NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

Thomas Leonard and David Edwards Fell Into a Sewer Trench.

Thomas Leonard and David Edwards, two young lads about 12 years old, had a narrow escape from being buried alive Wednesday in the new sewer which is being put in on Spring street.

Leonard and Edwards were standing on the side of the sewer trench, which gave way and fell down into it. Before they could recover their footing a large amount of earth and stone came tumbling down, covering them up as far as their heads.

Passersby, who heard the boys' cries, went to their assistance and rescued them. They were very weak and had to be carried to their homes.

AN EXPENSIVE BON FIRE.

Confiscated Gambling Apparatus Was Burned Yesterday by Officers of Municipal League.

Agent Robert Wilson and a half dozen Municipal League detectives yesterday afternoon carried away the gambling apparatus confiscated in the recent gambling raids and took it out to the circus grounds, on North Washington avenue, where a huge bonfire was made.

The apparatus was all taken apart and each separate piece was carefully watched until it was reduced to ashes. The billiard table, which was taken from the Wyoming avenue establishment, was also burned.

When the first load had been burned on the wagon was sent to the Commonwealth building, where the thirteen slot machines taken from various saloons up the valley some few weeks ago, were stored. These were loaded on the wagon and taken out to the scene of the bonfire, where they were first rendered useless by an axe, and then consigned to the flames.

It is known that the Municipal League is determined to wipe out the gambling evil in this city, and it is expected that a raid will be made in the near future upon two other gambling houses which are said, by the league authorities, to be in active operation on Spruce street.

IMPRESSIONS OF OUR IRA.

Personal Comments on His Appearance Before Supreme Court.

That the picturesque does not escape the eye of good newspaper men even in such a prosaic proceeding as an argument before the Supreme court, is attested by the following comments culled from reports of the "ripper" hearing:

"I. H. Burns, of Scranton, broad of shoulder, ruddy of cheek and with a scraggly red beard, and a carelessness of attire which suggested that, Cincinnati-like, he had left the plow to join the battle, opened the argument. Calmly, dispassionately and without any attempt at pyrotechnics, he proceeded to discuss the measure and the relation it bore to the supreme law of the land."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"Mr. Burns opened for the appellant, but those who had read his paper book expected a spicy argument. They were disappointed. His argument was devoid of metaphor of the character that made his brief the wonder and amusement of the other attorneys."—Pittsburg Commercial Gazette.

STATEMENT OF FIREMEN.

List of the Requests They Presented to the Officers of the L. I. & S. Company.

The strike among the firemen and coal heavers at the South steel mill of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company is still on, but has not spread to any of the other departments, and Superintendent Barnard yesterday declared that operations are in no way interfered with at the works.

The strikers have issued the following statement, to give the public the correct version of the conditions which resulted in the suspension of labor:

Editor of The Tribune:

Our grievance committee waited on Mr. Barnard on the 20th inst. in regard to our demands. After listening attentively he told us our figures were preposterous and would grant us no concessions whatever.

A Smart Reduction In the Price of Neckwear

We then saw Mr. Wehrum, the general manager, who informed us he would have to consult the board of directors before he could give an increase in wages, and that Mr. Barnard would give us an answer Monday.

We called for our answer on Monday, April 23, to Mr. Barnard, who met us with this answer: "We have looked over this matter carefully and we can do nothing for you."

Still we were hardly on the outside of the mill when Mr. Barnard himself offered $1.70 per day to reach laborers to take our places and at present he is using his under bosses as agents to go among us inducing us to go back at $1.20 per day.

Yesterday the firemen's places were filled by men chosen from the laborers, but no attempt was made by the strikers to deter them from work and there was an entire absence of disorder.

In a few individual cases firemen accosted their successors and endeavored to dissuade them from working, but nothing further than moral suasion was used.

MR. CLARKE PROMOTED.

Local Weather Observer Has Received Commission as Forecast Official.

F. H. Clarke, who is in charge of the local station of the United States weather bureau, has been signally honored by receiving a promotion in the service to the rank of local forecast official. The advance carries with it a substantial increase in salary, and also heightens the importance of the Scranton office.

Mr. Clarke received his first notification that the honor awaited him by a letter he received April 11 from the Hon. Willis Moore, head of the bureau, in which he intimated that within a short while he would receive the advance. Mr. Clarke's commission followed a few days later, from the secretary of agriculture. It will take effect May 1.

After July 1 it is likely that Forecast Official Clarke will be awarded another assistant, and his staff thus increased to three aides. The office will then be considered on a footing with those in the larger cities of the state.

In Pennsylvania there are stations at Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Scranton, Harrisburg and Erie. Only the first three have forecast officials. In New York state there are seven stations, only three of which, those at New York city, Buffalo and Albany, have forecast officials.

FUNERAL OF MRS. NICHOLS.

Respected Resident of Clark's Summit Laid at Rest.

The funeral of Mrs. Flora Annette Nichols was held from the residence at Clark's Summit yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment was in the Clark's Green cemetery.

During her two weeks' illness, her greatest desire was to live until her son, Nelson, could reach home from Havana, Cuba, where he spent the winter. This wish was not gratified, as he did not reach home until three hours after the funeral. Interment was delayed until after his arrival.

Mrs. Nichols was one of the most active members of the Clark's Summit Baptist church. She is survived by her husband, Asa A. Nichols; two sons, George H. and Nelson N., both of Clark's Summit; one brother, G. L. Newton, of Scott, and one sister, Mrs. Mary N. Gardner, of Binghamton, N. Y. The Rev. H. P. East officiated, and the pall-bearers were Major I. A. Ackery, Byron Ackery, W. P. Litz, W. S. France, J. F. King and F. M. Young.
