NO NEW TRIAL FOR C. S. FAATZ. JUDGE EDWARDS DECIDES THE CONVICTION MUST STAND. Reserved Law Point on Which the Case Hinged Is Interestingly Treated in the Opinion by the President Judge—A $25,000 Suit Brought Against the Barber Asphalt Paving Company by Miss Sarah Mason—Grand Jury Hears Taylor Annexation Case.

President Judge Edwards yesterday handed down an opinion refusing a new trial in the case of C. S. Faatz, who was found guilty at the last term of court of illegally practicing dentistry. The opinion reads as follows: We instructed the jury that under all the testimony, especially that of the defendant, they could render no other verdict than guilty. The defendant admitted on the stand that he was practicing dentistry in the period of his conviction without a diploma from any college or other institution that he had no license from the state board examiners and that he was not a member of any dental association.

NEW CONSTITUTION.—The sub-committee of the executive committee of the High School Alumni association, in the task of forming a new constitution and by-laws, met yesterday afternoon in the office of Vice President C. E. Daniels and prepared its report. The report will be submitted for the ratification of the executive committee at a future meeting.

CLOSING THE SCHOOLS.—It is probable that the closing of the schools will not be held on Friday, June 28. The date has not yet been fixed by the board, but June 28 is the one that seems to have favor with the board. It is not possible to close much earlier than that date and in the 90 days which are required by the rules of the board on account of the late date on which the schools opened in September.

R. R. V. M. C. A. ANNIVERSARY.—The committee of management of the Railroad department of the Young Men's Christian association have issued invitations for their twentieth anniversary picnic, which will be held at the building on Lackawanna avenue, tomorrow evening, commencing at 8 o'clock.

HUCKSTER ASSAULTED.—A huckster named Osterhout, who is a familiar character on Lackawanna avenue, came to grief yesterday by making himself too familiar with a pedestrian. "Oster" as he is familiarly known, approached the stranger and endeavored to force his wares on the man, and when the latter refused to buy, the huckster struck him. Instantly the stranger dealt "oster" a blow that knocked him off his feet, and with his foot sent the huckster's interloper and oranges into the street. Spectators interfered at this point and saved "oster" from further punishment.
