AVOCA WOMAN MISSING.

Mrs. Wilbur Howell Leaves Her Home Without Apparent Cause. Searching Parties Organized.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Avoca, May 19 .- Mrs. Wilbur Howell, of Avoca, left her home, on Saturday afternoon, under very peculiar circumstances. Her husband, who is employed as barn boss for the Avoca Coal company, returned home at about 2.39 o'clock and found her sitting down with her hat on, as though she were going out for the afternoon. He asked her where she was going, and she smilingly replied that she did not know. After this, he went to the barn-yard, and in a few minutes he saw her going through the field towards her daughter-in-law's house. A few hours after when he went into the house, he found a note under his spectacles.

It read: "I am going away. Do no look for me. Try and forget me." Her four sons were at once notified, and searching parties were sent in all directions. A few people noticed her between Aveca and Pittston Junction. and the latest account was from a young girl, who saw her on the road near Everhart's farm. She described her accurately, as wearing a black skirt, light shirt waist and black hat, with dark red foliage. She was a prepossessing woman, with silver gray hair and a very youthful countenance She was a devout member of the Methodist Episcopa! church, and It is supposed that her mind turned in that direction during the past few months Her husband does not give up the idea that she is still living, and any information regarding her will greatly relieve the family.

STRIKE AT COXTON YARD.

Employes of the Lehigh Valley Road Demand Nine-Hour Day.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Pittston, May 19 .- Trafflic on the Lehigh Valley railroad will no doubt be seriously impeded, unless the demands of the machinists at the Coxton yards, who went on strike at noon Saturday, are immediately granted. The men ask for a nine-hour day with ten hours' pay. A committee from the men waited on the officials yesterday morning, and shortly after dinner reported the result of their conference to the men at a mass meeting held in the Coxton round-house. The decision was immediately reached to strike. Several of the hostlers and wipers were pressed into service, but their work was of little value. Louis Brandenburg, of Upper Pittston, a hostler, while doing the work of a machinist at the yard yesterday afternoon, fell from an engine and sprained his ankle

The threatened strike at the Vulcan Iron works and Exeter Machine shops at West Pittsten has been averted, it is thought, by the announcement of the officials yesterday that their demands would be granted.

Pitiston, May 19,-For the past week or two, Joseph Dagutis, an Italian, has been excavating for a cellar under his one-story house on Panama street, this city. While he was at work yesterday, James Siane, a 14year-old Italian boy, was clearing out the dirt from beneath the building. About 1 o'clock the props underneath one end gave way and the building dropped, pinioning the boy underneath it. He received severe injuries to the lower portion of his body. The building was tipped at an angle of fifty degrees, and the dishes and household goods were thrown into one end of the building. A 2-months-old babe was in a cradle in the bedroom, and crib and babe were thrown against the partition. Luckily the child escaped uninjured. Leslie Kispaugh, an engineer on the Lehigh Valley railroad, while returning home from work about 3 o'clock yesterday morning, just above the Forest Castle brewery was covered with revolvers and valided of his 111-111 pay-$72.95-sandbagged and left un- (

The celebrated Dreyfus case has been no ject of a play entitled "Devil's Island, thich will be presented at the Academy of Mi e on Monday evening, May 20, by the De Noiompany, playing here one week at popular

It will be recalled that Captain Albert Dreyfu was found guilty and sentenced to deportation and imprisonment for life, and, after having been publicly disgraced, he has been kept in solitary confinement ever since on the desolate Devil's Island, off the coast of French Guiana, The play "Devil's Island" is founded on the facthis celebrated case and the important scene and incidents are dramatically treated by a splendid company. The production is further enhanced through the employment of a splendil cenic equipment. The play opens with a grand military recoption cusation and arrest of Captain De La Tour, otherwise Captain Dreyfus. Then follows the public degradation of Captain De La Tour before he army. The next scene is laid in the magni-icent palace of Countess Nina Petrovskym, when he plan is concocted for the rescue of Capitals De La Tour from Devil's Island, The fourth act is one of the most startling assive and intricate stage mechanism. A large acht, at first seen in the distance, bears down Devil's Island, rescues De La Tour just as the shoud is blown up by dynamite by Prince Orloff, the Bad thus hoped to destroy De La Tour am event his return to France as a witness against e guilty officers. The steam yacht then steam ead on through the angry waves right up to the orlights as the curtain descends.
