

WEST SCRANTON

NEW QUARTERS THROWN OPEN

MANY CALLED AT THE Y. W. C. A. ROOMS.

Inclement Weather, However, Interfered to Some Extent with the Success of the Affair—Reception Tendered to Rev. H. C. McDermott, the New Pastor of the Simpson M. E. Church—Funerals of Mrs. Bridget Noble, Oscar Price and George Schrupf—Other Notes.

An informal reception was held last evening at the new quarters of the Young Women's Christian association, corner of South Main avenue and Washburn street, which was attended by quite a number of people, but the inclement weather undoubtedly kept many away.

The association is now comfortably quartered in rooms more suitably adapted to its needs and the reception last evening was in the nature of a house-warming. The executive committee received the visitors, welcomed them to the rooms and served coffee, cream and lemonade.

Rev. McDermott Well Received. Despite the miserable weather last evening, there was a large representation of the Simpson church people out to meet and greet their new pastor, Rev. H. C. McDermott, and his family.

Women Were Frightened. Patrolman Thomas Evans gives a different version of the alleged hold-up through which Mail Carrier Moser and friends were reported to have passed recently. He says that their party of six were coming along Main avenue, near Birch street, when he passed three young men, who make some insulting remarks, which Moser resented.

Analysis Revealed Nothing. The analysis of the contents of the late Michael Friel's stomach has been completed, and it is clear that the man was not poisoned.

Fire Companies' Meetings. The Franklin Engine company held a meeting Thursday evening and decided to sell anything in their quarters desired by the city.

The Hook and Ladder company met last evening, but nothing was done, as the company has not yet received official notification of disbandment.

Three Funerals Yesterday. The funeral of the late Mrs. Bridget Noble occurred yesterday morning from the home of the deceased's daughter, Mrs. Cooper, 514 North Main avenue.

Rev. C. M. Giffin, of Elm Park church, conducted the funeral services yesterday afternoon over the remains of the late Oscar Price, who died from injuries received in the Lackawanna quarry.

The funeral of George, the young son of Mrs. Catherine Schrupf, of Fellows street, occurred at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

The L. W. H. circle of the Hampton Street Methodist Episcopal church will conduct an entertainment on Thursday evening, May 16, under the direction of Mrs. Randolph Jones.

For some time workmen have been engaged in renovating the undertaking establishment of William Price & Son on South Main avenue, and now the interior presents a greatly improved appearance.

Class No. 11, taught by Miss Mary Kaucher, of St. Mark's Lutheran Sunday school, will conduct an ice cream social in the basement of the church on Wednesday evening.

Miss Essner Rowlands, of the South Side branch, will conduct the weekly gospel meeting this evening at the Y. W. C. A. rooms, corner of South Main avenue and Washburn street.

The regular church services will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church, Sunday morning service at 10:30; evening service at 7:30.

OBITUARY.

MRS. ISAAC S. JONES—Mrs. Isaac S. Jones, of Hill street, North Scranton, who died at the family residence Thursday evening at 9:25, was born at Llysfaun, Carmarvonshire, North Wales, on May 25, 1829. She came to this country when eighteen years of age and has resided here ever since.

For some time her health has not been good and last August she returned to the land of her birth, hoping the change would bring an improvement in her condition. She was a woman who possessed many splendid traits of character and was much admired by all who knew her. She was one of the most active members of the Primitive Congregational church of West Market street. Surviving her only husband and the remaining children, William, David, John, Mary, Ubbin, Harry and Edna, two brothers, Thomas Foulkes, of this city, and Peter Foulkes of Little Rock, Arkansas, and two sisters in Wales also survive her. The funeral services will be held in the Puritan Congregational church, West Market street, at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The interment will be made in the cemetery of the pastor, Rev. R. J. Reese.

OBITUARY.

PATRICK GILLEVAN—After a long illness, due to a general breaking down of the system, Patrick Gillevan died yesterday morning at his home on 25th Washington avenue. He had been a resident of this city for thirty-five years and was held in high esteem by all who knew him. He is survived by a wife and the following children: Mrs. John McLean, of Bridgeport, Conn.; Mrs. John Grogan, William T. John E. Joseph and Peter Gillevan.

OBITUARY.

EDITH MEREDITH—Edith, the 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Meredith, of 125 North Broadway avenue, died early yesterday morning from a protracted illness. The funeral services will be conducted at the home to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Washburn street cemetery.

OBITUARY.

The funeral of the late Thomas Mahon will be held from the residence on Anthony street this morning at 9 o'clock. A religious mass will be celebrated at St. Peter's cathedral and interment will be made in Dunmore cemetery.

OBITUARY.

The funeral of the late William Hay will take place from his home, 413 Linden street, at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Interment in the Dunmore cemetery.

The funeral of William Morrison will be held on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence in Minooka. Interment in Minooka Catholic cemetery.

GREAT BRITAIN'S CENSUS.

Great Britain is now taking her census, which is expected to show a total population in England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales of 42,000,000. This expectation is based upon the average decennial rate of increase shown during the last half of the century. The figures contrasting the population of these divisions of the empire a century ago and as estimated today is interesting:

England (including Wales)	20,000,000
Ireland (including Wales)	5,500,000
Scotland (including Wales)	3,500,000
Wales (including Wales)	1,000,000
Total	30,000,000

Most remarkable showing of all—if one accepts the decline of Irish population as the gain of England, that city in the world in size and financial power. At the beginning of the Nineteenth century the imperial city had a population of 600,000. A century mass will be celebrated at the beginning of the twentieth century. The population of London, roughly speaking, doubles itself every four decades. In 1801, out of every
