, last evening, the following officers were installed for the ensuing term:

Steamship Tickets. At lowest rates. Apply to Morgan & Sons, 1128 Jackson street.

Jackson Street Church Notes. This week we bid farewell to John Thomas and wife and Penn Morgan and his family; we already feel our loss, but we hope it is for the best.

upwards of twenty-four years, moving from there to Kingston. Deceased is survived by her husband and three daughters, Mrs. T. L. Newell, Mrs. R. J. Cobleigh, of Kingston, and Mrs. Walter Foster, of New York; also two sisters, Mrs. Jane Wilson, of Pittsford, and Mrs. Marie Morgan, of Bayonne, N. J.

Mass., and he will preach at his old parish, the first church of Chelmsford. Though we want Vinondale to grow, we are loath to part with our young men and good families.

Wants Janitors Organized. There is a local janitor who has sent a communication to the West Scranton office of The Tribune, urging that the janitors organize. He would be glad to learn the sentiments of others along this line.

Funeral of a Child. Rev. A. L. Ramer, of St. Mark's Lutheran church, officiated at the funeral of Mr. and Mrs. William Carlsson's young child yesterday afternoon. The services were held at the house on Jackson street, and interment was made in the Washburn street cemetery.

Funeral of the Late Miss Abbie Watrous—Interment Made in the Dunmore Cemetery. The remains of Miss Abbie Watrous were consigned to her last resting place in Dunmore cemetery yesterday afternoon, large numbers of sorrowing friends and relatives being in attendance. The funeral was held from the family residence, on Smith street.

Major Galley, who was one of the first members of the Salvation Army to enter Galveston after the now famous flood had swept over the city, sold of the year-end ending scenes encountered during that period, and illustrated his talk with stereopticon pictures at the Salvation Army barracks, on Price street, last evening.

Religious Matters. The many friends of Rev. A. J. Van 't Hof regret exceedingly his departure for Ashley. His genial nature has been the means of forming many warm friendships within his own church and also with those affiliated with the other churches in town.

Events of This Evening. Meeting of the I. O. O. F. club at 7:15 p. m., at the home of Miss Carrie Floyd, 1138 Rock street.

Members of Council No. 497 of the Junior Order United American Mechanics, will hold a special meeting in Co-operative hall this evening to make arrangements for attending the funeral of the late John Vipond, which will be held tomorrow afternoon.

Other Announcements. The state quarterly convention of the Sons of Temperance will be held in St. David's hall next Wednesday, April 24. Among the speakers will be Miss Fannie C. Mont and T. T. Jones, noted temperance workers.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES. The funeral of the late Mrs. Maria Cousins occurred yesterday afternoon. Services were held at the house on North Main avenue and interment was made in the Dunmore cemetery.

Funeral of the Late John Ennis Who Was Killed at Washington, N. J. The remains of John Ennis, who was killed at Washington, N. J., were yesterday consigned to their final resting place in the Cathedral cemetery.

Other Funerals. The funeral of Willie, the sixteen-months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kuhn, took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence on Pittsford avenue.

NEWS IN BRIEF. The boss barbers will meet Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Hoffman's parlors, Beech street and Stone avenue.

OBITUARY. JOHN VIPOND—John Vipond, a well known employe of the Lackawanna Railroad company, died at 6 o'clock yesterday morning at his home on South Orange, after a two weeks' illness.

SOME FOOLISH PEOPLE. Allow a dog to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. Then often say, "Oh, it will run away," but in most cases it will never return.
