PITTSION.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.
Pittsion, April 24.—While playing with matches in an upstairs bedroom about 9 o'clock this morning little George McGuire, two-and-a-half-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John McGuire, of Charles street, set fire to his clothing and before Mrs. McGuire, who was attracted by the boy's screams, could reach his side he had been seriously burned about the breast, face, arms and hands. The mother wrapped the little one in a strip of carpet and extinguished the flames, burning her left hand in the act. Fears are felt for the boy's recovery.

"A HELPING HAND." Is Gladly Extended by a Scranton Citizen.

THEATRICAL.

TODAY'S ATTRACTIONS.

LYCEUM—"Janice Meredith." Night.
ACADEMY—Tennyson Shاعر company. Matinee and night.
GAIETY—Little Egypt Burlesque company. Matinee and night.

"The Heart of Maryland."

"Though the weather was miserable, an audience that crowded the Lyceum to the doors says: 'The Heart of Maryland' presented at the Lyceum last night. This stirring drama by Belasco seems to increase in popularity and drawing power with each presentation. The way in which it was received last night left no doubt as to the kind of an impression that it made on the audience."

Mary Manning.

Carl Ahrendt, a German actor, who has many years' experience on the American stage, plays the part of Colonel Rahl, the Hessian commander at Trenton in support of Mary Manning in her new revolutionary play, "Janice Meredith," which comes to the Lyceum theatre tonight. Mr. Ahrendt came to this country about eighteen years ago. He had had many years' experience on the German stage. He speaks English indifferently and was cast for character parts in which his imperfect English made him particularly interesting.

"A Poor Relation."

In Sol Smith Russell's long career he never produced a better or more successful play than his famous comedy, "A Poor Relation," and it was a matter of great regret when his health forbade his appearing for some time to come.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin."

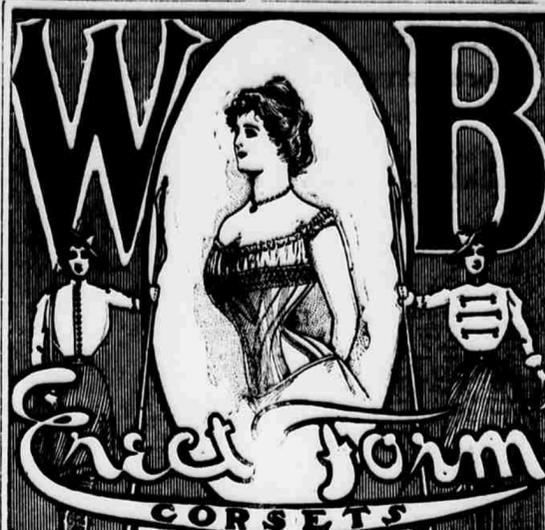

Stetson's big production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will appear at the Lyceum on Saturday afternoon and night. It has been organized this season in a manner that will make it far superior to any previous production ever seen here.

Champlin Next Week.

Charles K. Champlin and company will be the attraction at the Academy of Music next week. Of this company the Lyceum says:

Black Patti Troubadours.

The Black Patti Troubadours have an entirely new stage scheme for this season. Their new stage production is entitled "A Darktown Frolic on the

DANGEROUS DRIFTING

It's the Neglect of at First Slight Ailments That Bring So Many People to a Condition of Waning Strength—Usual Pursuits Must Be Abandoned.

So many people in this busy age crowd along life with a consciousness that nature is tapping for assistance. They are the kind who do not admit sickness until held bedfast by a violent attack.

They are the kind whose lives are so full of activity that first symptoms like Palpitation of the heart, Unsettled nerves, Nervous headache, Sleeplessness, Trembling of hands and limbs, Loss of appetite, Waning strength, Food heavy, And a lot of indications are passed over and endured until gradually they drift into a settled condition of dependency.

The grand reputation gained by Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills follows now. Their success in making this kind of sick people well—
