BRADFORD COUNTY.

Towanda, May 20.—C. H. Harris, of Atlantic City, who recently purchased Lake Wausauing, a popular summer resort, has just completed a very model hotel. The hostelry is fitted up to accommodate two hundred guests and no pains were spared in making it an up-to-date place for resorters from far and near. The lake covers an area of fifty-four acres, and is surrounded by trees and fed by pure spring water. It affords good fishing and is an ideal place for bathing. The glen is one mile long and is near the railroad, being about four miles from Towanda.

The soldiers and sailors' encampment will be held on the fair grounds August 21 and 22.

The county police officials are taking advantage of the tramp law and making arrests of hobos whenever one is suspected. Already several have been delivered to the county jail.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Ryan, of Los Angeles, and O. D. Kinney, of Duluth, are notable visitors in Towanda.

The American Bridge company, of Athens, has just delivered at Mauch Chunk six mammoth girders to be used by the Lehigh Valley. The contract required twenty-four cars, taking four cars for one piece.

M. E. Chubbuck is a delegate to the Odd Fellows' convention now in session at Harrisburg.

A "Carrie Nation" smashing was experienced here by a saloon keeper at Waverly a few nights ago, and as a result a man named John Brown and claiming Pitston as his home, is under arrest as one of the raiders. On the night of the incident two unknown men entered Thomas Brown's saloon near the Erie depot, and as a result a man named John Brown and claiming Pitston as his home, is under arrest at midnight and about 2 o'clock the

Another lively runaway occurred in town Sunday morning. Claude Roberts and Earl Tiffany were driving down Greenwood street when the axle broke, letting the horse and wagon off and throwing both young men to the ground. The horse, which was of a spirited nature, was badly frightened and rushed madly down the street at full speed. The street happened to be clear of obstacles and after running about a mile the horse was stopped by Warren Gardner without injury to anything except the buggy, which was badly demolished.

Mr. William Rhoads, who has been ill with consumption for some time, is in a critical condition. His daughter, of Newark, arrived yesterday.

Little Glen Penny, who has been ill for several weeks from the effects of an injury to the spine, is still lying at the verge of death. His wife, of Brookline, Dockett, of Nicholson, and Taylor, of this place, have all been in attendance and pronounce the case hopeless.

THOMPSON.

Thompson, May 21.—North Jackson is having some heavy frosts these days.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Page fell out of the wagon the other day and broke his collarbone, and on Sunday William Birdsall received a kick from a horse, which broke his arm.

Henry Wright, of Binghamton—"Blind Henry"—is visiting his many relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. L. M. Gillett, the Jackson street milliner, who was prostrated last week by heart trouble, is able to sit up and give direction to her business.

A. E. Jones, of Bath, N. Y., was a visitor at the home of Rev. W. H. French last week.

E. S. Whitney and family, of Scranton, have been spending several days with his father, R. V. Whitney, and other relatives in this place. They returned to their home on the afternoon train yesterday.

Rev. George Comfort is reported seriously ill at his home in Lansboro.

Rev. and Mrs. T. C. Brewster, of Starucca, were purchasing spring hats at Mrs. A. C. Foster's yesterday.

The Italians who are housed in a car near the milk station, and work on the track, went toward Starucca yesterday morning, and after their return engaged in a free fight. The whiskey that they had taken with them was taken at some speakeasy or getaways.

Street Commissioner S. L. French has a force of men at work on our streets this week.

Superintendent C. E. Moxley is holding his spring examination of teachers in the graded school building today.

Sheriff W. J. Maxey, of Montrose, came into town this morning and went out to Cost Stone's, in the township.

The attachment he had for the fellow was strong that he put on his best clothes and went to Montrose without offering resistance to the officer of the law.

Daniel Wright is much worse at this writing, and the wonder is that he has not died. He has been helpless for four years.

William Crosier, of Susquehanna, is in town today.

SPRINGVILLE.

Springville, May 20.—Last week there were two heavy frosts, yet there seems to have been no damage done.

Elmer Stevens and wife, over on the farm, have been entertaining friends from Nicholson the past week.

Last week we had a mad dog scare. An animal went through town and wounded several dogs in his flight.
