Not to Leave Scranton. Editor of The Tribune—Sir: Will you be kind enough to give me sufficient space in your paper to correct the erroneous impression that seems to have come abroad that I am about to abandon my business in Scranton, and move to another place.

Letter from Mr. Cadden. Editor of The Tribune—Sir: I desire to state to the public that I am entirely innocent of the charges preferred against me by Rhoda Nickles.

GAVE A GOOD PERFORMANCE. Walter L. Main Shows Please Two Large Audiences.

That Scranton is among the leaders in a circus city was again demonstrated yesterday upon the occasion of the visit of Walter L. Main's Fashion Plate show.

Among the leading features are the performances of educated horses and ponies, under the direction of Prof. R. H. Dockerill. The grouping of sixty-three horses in one ring in an original act was particularly pleasing.

INDIGNANT AT DR. LANSING. MEMBERS OF SCHOOL BOARD UP IN ARMS.

A Resolution Refuting His Remarks Made at Rochester Reflecting Upon the Honesty of the Board Introduced by Mr. Langan and After a Long Discussion, in Which Several Members Paid Their Respects to the Clergyman, Was Referred to the Committee.

The Tribune said yesterday morning in its report of Rev. Dr. Lansing's sermon on the children and the schools, that he does not mince his words in commenting upon municipal corruption.

At a special meeting of the board, held last night, a resolution was offered by Mr. Langan reflecting on the alleged resolution recently made by Dr. Lansing upon the honor and integrity of the school controllers at the meeting of the National Municipal League held in Rochester, N. Y., during the week of May 5.

JENNINGS OPENED FIRE. Mr. Jennings was the first member on his feet. Every person had the right of free speech, he said, but in making such charges as Dr. Lansing made, there should be proof.
