SCRANTON, APRIL 26, 1901.

The Filipino insurrection seems to be about as difficult to locate now as was the Cuban army at the beginning of the Spanish-American war.

For School Improvement.

ON MONDAY, the same day upon which the Philadelphia board of education's special committee decided in favor of term average promotions...

Scranton is one of the eight-year-course cities before attaining the high school. It is not, therefore, with reference to that that we allude to the Rochester superintendent's report...

But there are the many who, especially in an industrial community, such as this, cannot reach the high school at all. Mr. Gilbert frankly states that the shortening of the course, the putting of eight grades for nine—seven for eight...

The heated condition of the blood of the Daughters of the Revolution of Pittsburgh indicates that the corpses of '76 are in excellent working order.

The Wall street brokers, as well as the bicycle riders, seem disposed to keep up the good work of smashing all records.

TOLD BY THE STARS.

Daily Horoscope Drawn by Ajacchus, The Tribune Astrologer.

A child born on this day will notice that the outlook for the umbellic industry is still promising.

People who settled the strike will soon be as numerous as the original Moxley men at election time.

The man who says that marriage is not always pleasant, but is frequently beneficial.

The Municipal League by actively in doing valuable general propaganda is in a fair way to drive the local sporting fraternity to complete extinction.

Be in mind that the "clad hand" is all a teacher for something.

will take the prize. Mr. Herreshoff, Jr., remarked at the launching that the new yacht embodied all the faults of recent American defenders of the cup...

A Nation's Shame.

IT WAS because his teachings were more sublime and lofty than those of the Greek church in Russia, that Tolstoy had been driven in his old age from his native land.

The re-examination not only expelled him from the church, but included in the writ that when he died he should be denied Christian burial.

It is not known to what land he was exiled. The cable advised that he was escorted to the frontier by two gendarmes.

The lesson to be drawn is that a dangerous tendency toward religious persecution still lingers at the morning of the twentieth century.

We have with us in our own land many Tolstois whom we have regarded with intolerant thought.

Another convincing argument against the habit of carrying concealed weapons has been given in the case of a telephone expert at Portland, Maine.

WAS CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR DAY

TWO BIG MEETINGS IN PENN AVENUE CHURCH.

The County Union Assembled in the Afternoon and at Night a Rally of the City Union Was Held at Which Addresses Were Made by Director of Public Safety Hitchcock, Agent Robert Wilson and Others—Bill Repealing Certain of the Blue Laws Is Condemned.

About fifty-five delegates from the Lackawanna county Christian Endeavor union assembled yesterday afternoon in the lower temple at the Penn Avenue Baptist church...

The delegates were accorded a hearty welcome by the pastor of the church, Rev. Robert F. Y. Pierce, D. D., himself one of the leading Christian Endeavor workers in the state...

THE SILENT HOUR. There were three interesting little talks on the "Silent Hour Movement."

The meeting was presided over by Rev. Luther Hess Waring, pastor of Grace Evangelical Lutheran church and president of the city union.

Several amendments to the constitution, offered by W. T. Hackett, were also unanimously adopted. The most important of these provided that in the future the executive committee shall consist of not only the officers, but also the members of all standing committees...

IMPORTANT CHANGES.

Several amendments to the constitution, offered by W. T. Hackett, were also unanimously adopted.

The first address was delivered by Rev. Robert F. Y. Pierce, D. D., pastor of the Penn Avenue church. He gave a number of interesting statistics, showing the wonderful growth of the Christian Endeavor movement in twenty years...

Director Hitchcock spoke on "Christian Citizenship," following Dr. Pierce. He quoted statistics to prove that while the nineteenth century was the century of crime, the twentieth century is the century of righteousness.

WOMEN SHOULD ACT.

He referred to the vague ideas which the majority of American women have of the principles of the form of government under which we live.

the closing of the saloons, and said that the time was now ripe in the city of Scranton for the "echo of the whistle of the sword of God to be heard on every street."

REV. GIBBONS' ADDRESS. Rev. W. F. Gibbons, pastor of the Dunmore Presbyterian church, spoke on "Twentieth Century Churches."

Rev. Luther Hess Waring gave a brief resume of mission work since the modern missionary movement started some two hundred years ago.

Just before adjournment, Dr. Pierce offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, We have learned through the public press that a bill has been introduced in our state legislature, now in session at Harrisburg, for the repeal of certain laws relative to the observance of the Sabbath or Lord's Day; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the City Christian Endeavor union of the city of Scranton, and the county union of the county of Lackawanna, strongly oppose the passage of such bill and urge our senators and members of the house of representatives to oppose the bill by their personal votes, and do all possible to defeat its passage; and, be it

THE SECOND CONCERT.

Madame Van Den Hende's 'Cello Playing Evoked Enthusiasm.

A large audience attended the second Van den Hende concert last night at Guernsey hall. Madame Van den Hende again delighted the listeners with her wonderful 'cello playing.

Mrs. Clara Simpson-Brady was particularly happy in her vocal selections. She sang the difficult Lithuanian aria from "Mignon," and two dainty ballads, "Mignon" and "Damon."
