OPPOSITION TO THE APPOR-TIONMENT.

Republicans of the First Legislative District Are Opposed to the Territory It Is Proposed to Incorporate Into the First District-Mrs. Raisback Feared That Her Daughter Had Been Kidnapped-Funeral of the Late John O'Hara-Other Matters of General Interest.

Thirteen Republicars of the First Legislative district held a meeting in the West Side Republican club rooms last evening, for the purpose of protesting against the reapportionment of the legislative districts.

After some informal talk on the subject, the meeting was called to order. and Dr. W. A. Paine, ex-chairman of the district committee, was selected as chairman, with Charles R. Acker as The other eleven present were: Hon, John R. Furr, Griffith T. Davis, James Leyshon, William E. Johns, Morgan Thomas, William A. Phillips, Rensaller W. Luce, William A. Browning, Charles E. Olver, Thomas P. Danlels and Thomas Ley-

Mr. Dayls moved that the assemblage go on record as being unalterably opposed to the proposed apportionment, and that they recommend that the district from the West Side composed of the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Fourteenth, Eifteenth, Eighteenth and Twenty-first wards.

Mr. Browning moved the adoption of the motion, and on a voice vote only Messes, Farr and Paine were heard in the affirmative. The negative votes were many, the majority of them coming from another part of the room, where several of the club members were playing cards.

A division was called for, and eleven votes were recorded for the motion. The nays were silent, and thus the was declared unanimously adopted. Morgan Thomas, William E. Johns and Griffith T. Davis were appointed as a committee to act in conjunction with the Republican club committee, W. Gaylord Thomas, Dr. W. A. Paine and James Levshon, to further the protest. Vice-President C. E. Daniels, of the Republican club, appeared at the rooms at 7.30 o'clock for the purpose of calling to order a "special meeting" of the club to take action on the matter. He had a typewritten document in his in-side pocket to show that the district would yet be Republican with the Twentieth ward attached, but when the promoters of the meeting had not put in an appearance at 7.48 o'clock, he declared the meeting adjourned. An hour later the meeting referred to above was held, with the result stated.

Thought Girl Was Kidnapped. Lena Raisback, a twelve-year-old girl, residing on Tenth street, left her home yesterday morning to go to school. She did not return home for dinner, and her mother became much alarmed, fearing that her daughter had been kidnapped.

She visited the school the girl attends, and learned that her daughter had not been there during the day, and this fact strengthened the anxious mother's fears regarding kidnapping. Then she reported the case to the police, and while the officers were making inquiries and trying to locate the girl, she returned home at 8.30 o'clock last evening. She had spent the day with her aunt in the Fourth

In Alderman Kelly's Court.

Dilly Daniels was committed to the county jail last night by Alderman John P. Kelly, on the charges of carrying concealed weapons and making threats, preferred by Michael Morrison. He was also accused of assauit and battery, but was discharged on that count. Both men live on Ninth street, and Morrison alleges that last evening Daniels struck at him with a razor and caused him to seek safety Alderman Kelly also committed to the county jail for thirty days Matty Hunchock, of Olyphant, whom Joseph Kwellock accused of slandering his wife. Yesterday the defendant is alleged to have called Kwellock's wife a ourderess and said she fled from the old country after slaying her mother. Hunchock was convicted under the act of asembly of 1865, but Attorney P. F. Loughran, who appeared for him, took exception to the ruling.

for some time has been visiting Alderman Otto D. Myers, left yesterday for Milwaukee, where he will attend the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen's convention as a delegate.

Last evening the North End Stars and the Minooka basket ball teams played a very fast game at the Auditorium. The game was exciting throughout. In the first half, Jones. McCluskey and Evans threw baskets for the Stars, while Evans, Davis and Owens threw for the visiting team. In the second half there were no bas kets thrown on either side. The game ended 8-6 in favor of the Stars.
