

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

FACTORYVILLE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Factoryville, April 29.—The eighty-second anniversary of Odd Fellowship in America was very fittingly celebrated last Friday night by Red Jacket Lodge, No. 521, at their hall. A large audience of the Fellows and their families and citizens assembled in such numbers that it completely filled the hall. An interesting and extensive programme was carried out and much enjoyed by the audience. A colored orchestra from Scranton, which comprised a whole concert in themselves, made up a conspicuous part of the programme. John T. Howe, also of Scranton, delivered the principal address, which was one of the finest ever heard in the hall. S. R. Lilly read a paper on the origin of the order, and the improvement and good it has done since the organization. Some of our very best local talent made up the remainder of the programme, as follows: Recitation, Miss May Rink; solo, Miss Bess Spencer; recitation, Mr. Snyman; recitation, Miss Anna Boyd; song, Misses Spencer and Watkins; recitation, Miss Beatrice Taylor; recitation, Miss Bess Spencer; recitation, Miss Eva Reynolds. R. H. Holgate, esq., was chairman of the entertainment.

Miss Jennie Wall has returned from an extended trip through the West. Christy Matthews (our own Christy) has done a New York uniform this season, and is playing great ball. Last Saturday he pitched the opening game on the Polo grounds against the heavy-hitting Brooklyn club. He pitched to four hits and easily won the game, making him the hero of New York for the time.

Miss Blanche Stark has returned home after a sojourn of two weeks with friends at East Lehigh. Union temperance societies were conducted at the First Baptist church last Sunday evening by Rev. J. N. Lee. The graduating exercises of the graded school will be held next Friday evening in the Methodist Episcopal church. All are cordially invited to attend. Those who will graduate this year are: Grace Belle Carpenter, Mabel Beardsley Lindler, Edna Lucia Reynolds, William John Miller, Paul Eugene Smith and Henry Daniel Matthews.

Rev. D. D. Harmon, pastor of the Baptist church at Leavenworth, has been in his resignation for the second time, and it has finally, though reluctantly, been accepted, to take effect May 28.

Mrs. Alfred Bissler leaves next Wednesday for Buffalo, where she will join her husband. They will reside in the above named city during the summer.

Mrs. J. C. Munger, of Mill City, is spending a few days here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brown, of Springville, spent last week and Thursday with friends at this place.

Tenors Artist Osterhout now has one of the finest shops that has ever been in the town.

Mrs. Frank Farron, of South Montrose, spent several days here last week with friends.

Master Wilbur J. Gilmore is now in the employ of F. M. Osterhout, and expects to learn all the ins and outs of the father's brush. Wilbur always was a handy fellow, and will make a big addition to the shop.

SUSQUEHANNA.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Susquehanna, April 29.—Between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning the Erie employes in the West Susquehanna yard discovered three or four men stealing brass from a box. The yard men pursued the thieves who dropped their plunder and fled. Car Sealer Joseph Maginnis, who was in the van of the men, drew his revolver and fired, and one of the thieves fell, shot in the wrist. His companions escaped. During the pursuit a man was taken to the lockup and given surgical attention. He is said to be one Sherman, or Schurmann, who conducts a junk shop on South street, Binghamton. He will be given a hearing to-day. During the pursuit a considerable brass and copper has been stolen from the railroad yards and the robberies have been credited to perambulating junk dealers from Binghamton and elsewhere.

Rev. Dr. Howard Taylor, of Binghamton, occupied the pulpit of the Oakland Congregational church on Sunday.

William Long, of Leavenworth, was on Saturday brought before Justice Will-town today. The commissioners are very anxious to get a tax collector for the town, but remarkable though it may seem, no one appears anxious for the job. Miss Agnes Collins will this week leave for New York, where she will make her home. She will be accompanied by Miss B. Connolly. The Anthracite Social club intend to get up an entertainment of some sort in the near future. It will probably take the form of an amateur theatrical performance. Several such ventures have been made here in the past and they were always quite successful. These seem to be abundant material, and the main thing needed is some one to select the cast and direct the staging of the play.

JAMES.

James, charged with stealing chickens from G. E. Dodge, of Leavenworth, in default of $200 bail he was taken to the county jail to await the action of the grand jury.

Rev. J. E. Williams, pastor of the Baptist church, is at Hallstead, attending the quarterly conference of the Bridgewater Baptist association. He will preach this evening.

William Ives will in a few days open a dancing school at the Van Alken building, Erie avenue.

Miss Blush, of Binghamton, held a social hop in Hogan Opera House this evening.

The "Alvin Joslin" company will appear in the Hogan Opera House on Friday evening.

E. R. Thompson is erecting a dwelling house on Westfield avenue, Oakland Side.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Millar have returned home from Calumet, Mich., where they spent the winter with their daughter.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Sophia Hill took place on Saturday afternoon from the residence of Charles Ghinnavan, West Main street, Rev. Edward E. Bell, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating. The remains were interred in McKim cemetery.

The Brushville Baptist church is gradually approaching completion.

MONTROSE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Montrose, April 29.—Yrorman Gardner, a student at Factoryville, spent Sunday at his home in this place.

S. Bruce Chase, of Hallstead, was professionally engaged here on Saturday.

The Odd Fellows of Montrose held their annual supper on Friday evening. Dr. C. C. Halsey was master of ceremonies. An elaborate menu was served by Caterer Hochkiss, after which an enjoyable musical and literary programme was presented. About eighty persons were gathered about the festival board.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Watrous are in New York city, where they will spend several days.

E. P. Pope, agent of the United States Express company, at this place, met with an accident on Friday which resulted in a severe shaking up and a badly swollen optic for Mr. Pope. He was attending to his duties at the L. & M. depot and had gone into the baggage car to dispose of some express goods, when the train started, and he was thrown from the car and was thrown with considerable force against a box car that was standing on a siding. He was considerably bruised and with a facial expression not unlike the late Dan Luttar. Mr. Pope is around and attending to business as usual.

A. W. Kent, of Brooklyn, was in town on Saturday.

Mrs. M. J. Hannas is visiting at the home of Jeremiah Stephens at Nicholson.

Editor and Mrs. James P. Taylor are visitors in Binghamton today.

Essexville, Wis., Duvel, of Little Meadows, is in town on business.

The base ball season will be opened in Montrose on Monday next with a game between the Great Bend team and our local nine. The Montrose team will hold a hop at Village Hall on the evening of the same date.

Rev. E. A. Warriner, rector of the St. Paul's church, and ex-Prothronary W. J. Baker left this morning on a fishing trip to Friendsville. Register and Recorder Bruce B. Buffum was at the same place Saturday and succeeded in landing several fine trout.

Mrs. John Doyle, sr., is seriously ill at her home on High street.

Will Cornell, of Tunkhannock, the young man who sustained terrible injuries to one of his feet in an accident on the Montrose branch of the Lehigh Valley at South Montrose on Saturday, was accompanied to the hospital at Sayre by Dr. John G. Wilson, of this place, who was summoned as soon as the accident occurred. Reports from Sayre are favorable and it is hoped to save the young man's foot from amputation.

Mrs. George Battles, an estimable colored lady, is ill with pneumonia at her home on the Shipman place, near the old Foster tannery.

FOREST CITY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Forest City, April 29.—The council will hold a special session on Wednesday evening to discuss the location of the proposed borough building, and the board of trade and other citizens are invited to be present. The borough owns a lot on Dundaff street which council contemplates using, but so much opposition to that site has appeared that it is possible the present lot will be sold and one on Main street be purchased.

On Friday night, in the Odd Fellows' hall, a lodge of the Daughters of Naomi will be instituted by the Grand officers of Scranton. There are thirty-five names on the charter list.

Frederick Straub, of Green Ridge, an old resident of this place, was in town Saturday.

The Forest City band will continue its fall on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 2 and 4.

Every one who could get hold of a rig yesterday enjoyed a ride into the country.

County Commissioner Tingley was in SPRINGVILLE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Springville, April 29.—Lathrop & West are enlarging their business by putting in showcases and having a stock of baked stuff on hand.

A. O. Hendershot went to Philadelphia last week to see his little son, Willie, who is in the hospital, being treated for deformity of the lower limbs. Mrs. Hendershot is there with him.

Miss Eva Woodhouse has been sick several weeks, and it is feared that it may be of a permanent character and prove disastrous.

Last week the Thomas mill was torn up for repairs. The boiler having become defective, the flues were removed and new ones put in.

John Underhill has procured a fine tree and is putting a new derrick in his quarry. The stone business has taken on a new tinge this year.

For one week only, beginning May 6, S. O. Culver will sell wallpaper and borders all at the same price by the roll. This is what has never been done here before, and all orders must be accompanied by the cash. Samples will be shown when requested. State price wanted.

Work on Stuart Riley's farmhouse has been pushed rapidly since the rains, and will soon be ready for its tenant. There are five men at work on it.

Over at I. A. Strickland's there are two cases of measles, which makes three in the family thus far, and they have all been good, healthy cases.

Mrs. Truman Pike has been very sick with measles. Sunday afternoon there was a hasty call for a doctor, and later in the day the report came that she was dying.

The band is talking about having an ever-glorious Fourth celebrated in a proper manner, and the matter will no doubt be decided Tuesday evening. Two years ago the band took the matter up, and the result was raising good time and some cash for the organization.

A number of the farmers over Strickland hill way who have been carrying their milk to a creamery the other way, are bringing it to the milk station here now. The price paid for it is a trifle under two cents per quart.

Don't forget the grand entertainment to be given by the Welsh Congregational church choir, of Dunmore, on Thursday evening at the Brick church.

A RELIABLE PILE CURE.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is the safest and surest Pile Cure on the market, because it contains no mineral poisons nor opium nor cocaine, but can be used with absolute safety and certainty of cure.

Pyramid Pile Cures are now using the operations, being painless, convenient to use, and the patient can attend to his daily occupation while the cure is being made, as it is used at night and no additional treatment is necessary.

Dr. Wharton says the Pyramid Pile Cure will cure hemorrhoids in ten to fifteen days, when it is remembered that heretofore a surgical operation was considered the only cure with all its attendant dangers, pain and expense of from ten to one hundred dollars, to say nothing of the possible return of the trouble. The Pyramid Pile Cure sold by druggists at 50 cents and $1.00 and does the work quickly and safely.

A book on cause and cure of piles will be mailed free by addressing Pyramid Cures, Marshall, Mich.

THEATRICAL.

ACADEMY—Charles R. Champlin company. Night.

Black Patti Troubadours. At the Lyceum last night a fair sized audience enjoyed an entertainment given by the Black Patti Troubadours. The feature of it was the singing of numbers from "Robin Hood," "Chimes of Normandy," "Mariana" and "Lullaby of Lullaby." The Black Patti had one solo, "The Holy City," which she sang in a splendid manner, revealing a voice of great range and power which has been carefully trained. The sextette from "Lullaby" sung by the Black Patti, Sarah Green and Messrs. Richardson, Cooke, Byrd and Lightfoot, was rendered in an excellent manner.

The entertainment opened with the fave, "A Dark Town Frolic," in which there was plenty of singing and dancing by the members of the company. They were followed by a quartette, a monologue by James White and selections by Simpson and Pittman, who play a variety of instruments. The performance concluded with the operatic numbers. The company is composed entirely of colored people.

A fair sized audience was at the Academy of Music last evening to witness the opening performance of Charles K. Champlin and his most excellent company, who will appear at
