PERSONAL.

Mrs. Joseph Levy, of Vno street, is in New York.

Edw. Gumpert, of Patton, was in the city yesterday.

Miss May Hagler, of Lebanon, is visiting friends in the city.

Miss Mary Albion, of Jefferson avenue, has returned from a visit to friends in New York city.

Frederic R. Jones, of Dunhill, N. Y., spent Sunday at the home of his parents on Jackson street.

Edward E. J. Mitchell, of Yonkers, was in the city yesterday the guest of his cousin, E. P. Mitchell, of Penn avenue.

Ex-Sheriff Charles Robinson, William Craig, Victor Koch and Emil Schimpf spent Saturday night at Lake Hazy and came home with a splendid catch.

Robert Bradley, of North Sumner avenue, who graduated on Friday from the New York College of Pharmacy, is home. He was honored with the vice presidency of his class and expected to accept a position at Long Branch for the summer.

Thomas Larkin, of West Lacksawanna avenue, a student at Niagara university, is winning new laurels as a Shakespearean declaimer. Recently he participated in a recitation of "Richard" which won for him marked distinction as a dramatic student.

Miss Eason, of Plymouth, one of the senior nurses at the Lacksawanna hospital, will leave the institution during the week. Miss Eason, who is one of the most popular young women at the hospital, will be missed by everyone connected with the hospital.

Elm Park Church Rummage Sale.

The ladies of Elm Park church will hold a rummage sale at 129 Penn avenue beginning on Thursday of this week. Those having articles to contribute may have them called for by sending word to the parsonage or with the janitor at the church.

MADE THREE ADDRESSES.

Work of Rev. W. H. Williams for the Anti-Saloon League.

The drummer Evangelist Rev. W. H. Williams put in a very full day yesterday fighting the saloon. He delivered Anti-Saloon league addresses in the morning at the Derr Memorial Methodist church, Wilkes-Barre; in the afternoon at Brick church, Durvill, and at night in the Calvinistic Methodist church, Bellevue.

These meetings were very largely attended. At them all Mr. Williams enrolled the people against the saloon by circulating pledge cards. Next Thursday, May 2, at 7:30 p. m., he will give his "Last Battle" with the Saloon in the Tabernacle, Congregational church, West Scranton, to which he invites everybody.

MILCOVITZ MUST AWAIT TRIAL.

Judge Kelly Refuses to Order His Release.

Judge Kelly, on Saturday, heard testimony in the habeas corpus proceedings brought to secure the release of Joseph Milcovitz, who after escaping from the county jail where he was imprisoned on a charge of drunkenness, was re-arrested and re-committed by Alderman Miller on the charge of escaping from jail.

Attorney P. F. Loughran appearing for Milcovitz argued that he was not a convict within the meaning of the act under which he was committed. Assistant District Attorney Thomas showed that Milcovitz's offense was a trespass against the common law. Judge Kelly remanded Milcovitz to await trial.

MAUD GONNE TO LECTURE.

Will Appear with Major McBride at College Hall on Sunday.

Miss Maud Gonne and Major McBride, who are touring the United States for the cause of Ireland, will deliver a lecture under the auspices of the Jan Mitchell club in College hall on Sunday evening.

Miss Gonne has attracted considerable attention by her lectures on the Boer war. Mrs. Joseph O'Brien, Miss Susie Burns, Miss May Boland and Professor Kelly, of Archbald, will participate in the musical programme.

FUNERAL OF DR. S. W. STEVENS.

Services Were Held at the Home of Deceased's Parents.

The funeral of Dr. Selton W. Stevens took place from the home of deceased's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Stevens, 1411 Capouse avenue, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The large rooms of the family home were too small to contain the friends who gathered to pay their last respects to one who was held in high esteem during life.

Dr. W. G. Simpson, pastor of Asbury Methodist Episcopal church, conducted the services. A quartette, composed of Mrs. Freas, Mrs. Bert Calkins, William H. Lanyon and W. H. Treverton, sang several selections. The members of Lacksawanna lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, attended in a body. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. The pall-bearers were Dr. O. J. Marvey, F. E. Beers, Edward Osenbach, E. J. Affleck, E. Schimpf and J. F. Volkmandt. The flower-bearers were Dr. A. W. Smith, Dr. Lewis Fry and W. J. Appleman. Interment was made in Forest Hill cemetery.

Friends from out of the city attending the obsequies were Dr. A. R. Stevens, of South Canaan; Dr. W. A. Stevens and family, of Hamilton, Pa.; Mrs. G. D. Stevens and R. W. Noble, of Maplewood; A. W. Cateron, of Sterling, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mills, of Honesdale, Pa.; E. P. Jones, of Arlet, and W. J. Appleman, of Throop.

JERSEYMEN'S GOOD WORK

Roseville Bowlers Defeat a Picked Team on Green Ridge Wheelmen's Alleys.

The strong bowling team representing the Roseville, N. J., Athletic association were the guests, Saturday, of the Green Ridge Wheelmen, and Saturday night bowled three games against a team picked by Charles Fowler. The bowling was witnessed by hundreds of enthusiastic spectators who crowded the bleachers at the side of the alleys.

Each well made spare and every strike was greeted by loud cheering and scores of the men present carefully taking the score and noting each frame's results gave the scene somewhat of the aspect of a base ball crowd before the national game died in this city. The visitors had no difficulty in taking all three games by a total of 237 pins to 275, the last being the only match in which the local players had any chance to win. The visitors put the same team into the game that rolled the all-star league team on the Elk alleys. Dietrich was the night's high man with 214, and Wood had the highest average, 184. Each of the Roseville men went over a 170 average for the night.

Smith led the home team with an average of 177 1-3, and Fowler's 194 was high score. The detailed scores follow:

| ROSEVILLE. | | |
|-------------------------------|-----|-------------|
| Peason | 171 | 180 |
| Wood | 184 | 214 |
| Dietrich | 164 | 170 |

| Totals | 702 | 706 |
| High score, Fowler, 194. | | |
| High average, Smith, 177 2-3. | | |

Dietrich's 214 was made by bunching four strikes after the first frame. In the game he made six strikes and four spares. Meyer made a beautiful spare in the same game on one of the most difficult "splits" of the night.

Following the match games came an exhibition of bowling by Van Ness and Meyers on one side against Pierson and Dietrich on the other. Van Ness, Van Ness himself rolling 235, the night's high score. Colonel George Sanderson umpired the match game.

Century Bowlers Defeated.

A large number of Bicycle club men accompanied the Century Wheelmen of Philadelphia to Wilkes-Barre Saturday night and watched them defeat the local team by the West End Wheelmen by a total of 2550 to 2220. The match resulted as follows:

CALLED THE STRIKE OFF

FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE YESTERDAY.

At a General Meeting of the Striking Silk Mill Employees Held in College Hall the Girls Were Ordered Back to Work Tomorrow Morning. Mass Meeting and Parade Today. Klotz Girls May Not Follow the General Lead—Trouble at Paterson.

At a general meeting of the employees of the silk mills of this city, held yesterday afternoon in St. Thomas College hall, the strike which has been on during the last three months was formally declared off and the announcement made that work will be resumed Tuesday morning.

This afternoon the younger girls will celebrate the end of the strike by holding a parade, and tonight a mass meeting will be conducted in College hall, at which Editor William Matly, of the New York Worker; National Committeeman Frederick Dichter, of the United Mine Workers of America, and "Mother" Mary Jones will make addresses.

THE YOUNG UNIONISTS.

Boothacks and Newboys' Union Yesterday Were Dined at College Hall—Several Speeches Made.

A unique, but pleasing, spectacle was presented yesterday afternoon, when three hundred and four hundred boys representing the youngest and newest union in this city filed into St. Thomas' College hall and there listened to a number of addresses, and were merry.

The initial appearance of the Boothacks and Newboys' union in the city streets and everywhere the youngsters were greeted with friendly and good natured smiles. It was originally intended to conduct the event at the Grand Central, but the influx of unionists was too great and the assembly adjourned to more spacious quarters. It is suspected that more than a few of the youths in the throng joined the union instanter yesterday afternoon when they heard of the lunch to be one of the day's features.

Led by President James Duffy, the boys took seats in College hall. It was a motley crowd which faced the speaker, but the boys of every description made up the audience, but they certainly seemed impregnated with the spirit of unionism from their dampened locks and faces gleaming with a soapy radiance to the tips of the boots, which cast a glow of interest upon them as they listened.

"Mother" Jones gave a hearty, cheerful address to the boys, in which she spoke of the necessity of organization and assured the lads of the benefits which would accrue to them from their union. Reading rooms will be established for them, those of their number who are musically inclined formed into a band, instructors provided and other advantages secured.

William Matly, editor of the New York Worker, also addressed the boys. He spoke along the same lines as "Mother" Jones, and among other things, told of the recent strike of the New York newsboys. A number of prominent local labor leaders, among them Secretary George Gother, of the Central Labor union and J. F. Hammes, of the stone cutters, were present, but made no speeches. A business meeting followed the addresses and the union's officers were elected by a committee look for rooms and arrange meeting nights.

Lunch was then served by P. H. Durkin, of the Grand Central, after which each boy was given a check for a cap, with which they will be provided tomorrow by Henry Collins.

AN OPEN SESSION.

The session was open, and of very short duration. The announcement was briefly made that the strike was over, and all hands were ordered back to work Tuesday morning. "Mother" Jones then made a short address, in which she briefly mentioned the successful culmination of the long struggle, and then urged all of the younger girls to participate in today's parade.

The little ones who are the only ones to be in line, will gather and form in line at the armory, which they will leave at 4:30 o'clock. Tonight's demonstration will be open to the general public and a large attendance is asked. The Klotz local will give an entertainment on their own hook, at St. John's hall, Capouse avenue.

The strike is now over everywhere, with the possible exceptions of the Klotz and Taylor mill of Muhlenberg and Judge "Mother" Jones last night expressed herself as hoping that the management has declared that it would be an actual impossibility to pay higher.

SYMPATHY MOVEMENT.

The movement has been, therefore, more or less a sympathy one and therefore the renewal of work at the other mills, it is thought, will result in a like action at the Taylor plant.

At the Klotz mill it is different, however. The girls employed by this concern were the first to go on strike, and have been leading spirits in the movement throughout, and several of their numbers yesterday declared to a Tribune man that an affirmative vote on the owners' proposal is far from an assured thing. This local votes tomorrow night.

The warpers who registered such a decided objection last Thursday against the soft silk workers' voting for a settlement before their grievances were adjusted, met Bishop Hoban Saturday morning and were assured by him that Superintendent Davis would fulfill their requests. An increase of one-quarter cent per hundred ends will be granted, and a uniform daily scale of $1 paid for warps less than three hundred yards.

"Mother" Jones spent Saturday in Paterson. Trouble seems brewing there, and a general strike is threatened on account of difficulties with the ribbon warpers.

TWO BASKET BALL GAMES.

Contests in the Armory on Saturday Night.

There were two basket ball games played in the armory on Saturday night, between the Defenders and Tigue's gymnasium team and between the Crackerjacks, of North Scranton, and the Twentieth Century, of Minooka.

Fifteen minute halves were played in both instances, and the games were witnessed by over 200 persons. The game between the Defenders and the Tigue team was the second in a series of five for a $50 purse. The Defenders won by a score of 6-2. The line-up was as follows:

| Defenders. | | Twentieth Century. | |
|---|---------------|--------------------|-------|
| Tigue | center | | |
| Saxford | right forward | | |
| Rand | left forward | | |
| Summary—Baskets, Defenders, 6; Twentieth Century, 2. Free throws, 1; Rebound, 4; Fouls, 1. Umpire—Burrpyle. Referee—Seaton. | | | |

The game between the Crackerjacks and the Twentieth Centuries was more aggressively fought and was won by the Centuries by a score of 3 to 1. The line-up for this game follows:

| Crackerjacks. | | Twentieth Century. | |
|--|---------------|--------------------|-------|
| O'Donnell | right forward | | |
| Repp | left forward | | |
| Morgan | right guard | | |
| Daley | left guard | | |
| Fahy | right end | | |
| Lowery | left end | | |
| Summary—Twentieth Century, 3; Crackerjacks, 1. | | | |

THE CLOSING SERVICE.

Evangelist Davis Has Ended His Work Here for the Present.

The closing service of Evangelist Davis, in the Young Men's Christian association, yesterday afternoon, was one to be long remembered by those present. The word was presented with unusual power, and when the speaker contrasted the death-bed scenes of Ingersoll and Moody, tears dimmed the eyes of many, and when the invitation was given three men promised to lead a Christian life.

During the service the choir sang "Jesus Is Calling," and Assistant Main sang the "Ninety and Nine."

Rev. Davis secured a great hold upon the hearts of the young men, and they hope to have him return.

GRANT AGAIN ARRESTED.

Manager of Little Egypt Company Has Troubles of His Own.

Clifford W. Grant, manager of the Little Egypt Burlesque company, which appeared last week at the City, was arrested after the performance Saturday night at the instance of Edith Harcourt, Josie Williams and May Carron, three of the female members of the troupe.

They claimed that after the performance he paid the salaries of the other ten members of the company, leaving them out in the cold. They were unable to pay their board bills as a consequence, and Proprietor Ross, of the Conway House, attached their trunks. Then they caused the arrest of Grant, claiming that he was about to leave town without paying them.

The alderman decided that if Grant would pay the $37.50 due Mr. Ross and $6.50 costs he would release him. The manager pleaded poverty, but when the alderman said he would have to furnish $1,000, one of the favored few, Faythall, came forward and advanced the required $55 and Grant was released.

Grant had been arrested earlier in the week on the charge of obtaining baggage from the Lacksawanna company under false pretenses.

THE DAMAGE DONE.

It was 8 o'clock before the flames smoldered down and by this time the Smith and Grass shops were each a mass of cinders, while the complete interior of the Jordan building was gutted. The brick office of Grass was untouched by the flames, but the contents of the Jordan building which were not saved were of little importance, but the Contracting and Improvement company suffered some loss in the barn furnishings, horses' feed, etc. Grass' shop employed eight men and seven girls and the firm expects to open again temporary headquarters.

POLICE AND ALDERMEN.

James Kerrigan and William Strump were arrested on Lacksawanna avenue on Saturday night for fighting. They were each fined $20 yesterday morning by Magistrate Howe.

Kate McCormick, who was arrested late Friday night on the charge of stealing a watch and $20 in money from a travelling man in a disorderly house on Raymond court, was committed to the county jail on Saturday in default of $500 bail.

Dannie Morgan and Evan Roberts, of Bellevue, who were arrested on Friday for assaulting Elmer Laska, of Archbald Heights, were given a hearing before Alderman Miller on Saturday and were each fined $25. They were unable to pay the fines, which were later remitted.

T. J. Knowles, proprietor of the Eagle hotel on 200 Penn avenue, was arrested on Saturday at the instance of Superintendent of Police Edgington, who claims that since April 1 he has been selling liquor without a license. He will be given a hearing before Police Magistrate Miller this morning.

Mrs. E. Fleisher, of Spruce street, was indicted before Alderman Bailey on Saturday on a charge of threats proffered by Charles Winter. Both parties live in the same building, one of the threats alleged to have been made by Mrs. Fleisher was that she would "burn the heat off."

The alderman took the matter under advisement.

Berta Watson was arrested on Saturday afternoon on a warrant secured last fall from Alderman John T. Howe by Mrs. C. A. Bull, who charges him with kidnapping a board bill. He had successfully eluded the constable until Saturday when he was found standing on Lacksawanna avenue. He was committed to the county jail in default of bail.

Mrs. Thomas Lewis, of Prichard, was given a hearing before Alderman Miller Saturday on a charge of cruelty proffered by her 15-year-old son, who claimed he had been obliged to seek shelter elsewhere on account of his mother's treatment. She had threatened to kill him and had clasped him with a butcher knife, the said Mrs. Lewis was held in $500 bail.

Three young men were each leaving the 210 case on Saturday night with a couple of boys under their arms. Patrolman Palmer was notified and arrested one of the trio in Ball road alley. He had two bottles of French cognac with him. He gave his name as Edward Block and said he resided at 609 Main street. He implicated two other young men, John Street, and...

EUGENE DORFLINGER KILLED.

Young Man Dorringer, for Thirty-seven Years the Stationer at the City Station, Was Instantly Killed on Saturday Afternoon by the L-34 Passenger Train.

He missed his footing and fell from the station platform directly under the train, just as it was being started. The coaches passed over his legs severing them both. Dorflinger was very well known in this city. A wife and several children survive him.

Announcements.

Tomorrow evening the members of the Young Women's Christian association will return the talents which they have been faithfully working. There will be a social evening at the rooms in which an ice cream sale will be a part of the evening's programme. Men as well as women are invited to attend this event.

Chief of the Weather Bureau Moore will lecture for the benefit of the Young Women's Christian association Tuesday evening, May 7, in the board of trade building. Chief Moore is a wonderfully good speaker and he will give one of the most interesting lectures ever heard in this city on matters which will interest all practical people.

JUNK DEALERS' HEAVY LOSSES

BELIEVE THE FIRE WAS OF INCENDIARY ORIGIN.

Grass and Smith Did Not Carry Any Insurance and They Place Their Joint Loss at Over Eleven Thousand Dollars—The Jordan Estate Suffered a Loss of $2,500 on the Building Adjoining the Junk Quarters—Fire Discovered Early Yesterday Morning.

Incendiarism is thought to have caused the destructive fire which broke out early yesterday morning at Penn avenue and Vine street and destroyed the junk shop of Alexander Grass and David Smith, and of Jacob Smith, and which also gutted the carriage repository of the Marwood Jordan estate. The damages were as follows:

| | |
|--|---------|
| Alexander's junk, including and stock | $1,000 |
| Jacob Smith's stock | 2,000 |
| David Brennan, building in which Smith was located | 250 |
| Jordan estate | 2,500 |

Grass carried not a cent of insurance on either building, and Smith, nor did Smith. Brennan's loss was entire, but the Jordan building carried $1,800 insurance. The blaze originated in a heap of rubbish near Smith's place and this was the first to catch the fire. Owing to the inflammable nature of the contents of any junk shop, most insurance companies refuse to take them as risks, and this accounts for the fact that neither Grass nor Smith had their losses at all covered.

Grass last night positively stated his belief that an incendiary had kindled the blaze, and numerous of the firemen who worked from 2 o'clock until 8 on the spot, held the same opinion, although the opinion is also ventured that a cigarette butt carelessly thrown into the yard might have ignited some rubbish.

The Municipal Contracting and Improvement company's horses and wagons were located in the Jordan building, but were all saved from the flames. A watchman for the Dickson Manufacturing company discovered the blaze shortly before 2 o'clock. A pile of rubbish was then burning fiercely just as the alarm was given. A hungry tongue of flame shot out and in an instant the corner of Smith's shop was wrapped in a blaze.

The watchman sounded an alarm from Box 16, at Penn avenue and Vine street, and this alarm was answered by the City Fire Department. Phoenix Chemical and Hook and Ladder companies, when the fire ladders arrived both Smith's place and Grass' establishment, at 438-440 Penn avenue, were on fire.

Grass' shop was a two-story wooden building 25x50 feet, and Smith's place one-story high and 25x25. Jordan's building was also adobe. The two junk shops were doomed from the first, the masses of rags, bones and rubbish burning like the proverbial tinder. The firemen bent their efforts on controlling the fire at the Jordan building, a large three-story frame structure. Had the blaze spread from there, a row of wooden buildings in the nearby court would have been doomed.

It was found necessary to send in a second alarm, and Smith's place was answered by the General Phinney Engine company, of Green Ridge, and the Centuries, of South Scranton.

THE DAMAGE DONE.

It was 8 o'clock before the flames smoldered down and by this time the Smith and Grass shops were each a mass of cinders, while the complete interior of the Jordan building was gutted. The brick office of Grass was untouched by the flames, but the contents of the Jordan building which were not saved were of little importance, but the Contracting and Improvement company suffered some loss in the barn furnishings, horses' feed, etc. Grass' shop employed eight men and seven girls and the firm expects to open again temporary headquarters.

BODY FOUND IN WOODS.

Nothing in the Clothing That Would Indicate Who the Man Is—Manner of Death Unknown.

The decomposed body of a man apparently of middle age, was found yesterday morning on the Moosic mountain, about two and one-half miles from Moosic in what is known as Covey's Swamp. The discovery was made by a man named Lubender, who was taking a walk in the vicinity. The body was reported to Coroner Roberts, who directed Undertaker James Walsh to remove the body to his place of business, where the coroner will hold an autopsy today, and if possible unravel the mystery. The body was found in a shallow ditch, although it may be determined who he is by the articles found on the body.

These consist of a watch, pipe and snuff box, the latter being formed from a dried lemon. The clothing and shoes consisted of a pair of trousers, but as far as could be learned yesterday no one is missing from Moosic. The flesh on the head and face has been eaten away, but a heavy black beard is discernible through the remaining features.

The body had evidently been at the place where it was found for some time, as a young son of Mr. Lubender noticed a man sitting at the same place a week ago last Saturday, and thought the man was sleeping and was afraid to disturb him.

The remains were viewed by many people yesterday, but up to a late hour last night no one had been able to identify them. There is no evidence of foul play, and the supposition is that the man died from exposure.

SOLICITOR WATSON'S ACT

If It Passes the Legislature, He Says, a New Assessment Can Be Made Next Year.

According to City Solicitor Watson the assessment recently made by the board of assessors will not have to remain in force for three years if the act which he drew up and which is on passage in the state legislature passes, and there is every reason to believe that it will.

The act gives the assessors in cities of the second class the power to use the assessment made before April 1 as "the basis for the year 1901," and also gives them power to revise, alter and classify it as they may see fit.

Mr. Watson holds that if this act becomes a law the words, "the basis for the year 1901," will preclude any possibility of the assessment holding good for three years, as City Clerk Laville feared it would. If the assessment, which is made on a one-third valuation did hold good for three years, the revenues of the city would be reduced by one-half next year when the city comes to collect a graduated tax levy as provided in the ripper bill, viz.: full rates on business property; two thirds rates on residence property and one-half rates on agricultural property.

Mr. Watson says that under this act the present assessment will only be good for one year and that for the fiscal year of 1902-1903, the assessors can make an entirely new assessment on a two-thirds or a full valuation, just as they choose. These students of municipal affairs who have given the matter any study hope that what he says is true, for if it is not the city will be in a pretty bad box a year from now.
