EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF MINE WORKERS IN SESSION.

The Answer of the Companies to the Grievances Presented by the Men Was Considered-May Join in the March on Harrisburg-Union of Servant Girls Was Delayed Because of the Absence from the City of "Mother" Jones-Another Silk Mill to Resume.

A meeting of the board of District No. 1, United Mine Workers of America, was held at local headquarters Saturday and will be continued this morning, 'Pre sessions was presided over by President T. D. Nicholls and those present were: Adam Ryscavitch, vice-president: J. T. Dempsey, secretury, and board members, N. R. Courtright, Henry Collins, of Carbondale; J. P. Kearney, of Archbald; Thomas Liewellyn, of Avoca; John Faller, of Wilkes-Barre, and Anthony Slosher, of

A large amount of minor business came up for action and the matter of marching to Harrisburg in a body to solicit the passage of the mining legislation now in the senate was discussed. Secretary Dempsey yesterday said that if necessary the men of No. 1 will take a two weeks' vacation and, marching down to Harrisburg, join forces with the men of No. 9 in advocating these important bills.

the answers of the superintendents of the coal carrying roads to the grievance committees which recently waited up them and presented local mat ters for adjustment did not come be fore Saturday's meeting. Action will. Lowever, be taken upon them today,

The Case of Morgans.

Samuel Morgans, ex-President of the Mt. Pleasant local of the United Mine Workers of America, who caused such a stir in the union by preferring charges against certain officers, and who was later suspended from the order at the Hazleton convention and then dropped from the Mt. Pleasant beal, has been compelled to give up his place in the Mt. Pleasant mines. A few days ago Morgans says he was notified by Inside Foreman William Hailstone that unless he made peace with the union he would have to ouit the mines. He then received a notice, he declares, to call at the mine workers' hearquarters and apolegize to those whom he had offended. if he wished to be reinstated, but this he refused to do, Morgans says his friends in the Mt Pleasant wanted to strike when they learned of the action against him, but he prevailed upon them to remain at work, as there was little chance for him being taken care of, with the company and the union against him. The mines has been idle since Thursday, and will resume operations this morning It is not likely that any trouble will occur, as Morgans has stated that he will leave the city if cannot get employment here.

He asserts that he will not identify himself with the union again, neither will be retract the charges made against the officers of the union.

Was Favorably Considered

At the last meeting of the Master Plumbers' association the request of the journeymen plumbers for an eighthour day was favorably considered and it is likely an agreement putting it into effect June 1, will be signed this week. The journeymen, it is understood will be asked, in consideration of being granted the eight-hour day, that they will sign an agreement to work for none but members of the Master Plumbers' association. As three of the largest firms in the city recently withdrew from the Master Plumbers' assoclation, there is considerable speculation as to whether or not the employes of these three firms will join the other journeymen in such an agreement.

THERE ARE MANY ROADS.

The Finger Posts Marking the Many By-paths of Present Day Troubles Seem to Point the Same Way. Lack of Nerve Force.

Day by day the columns of this paper bring new evidence from Seranton people of the great work being done by Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. Why they accomplish so much is easily explained-they are prepared with an eye single to restoring nerve force. They accomplish this object, which no other medicine in the world has ever been able to do: that's why hundreds of Scranton people offer their testimony. Mr. Samuel Rogers, of No. 128 Hyde Park avenue, Scranton, Pa., says: "I was in a run-down condition, headaches, nervous and sleeping badly and the appetite poor. I was told of Dr. A. W. The girls received the same wages there before the strike that they now receive at the Sauquoit and other mills, under the advance. The only minor concession granted them is the furnishing of ice water during the summer months.

Meeting Was Postponed.

The meeting of the Domestics' union of this city, which was to have been held yesterday afternoon, was postponed on account of the absence from the city of "Mother" Mary Jones. The latter addressed a miners' mass meeting at Edgerton Saturday night and yesterday afternoon spoke at an assemblage of miners and bootblacks in

The gang of formidable urchins who terrorize that section of the city were in plentiful evidence and during the game confiscated five balls batted over the near fence. After the disappearance of the last of the horse-hides spectators and players had to wait while a youth was sent to the central city on his wheel for a new ball. Another rather unique feature was the fact that a number of high-spirited youths who climbed onto the roof of the grandstand fell through it during the game. The match was innings, the score being 13 to 2. The ine-up follows:

NEW ISSUE OF STAMPS.

Changes Necessitated by Reduction of Revenue Tax on Tobacco.

In last week's issue of the treasury decisions. Acting Commissioner of Inernal Revenue Robert Williams, jr., called attention to the charges in taxation of cigars and cigarettes. Section of the Act of March 2, 1901, reduces and fixes the tax on these articles and renders it necessary to issue and use new stamps after July 1.

Cigar and small eigarette stamps of the new issue will be forwarded internal revenue collectors before that date and they will return the stamps of the present issue in their possession and receive credit for same. Manufacturers through the election of Quartermaster having such stamps unused may have them redeemed.

VICE PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT HAS ACCEPTED.

Will Attend the Big Ball with Which the New Armory Will Be Formally Opened-Work of Inspecting the Companies of the Thirteenth Has Begun-Rifle Practice Season Is to Open May 15. Rangemaster L. S. Carter Has Been Getting the Targets in Shape.

Vice-President Theodore Roosevelt will honor this city with his presence on the night of the armory ball; that is, he has promised the committee who waited upon him Saturday that he will ome "if other demands upon his time do not interfere."

The members of the committee. which comprised Congressman William Connell, Colonel L. A. Watres, Major Everett Warren and former City Solicitor James H. Torrey, waited upon the vice-president in New York city on Saturday and that their interview was satisfactory can be judged from pective leaders of the team. the following telegram received by Captain D. B. Atherton.

Captain Dolph B. Atherton: The invitation committee had a very pleasur and satisfactory conference with Vice President Rossevelt, and were assured by him that the project had his hearty sympathy, and he would certainly attend the opening of the armory if other demands upon his time did not interfere.

The exact date for the ball will now be fixed. Some day during the first week in June will be, undoubtedly,

That armory ball is going to be great affair. Just now it looks as it great pressure will be brought to bear upon Adjutant Atherton to induce him to lead the grand march. An adjutant's war paint and feathers exceed all the war paint and features of all the other braves in the wigwam. Who the happy lady is who will be invited to walk at the head of the procession is as yet a painful uncertainty. Bauer's band and Alexander's Ninth Regiment band will provide the music. There will be the most elaborate decorations ever seen in this region. There will also be boxes and loges galore, a part of them eserved for the dancers and others for distinguished guests and subscrib ers. Words fail to tell of the proposed glories of the ball and there remains to say that if Teddy is as bright as we Only a Little While to Wait for think he is, he won't miss this opportunity to be in Scranton.

There is not a little discussion among the commissioned staff these days over the matter of the apparel in which they easy for the Wilkes-Barreans in six will appear at the regimental bill. It was at first intended that the gorgeous full dress uniform be worn, but some of the officers are beginning to rebel at the idea of the expense. When all is said and done, no gold lace bedecked, heavily epauletted military costume can be preferred to the simple elegance of the commissioned officer's dark black braided uniform.

> Major W. S. Millar, assistant adjuteenth Thursday night at Honesdale. He was accompanied in his examinaion of Company C by captains Frank Vandling and D. B. Atherton, Friday was inspected and found to be in first class condition. Captain Atherton was unable to be present, as he stayed in this city to attend the meeting of the executive committee in charge of the opening of the new armery.

The official inspection order for the local companies has not been yet issued, as it depends entirely upon the date fixed for the opening of the armory. It is proposed to have the first inspection June 10.

A vacancy now exists on Colonel L. A. Watres' non-commissioned stati, Sergeant W. S. Gould to the first lieutenancy of Company K. There are place and much speculation is on among the guardsmen as to who will secure the position, Corporal Robert Kiple, of Company F. Sergeant Charles Adams, quartermaster of D, would be an excellent man for the position, but has declared that he is not a candidate. The most evailable of those after the position will be appointed by the colonel on ecommendation of the quartermester, Captain Frank Vandling.

Colonel Watres' efficial order dealing with the Thirteenth regiment's rifle practice, which opens May 15, is now in the hands of the printers, and among officers and men. Various matters of the utmost importance are discussed at length in this order and it s considered of the utmost importance that each man in the regiment be enabled to study the order printed.

Rengemaster L. S. Carter has set up the targets at the range at Dickson City, and everything is being put into readiness for rifle practice, which begins on May 15. There is a hot contest for the captaincy of the rifle team, which is now open, owing to the resignation from the regiment of Captain Fremont Stokes, Captain Merriman of Company F, and Lieutenant W. Thursday afternoon. They were shown samples of carpet and selected the particular kind to be used in their company rooms. It is expected that the carpets will be laid next week.

Only one vacancy now exists among the commissioned officers of the Thirteenth regiment, every company but H having its full complement of capain and lieutenants. First Lieutenant Finn, of H, submitted his resignation to Captain Huff during the week, stating that he was unable to give the necessary time to his military duties, There are a number of candidates for his position.

AND NOW THE CIRCUS.

Ringling Bros.' Big Arenic Show. The rapid approach of circus day has iroused renewed interest in the coming of Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Shows to Scranton tomorrow, Tuesday, May 14, Ringling day, and verything points a record-breaking engagement. No one who thoroughly enjoys a first class circus performance can afford to miss the show, for t is not only the biggest combined ircus, menagerie and hippodrome in the world, but it is also the best exponent of the high-class, high-toned arenic entertainment ever organized in America. Circus day will open with an entirely new and gorgeous free tant general, and formerly brigade in- street parade. Ringling Brothers have spector, began his inspections of the always been noted for the magnificence at of the city companies of the Thir. of their public displays, but this year's processional splendors dwarf all previous efforts into comparative insignificance. The idea, inaugurated by Ringling Brothers, of dividing the panight Major Millar and Captain Vand. I rade into sections, has been adhered ing were in Easton, where Company to, but the scheme has been elaborated upon a most complete and com prehensive scale. There are thirty sections or divisions, each of which is complete in itself, and yet so beautifully and eleverly blended with the other sections as to form a continuous two-mile line of ever-changing color and brilliancy. Instead of the cages and dens being painted in one conventional way, each division has its scheme of color, and the effect is both novel and brilliantly dazzling. Ringling Brothers' street display is not merely a parade. It is a free carnival. with the classic pageantry of ancient Rome, the prismatic coloring of a Venetian festival and the merry masqueraderic of a Mardi Gras harmoniously combined. The parade takes place at 10 a, m. The initial performance begins at 2 o'clock. The doors will be open an hour earlier and every opportunity will be given visitors to examine the magnificent collection of Brothers' great exhibition is famous For those who enjoy high class music a programme of popular and classic numbers is presented by Ganweiler's military band prior to the opening of the show. The performance is given in three rings, on two stages, in midair and upon an especially constructed quarter-mile hippodrome track, and engages the services of three hundred riders, acrobats, gymnasts, aerialists and other high salaried specialists. Among the great arenic stars are Amelia Feeley, the greatest lady rider the world has produced; the Garcinetti troupe of acrobats, from Italy; the Holloway trio of high-wire acroopies of it will soon be distributed bats; the French Family DaComa, acrobats and aerialists; the Flying Fishers, the grotesque Marvelles; Mme Noble, the greatest of all menage riders; Albert Crandall, who presents a burlesque riding act upon the back of a mule, and an army of others, One thousand copies are being Ringling Brothers' latest trained animal sensation, twenty elephants performing together at one time in one ring, under the direction of one man the Lockhart comedy elephants, and O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act have created a sensation wherever they have been seen. He has a very extensive acquaintance in Northeastern Pennsylvania. and also throughout the other portions of the new district, particularly among the lawyers and politicians. Since his coming to Scranton his office in the Federal huilding has been visited daily by scores of friends, who came to bld him welcome back to Scranton and congratulate him upon his appoint-Mr. Searle is a man of many exemplary parts and has as one of his chief characteristics the rare ability of being pleasant and affable even when up to his ears in work. He seems to be happiest when doing a favor and to never have more than he wants of that self same happiness. There never was any question as to his competency and when he comes to be known it will also be unquestioned that Judge the Pittsburg office for two years, but when he found he had fully regained his health he took up a share of the ins'de work and ever since has been dividing his time between the two. In this way he thoroughly acquainted himself with all the details of the position and now finds himself well prepared to undertake the conduct of a separate office, such as is the one new established in Scranton. Mr. Snyder was a leader in Potter county polities and one of the first lieutenants of the stalwart Republicans in the western part of the state. He was chairman of the county committee in 1895, a state committeeman in 1896 and a delegate to the state convention in that same year. He is a married man and is casting about for a residence for himself and family, which consists of a wife and two daughters. The mine workers of District No. have been fortunate in their choice of a leader, as in Thomas D. Nicholls they have a model executive officer. During the trying crisis of last fall's big strike President Nicholls proved himself all that was to be desired, tise which have since arisen he has likewise shown himself cool and calm in council and strong and determined

trict, all of whom swear by "Tommy" Nicholls, and it will take a strong opposing candidate to displace him from the position which he has filled with such efficiency. No illustration can better describe Elbert Hubbard's relations with the people in the Roycroft shop and with the community than the fact that everybody calls him "John" and how he received the name. Mr. Hubbard is the distinguished gentleman who talked in the Bicycle club house last week

Now Mr. Hubbard does not look like a man named John. There is nothing John-like in his whole composition. He looks like Elbert or Ethelbert, or Angostura or Hildebrand, or some medieval personage with a name titted to the age. One day a distinguished personage drove up to the Royeroft printing shop and hastily springing out of his carriage called to a man near the fence who was working in a field with a group of men and boys: "Here, John, come hold my borse." Then with dignity the gentleman went to the entrance and asked for Mr. Hubbard. "Why, he's out there holding your horse," replied the person addressed. The incident so amused and delighted the employes, that "John" Mr. Hubbard has been ever since to workien, girls and, in fact, the entire population of East Aurora. It is significant of the love and honor in which the man is held who has made of the plain country folk craftsmen and craftswomen with the wonder All and apparently miraculous gifts which were bestowed on those immured in the old
