The members of Robert Morris and Dewi Sant lodges of favorites tendered an informal reception last evening to the visiting delegates and officers in attendance at the grand lodge sessions of favorites which has been in session at Taylor's for several days. The visitors were entertained in favorite hall on South Main avenue, where the local members of the order, together with their visitors, bade gathered.

The social session was presided over by David Owens, president of Robert Morris Lodge, who made a capital impression. The opening number on the program was a selection by the William Connell Glee Club, after which Attorney John R. Edwards made the address or welcome on behalf of the Robert Morris Lodge.

David J. Davis sang a solo and William G. Williams, pianist of Dewi Sant Lodge extended the visitors a cordial welcome on behalf of the Welsh Lodge. The glee party again sang, and Chairman Owens then introduced Humphrey Owen, of Vermont, late worthy and president of the grand lodge.

John O. Thomas, of Utica, N. Y., the newly elected president of the Grand Lodge, extended the thanks of the national body for the reception tendered the visitors, and extended an invitation to the elect officials to participate in the First Annual meeting, to be held in Utica next fall.

In closing his remarks he quoted "That's Not the Man for Me," showing much ability along that line.

and guests were afterwards entertained at a luncheon and smoker.

And other working women know what it is to have work that must be done at once and yet cannot be done without great physical suffering. There are times when a woman's condition is such that every pressure of the foot on the treadle of the sewing machine means sharp suffering. The typewriter, too, must keep at her post even when the keys of the machine blur into a confused blotch of black and white before her aching eyes, and every touch of her fingertips jars her nerve almost beyond endurance. It's the same with every kind of woman's work. There are times when it can only be done at the expense of great suffering. In such cases there is a strong temptation to spur the flagging energies by the use of a little stimulant, or to take some nerve-numbing drug to dull the present pain. Either practice is dangerous and may prove deadly. The need of the woman is not stimulation but strength, not to numb the nerves but to nourish them.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription perfectly satisfies the need. It works wonders for weak, run-down, worn-out, over-worked women, whether they work at home or abroad, in office, school-room or store; whether they sit all day at the sewing machine or at the typewriter. It contains no alcohol and is entirely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics. It is purely vegetable and a powerful invigorating tonic. It cures weak women strong and sick women well. It cures nervousness
