A VACANT JANITORSHIP.

The School Board's Meeting an Interesting One—Another Deadlock.

The regular meeting of the school board was held on Monday evening, all the members being present. John W. Jones, of South Church street applied for a position as janitor, and Miss Mary B. Connaughton, now at Bloomsburg Normal school, asked for a position as teacher. Both communications were placed on file.

A complaint was received from Mrs. Bird McMullen, stating that pupils from No. 2 school had done great damage around her property, breaking down a fence and doing other mischievous things, and when spoken to became very saucy. She requested the board to take some action. The building committee was instructed to report to the board what damage had been caused, and the misconduct of the pupils was referred to the superintendent and principal of the school, with instructions to provide an immediate remedy.

Tuition bills were ordered paid.

Bills were ordered paid:

William Schroeder, rating	$ 35
John Beeth, coal	80.85
Snead, Wells & Co.	18.52
C. K. Swing	1.30
Electric Light company	30.00
Consolidated Water company	41.91
John Hanson	7.35
John Wade	2.50
Bills Bros.	2.75
Baker Diamond Coal company	15.00
Total	$200.01

A bill of $15 from the Reynshanurst Water company was held up, as the company has not yet completed its contract. Mr. Moon, of the building committee, reported that he had had repairs made on the furnace in No. 8 school.

The janitors' committee reported unfavorably on Mr. Lee's demand for an increase in pay, and suggested that a new janitor be hired to take his place. Mr. Lee has been getting $40 a month. The report was received. A motion to give Mr. Lee $25 for extra work was adopted.

Treasurer Moon reported the receipt of $5,600, as follows: From Collector Watt, $4,000; Collector Clifford, $1,000; Collector, Seaman, $600.

A motion was made to raise A. Wilson Geary's salary to $65 per month. Mr. Geary gets but $55 per month. The motion was lost.

The superintendent complained that students had been let into the Central building before school hours by the assistant librarian.

The young man was present and proved to the board that he had nothing to do with letting the boys in. A resolution was passed, however, forbidding students to enter the building outside of school hours, under penalty of suspension.

The following teachers, made application for the board's endorsement for master certificates: Margaret McAndrew, Elizabeth Thompson, Helen Passmore, Ella Horan, Mary Murphy, Sarah Swigert and Wilson Geary. The officers of the board were instructed to furnish the recommendations.

The High school faculty, through Principal Eryden, asked for the use of the High school assembly room on the evening of Memorial day for the purpose of holding an entertainment, the proceeds of which are to go to the High school piano fund and the Grand Army of the Republic post.

Superintendent Garr's monthly report was read and ordered placed on file.

Application for the position of janitor of the central building were received from A. L. VanGorder and W. H. Evans. The former offered to do the entire work—that of Mr. Lee and his assistant—for $60 per month. Mr. Evans proposed to do the entire work for $58 per month.

Chairman Heckenberry stated that as the woman assistant's time does not run out till June they could not vacate her position at this time, and suggested the hiring of a janitor to temporarily fill Mr. Lee's place till then.

Moon nominated Thomas Theophilus for the place at $40 per month.

The roll was called and Moon, Hughes and Gallagher voted for Theophilus and Heckenberry, Swigert and Kerwin for Evans. It was declared a tie.

The secretary was then instructed to secure a temporary janitor.

Delinquent Tax Collector Seaman's exoneration list was then taken up. The board allowed $103, making a total of about $1,900.

MR. OUTRAM'S FUNERAL.

MRS. BLACKMORE ONCE MORE.

She Figures as a Complainant and Then Is Arrested.

Everyone in Carbondale has heard of the troubles between George Washington Smith and his periodical housekeeper, Mrs. Elizabeth Blackmore. They have been aired in all the local aldermen's courts, the county courts and in every newspaper in this section, but they will not stay settled. Last night there was another outbreak, which ended in a curious manner.

Last Saturday night there was a riot and a big one at Smith's house, on Greenfield road. It started after midnight and from what could be picked out from several conflicting stories, the woman was the cause of it all. Mrs. Blackmore and a young man from Jermyn started in to see how quickly they could rid the house of George Washington and his son, Ellsworth, by creating a rumpus. The father is a sickly old fellow and was so frightened that he ran down to Alderman Atkinson's office at 3 o'clock on Sunday morning, got the alderman out of bed, and he and his son charged Mrs. B. with assault and battery, threatening to kill, malicious mischief and a miscellaneous lot of other things. Constable Moran was sent up to the house to eject the disturbers and arrest them, but they had fled.

On Monday and yesterday the constable did not have a chance to serve the warrants, because he was testifying before the grand jury in Scranton. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Blackmore went before Alderman Jones and swore out a warrant for the two Smiths, on a charge of assault and battery and threats. The hearing came off at 8.30 last night. It was a hearing, sure enough, for Mrs. Blackmore poured out such a string of vehement denunciations that everyone within a wide radius was compelled to listen. It was hard work to check the volley of lurid word missiles that she hurled at the younger Smith, (the older one was too ill to appear.) While she was at the height of her harangue, Constable Moran glided in and sank quietly into a seat in the rear of the court. Smith pleaded not guilty and Elizabeth grew dramatic as she told of the dire things that were going to happen to him and what would be his ultimate fate. Her gestures and voice and expressive vocabulary would certainly out-Carrie Carrie Nation. The alderman finally told Smith he would have to hold him in bail, although it appeared to an unprejudiced eye that he was in much more danger of assault and battery than the woman.

Then Mrs. Blackmore left the room, closely followed by the constable, whom she had not perceived. She got outside in the street, when he stepped up to her, produced his warrant and stopped her further progress. Without a bit of resistance, other than a yet more vigorous assault upon the English language than she had given vent to previously, Mrs. Blackmore submitted to her arrest and was led once more to the city's stronghold, which is a familiar stopping place for her.

This is about the tenth time in about three years that this trio have sought the aid of the courts to straighten out their difficulties. Two years ago Alderman Jones committed her daughter to the House of the Good Shepherd, to shield her from harm. The hearing in this case will be before Alderman Atkinson this afternoon.

OBITUARY.

Millie Louise Church.

Mrs. Millie Louise Church, wife of Maurice T. Church, of this city, died yesterday at 12 o'clock noon at the residence of her sister, Mrs. William J. Morgan, at 1306 Washburn street, Scranton, after an illness extending over several months. The cause of death was a complication of diseases.

Mrs. Church was a native of this city, having been born here on December 9, 1867. She was a daughter of John C. Elmer, who has been with the Van Bergen company for half a century. In June of 1889 she was married to Maurice T. Church, of this city. She was an active member of the First Presbyterian church and Sunday school, and before her marriage was assistant organist of the church and a member of the choir.

She went to visit her sister, Mrs. Morgan, in Scranton, about two months ago and was taken seriously ill there and had been compelled to remain. She had been failing steadily. On Sunday morning last her husband went to Scranton to visit her and she had improved so much during the day that he was greatly encouraged when he left her in the evening to return here. About 8 o'clock he received a telephone message that she had become very ill again. It being too late to get a train to Scranton, he got a carriage and drove down. He remained with her until the end. She was unconscious when she passed away. She is survived by her father and one sister, Mrs. W. J. Morgan.

The remains will be brought to this city today on the 10.30 a. m. train from Scranton. The funeral will be held on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. Charles Lee delivering a funeral sermon. The interment will be made at Maplewood.

Saw Viola Allen.

A large number of people from this city, undeterred by the exorbitant price of seats, journeyed to Scranton last evening to see Viola Allen and her company play "In the Palace of the King" at the Lyceum theater. Among those who went were: Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Manville, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Hiller, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Colville, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Van Bergen, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. May, C. P. Connors, Mrs. S. Singer, Mrs. Joseph Burr, Miss Minnie Bowen, V. C. Manners, Mrs. H. C. Wheeler and Newell Van Bergen.

HAS BROUGHT SUIT.

Mrs. David Wilson Asks $25,000 from Van Bergen & Co. for Husband's Death.

Mrs. Louisa Wilson, widow of David Wilson, who was killed by the explosion of a boiler at the foundry of Van Bergen & Co., limited, on the morning of Sunday, November 18, 1900, has brought suit against the corporation to recover damages in the sum of $25,000 for her husband's death. She has retained Edward C. Newcomb, of Scranton, as her attorney and the papers were filed in Prothonotary Copeland's office on Monday of this week.

Mrs. Wilson was interviewed yesterday afternoon by a Tribune reporter. She would not talk for publication at first, but referred the reporter to her attorney. She finally said that she would not have brought the suit unless she had been certain of winning it; that a number of experts had examined the boiler soon after the explosion and had found it very defective and incapable of standing a strain. Furthermore, the staybolts of the boiler were rusted and corroded to such an extent that some of them were broken and others greatly weakened.

Charles O. Mellen, manager of the Van Bergen company, was also interviewed. He expressed surprise that the suit had actually been brought, although he admitted that he had been told it was contemplated. He did not care to state what steps the company would take, but said that it had retained Willard, Warren & Knapp, of Scranton, to look after its interests in the matter. He said that the company had paid all of the funeral expenses of Mr. Wilson.

It will be recalled that at the coroner's inquest that a number of persons testified that the boiler was in good shape, so far as they could ascertain; that Mr. Wilson had himself cleaned it a short time previous to the explosion; that he did not report any structural weakness in it; that there was only a few pounds of steam on, owing to its being Sunday; that in spite of the coroner's efforts no one could be found to testify to any flaw in the boiler, and that the jury returned a verdict exonerating the company from blame.

The case will be watched with much interest in its future developments.

Died in the West.

Michael Walsh, of Pike street, received a telegram on Monday evening announcing the death that morning of his brother, Martin F. Walsh, of Park City, Utah. The particulars are now unknown.

The deceased was a native of this city, having been borne here fifty years ago. About a score of years ago he went west and spent many years prospecting in Colorado, Nevada, Wyoming and Utah. He was also in the cattle business, but of late years had been a merchant in Park City. He had been quite successful and is believed to have had considerable property. He was unmarried and Mr. Walsh is his only surviving relative. Burial will be made today in Park City.

A UNITED STATES MARSHAL

Thanks Peruna for His Rapid Recovery from Catarrh.

EX-UNITED STATES MARSHAL MATTHEWS, OF MISSISSIPPI.

Hon. S. S. Matthews, ex-United States Marshal of Mississippi, in a recent letter to the Peruna Medicine Company of Columbus, Ohio, written from Hazelhurst, Miss., says:

"I am happy to say that I am cured of catarrh and need no more attention from you. It is a great satisfaction that I am able to write you that Peruna has in my case done all that you claim, and that I will need no more medicine."

The great multitude take this remedy without any further advice than the direction to be found upon the bottle and in the pamphlets. There are those who prefer, however, to correspond with Dr. Hartman during their sickness. To all such he will make prompt and careful answer without charge.

Hon. J. F. Crooker, of Buffalo, N. Y., who was for years superintendent of schools at Buffalo, in a letter dated October 16, writes:

"I have been a sufferer from catarrh six or seven years, and after trying many remedies was induced by a friend to take Peruna. The results have been highly satisfactory. I take pleasure in recommending Peruna to any one suffering with catarrh, as my cure is complete."

Hon. J. F. Crooker, Sup't. Buffalo, N. Y. Public Schools

Hon. B. B. Dovener, congressman from West Virginia, in a letter from Washington, D. C., to the Peruna Medicine Co., says the following of their catarrh remedy, Peruna:

"I join with my colleagues in the House of Representatives in recommending your excellent remedy, Peruna, as a good tonic and also an effective cure for cartarrh."

Mrs. Mary C. Fentress writes from Paradise, Tex., the following: "I think I can say that your good advice and medicine has cured me of chronic catarrh. I have had no pains in my head since I have taken Peruna. I have been in bad health ever since '59, and have taken a good many medicines which were only of temporary relief. Peruna is the catarrh cure. The Peruna stopped my catarrh of the head so that it did not become chronic, and I am very thankful to Dr. Hartman's advice and medicine."

Peruna is a specific for all catarrhal diseases. It acts quickly and beneficially upon the inflamed mucous membrane, thus removing the cause of catarrh.

Catarrh is catarrh wherever located. Catarrh is essentially the same everywhere. The remedy that will cure catarrh in one situation will cure it in all situations.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.
