at the Tarbell house in this place today. The Epworth League will hold a novel social in the transept of the M. E. church on Wednesday evening, May 28. L. T. Birchard and daughter, May, of, Birchardville, was visiting friends this place yesterday. Charles N. Stoddard, for half a cenfury a prominent merchant of Montrose, has failed and his store is closed. The amount of assets and habilities is not definitely known. Mr. Stoddard enjoys the reputation of being an honorable business man and there is much sympathy expressed for him in the financial misfortune that has overtaken him. He was preparing to close out his stock and retire from active business when the crash came.

The annual sermon to the G. A. F. post will be delivered by Rev. E. K. Thomas at the Baptist church on next Sunday evening. The Sons of Veterans will also be in attendance. It will be a union service.

Samuel J. Halsey, of Lestershire, is spending the week at W. H. Dennis' Noticeable improvements have been completed about the residence of Mrs. Caroline B. Watrous, on Maple street. Dr. John G. Wilson has returned from a business trip to New York
