

Repairing Done Gratis. ACKAWANNA

The annual oratorical contest of the senior and junior students of St. Thomas' college took place last night in college hall in the presence of a large

Large Audience.

the other end of the street.

reasonable." The majority of second reading.

gentlemen, for the amendment was defeated and the ordinance passed on

When the ordinance fixing the sal-salary ranging from $500 each for the $400. Mr. Phillips argued that

GURRELL'S ARGUMENT.

proposed to live up to it.

nvestigate. denied the charge and insisted that he ould vote for the ordinance when he members could go upon the ground and Mr. Keller charged that the whole object of those who favored recommit-ting was the killing of the ordinance. Mr. Phillips was not fair in the stand he was taking, he said. Mr. Phillips railroad

fered the company. A special meeting was held in Hul-bert's hall yesterday afternoon of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western machinists. The meeting was called to discuss a matter which has aroused much recent comment among the strikers. This is the attitude which is to be adopted in case of o-day by securing seven subscribers, at one year each, would be at the very head of the list. Better begin now For a full description of the contest Ladies' Jackets and Skirts read the advertisement appearing today on the third page. For further information, or if desirous of obtaining We Make a book of subscription blanks, address Editor Educational Contest

Former employes in the Car Departnent of this company who have not reported for duty in accordance with notice dated May 13, 1901, are hereby

Any person or persons affected by

L. T. Canfield,

Piano for Sale.

314 and 316 Washington Ave.,

Public Auction.

street, Dunmore,

Men's

his vest.

property, etc.

Schriever's.

On Tuesday, May 28th, next, at

Horses, wagons, sleighs, household

Amateur Photographic Finishing-at

Ask for Kelly's union crackers. ..

Smoke the new Kleon cigar. 5c. **

Plaited Shirts

This is a choice group of new shirts, ready for the moment a man wants to leave off

The patterns are fresh and handsome, in smart stripes, of

blue and white, fancy colors

The plaiting is neatly done.

so that the stripes come out

the same on every fold. The bosoms are unusually long.

$1.50.

SQUARF"

including ox blood.

Master Car Builder.

Guernsey Hall.

Scranton, Pa,

..

**

Social Gossip

Dr. and Mrs. Fulton gave a beautiful dames at the Country club last night in honor of Mrs. D. G. Kirk and Miss Kirk, of Nova Scotia, The plazzast with many Japanese lanterns, giving a wonderfully charming effect in the fair spring night. Bauer furnished music and the Country club steward served supper, Among the guests were:

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Storrs. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lynde, Mr. and Mrs. Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. George G. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Chase, Dr. and Mrs. Murray Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Storrs, Mrs. George Rice Mr. and Mrs. Von Storch, the Misses Reynolds, atthews, Pennyracker, Gilmore, Eleanor Reynolds Dale, Hunt, Gerecke, Dr. Keller, Dr. Walker, Dr. Wainwright, Dr. L. C. Kennedy, Mesara, P. F. Leomis, Stade, F. C. Fuller, A. E. Hunt, jr., Geo, Russ, Cooper, Langly, Jones, of Wilkes

Miss Carolyn Keisling entertained a number of her friends last evening at her home on North Main avenue. A very pleasant evening was spent by those mental music and games. At a seasonable hour dainty refreshments were served. Those present were:

Misses Anna Berghauser, Marie Roosevelt, Anna Keising, Azaba Swartz, Lena Berghauser, Uharlotte Carinardine, Minule Berghauser, Lola Shermani, Mesars, J. Jordan, J. McDonough, Tharles Berghamer, Roy Robinson, Arthur Keis-ing, John Berghamer, John Halm, Edgar San-fers, Mrs. A. D. Jones, of Newark, N. J.; Mr and Mrs. A. H. Keisling, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Philling Mr. and Mrs. 1 (2019). ind Mrs. A. H. Keisling, Mr. and M. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Keisling, Mrs. S. Hipler, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Keisling.

The annual May dance of the Elecrie City Wheelmen was held in Mears' hall last evening and was attended by several hundred young people. The hall tastily decorated for the event, and the affair proved to be one of the nost enjoyable ever held under the suspices of the club. Several members f Bauer's orchestra played for the tances, which were all up-to-date, and he committee in charge sustained the lated the contestants on their excellent reputation of the club as entertainers.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Stonier, of Theolore street, were surprised last evenng by a number of the officers and eachers of the Providence Methodist Episcopal church Sunday school. Games, music and other diversions were indulged in during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Stonier were presented with a number of articles of silver,

PERSONAL.

Former City Solicitor A. A. Voshurg is in New York city. Assistant Postmaster David Powell was Pottsville yceleiday. Mrs. W. S. Millar has retained from a visit with friends in New York state. Dr. M. P. Congdon, of Binghamton, was the mest of Scranton friends yesterday William Burke, of Greenfield, Mass., and distinguished audience, which included Bishop Hoban and many priests of the Scranton diocese, company. There were fourteen contestants and so well did each acquit himself that the judges were nearly three-quarters of an hour in agreeing upon the prize winners, and then when they did report their findings were received by as many sets of dissenters as there were other than the winning competitors. The contestants and the selections they declaimed were: Edward B. Jordan, "Washington"; James J. Boland, 'Our Folks"; Moses O'Malley, "The Niobe of Mulla'h Isle"; Edward J. O'Horo, "Grattan's Reply to Corry";

William J. Gibson, "The Yankee Rid-John A. Ruddy, "England's Reer quital"; Joseph A. McNulty, "The Perplexity of the Union"; Joseph W. and the pretty rooms were decorated Foote, "Home, Sweet Home"; Aloysius F. Colligan, "What He Thought Was Right"; John A. Murphy, "The Irish Brigade at Fontenoy"; William M. Kilcullen, "The Last Banquet"; J. Gerald Cullen, "Lafayette"; Thomas M. Jordan, "The Banquet Hall Deserted": John Edward McHale, "The Statesman's Dream." Abysius F. Colligan was declared the prize winner, with 94 5-10 points out of ment to offer. It provided for a uniform salary of $400 for each of the five a possible hundred, John E. McHale was second best with 87 1-10 points magistrates. The ordinance in and John A. Ruddy, third, with 86 5-10 points. The judges were Rt. Rev. Monsignor for the South Scranton magistrate.

Eugene A. Garvey, V. G., Rev. James J. Jordan, Rev. Patrick J. McManus, Rev. James J. Moffit, ex-Judge E. N. Willard, Director of Public Works John E. Roche, Colonel E. H. Ripple,

H. H. Stock, E. M., of the International Correspondence schools, Edward present, who indulged in instru- J. Lynett, editor of the Scranton Times and Attorney Thomas P. Ho ban. Judge John P. Kelly, Colonel L. A Watres and Rufus J. Foster were on the committee of judges, but were unable to attend. The declamations were interspersed and followed with piano selections by Mr. Gurrell also spoke in favor of Aloysius F. Colligan, mandolin selec-tions by Richard F. and Joseph W. the amendment. The magistrates were all of equal rank, he said, and should Foote, and vocal solos by Gustave H. receive equal salaries. A policeman in Reppert. Green Ridge might make only ten ar-

The reception committee consisted rests in a year, but he received the of Frank S. McGuigan, George F. same salary as a policeman in the cen-Stuckart, James J. Cawley, Frank C tral city, who might have two or three Garvey, William S. McKinney, Eugene arrests every night. The amendment A. Cusick, Matthew F. Brown, Joseph was adopted by the following vote: S. Carey, Paul V. Barrett, Frank J. Yeas-Haggetty, Evans, A. L. Lewis, Ruane, Nageli, Harvey, Gurrell, William Lewis, Rush, MeAndrew, James F. Cummings, John F. Dolan and John E. Lynott. Graf. Cusick, Phillips, Galvin, Galpin-14, In making the announcement for the Nays-Clarke, Alworth, Roche, Partridge, Colejudges, the chairman of the committee. man, Keller-6. ex-Judge Willard, warmly 'congratufirst and second reading, after Mr. showing, saying they were a credit to themselves and their school. This sentiment was heartily seconded by the entire audience. It was very evident that this very important branch of education is given especial atten-tion at St. Thomas' college, and that the instructors are exceedingly offi -----

TO KEEP SIDEWALKS CLEAR.

cient.

Sanitary Officer Burke, acting under instructions from Director of Public Safety F. L. Hitchcock, yesterday noti-Miss Emily Marion Colling fied all the wholesale merchants on lower Lackawanna avenue to keep their produce, barrels, etc., off the side ART OF COOKING WITH GAS walks and within the ten-foot reservation.

Or, How to Male Cooking Easy. Lectures and demonstrations during the week commencing May 20, every afternoon at 3 o'clock, at 507 Linden street, Board of Trade building. For years this part of the city's main thoroughfare has been blockaded with barrels and crates of vegetables and boxes of fish, the latter being some-The Scranton Gas & Water Co. times very evil smelling.

a settlement, toward the company's thought the city was getting a fair represent employes, who have been return from the Delaware and Hudson cruited to fill the nine-hour day men's ORDINANCE PASSED. This and other questions of interest to the lodge were discussed, and at 4 He renewed his motion to recommit o'clock Chairman Humphrey Campbell and it was defeated, whereupon the ordinance was passed on first reading. called to order a meeting of the council. Reports of committees were heard, On second reading he offered an and other routine business transacted. amendment providing that the ordinance would not become operative The council will hold daily meetings henceforth, convening at 4 o'clock until all the property owners on Center every afternoon street between Mifflin and Wyoming avenues had signed a document releas-notified that they are no longer in A communication was vesterday re the company's service. Such persons ceived by Chairman Campbell from ing the city from all damages which are further notified that they must Secretary H. J. Haigh, of District 15, might be occasioned by the closing of keep off the company's premises unof New York. This is the district repder penalty of the law concerning resentatives of which, as stated in yes-Mr. Kellar said that the city might terday's Tribune, were in conference trespassers. with equal grace ask the people living on Ridge row as the residents with members of the National Metal this notice desiring to re-enter the Trades association during the early of Pocono to sign a release, and Mr. Patridge characterized the amendment part of the week. A satisfactory ad individuals, after filing application on as being "grossly and absurdly unjustment of difficulties was made in the majority of cases and work was the yesterday resumed by six thousand blank. members present agreed with these men, on the nine-hour day at ten hour

Tools and other private property will be delivered at the company's pay basis. This leaves two thousand men still on strike. freight station as soon as practicable, A large number of the deputies being employed around the Lackawanna yard upon request and proper identification tries of police magistrates was called were paid off yesterday morning and up, Mr. Phillips also had an amendleft the city during the day. Several of the men brought from Philadelphia by the company Wednesday were sent back to the Quaker city yesterday by original form provided for a graduated the strikers, they reporting at the ma chinists' headquarters and stating that two central city magistrates, to $200 they were brought here by misrepre want a bargain. sentations.

Mr. Alworth ridiculed the amend-Mr. Allis, of the Allis-Chalmers com nent and argued that the central city pany, who it was said Wednesday magistrates who have six times as would arrive here yesterday, failed to much to do as the South Scranton arrive and Superintendent M. N. Mac magistrate, should not receive a better Laren declared that he did not think salary. It was bad enough, he said, it likely that he would pay Scranton a to pay a man $200 for collecting fines In discussing the strike, Mr visit. o'clock p. m., property of the late Joseph S. Knight, at 322 South Blakemounting to $87, without paying him MacLaren said:

one "The shops are entirely idle at presmagistrate was as good as another. ent and no effort is being made to run Equal rights to all and favors to Just what we will do in the them. one" was his motto, he said, and he future, however, I cannot at present sa y

> Notices were posted yesterday by the Lackawanna informing the men who failed to report for duty Wednesday, May 8, that they were no longer in the employ of the company. They may obtain their tools at the freight office Any of them trespassing in the yard will be arrested. Any men wishing to again enter the company's employ must make formal application.

SHE FELL FROM A WAGON.

Mrs. Mary Ann Collins Seriously Injured Yesterday.

The ordinance was then passed on Mrs. Mary Ann Collins, who lives in the rear of $35 Capouse avenue, was seriously injured yesterday morning by being run over by a wagon and having several ribs broken. Mrs. Collins was riding on the wagon in question and on Capouse avenue was sud-

> She fell directly in front of the ve hicle, which passed over her left shoulder and side, The Lackawanna nospital was notified of the accident and the injured woman was removed there in the ambulance. She was reported resting easily last night.

Pianos and Organs of the finest quality can always be purchased at the very lowest price and on the easiest terms at Guernsey Hall.

314 and 316 Washington Ave.. Scranton, Pa.

Amateur Photographic Finishing-at Schriever's.

44

Fit the lady as the feathers fit the bird. The ton Tribune, Scranton, Pa." make, style, tit, finish and prices are all perfect Our spring stock is now awaiting your inspec The Delaware, Lackawanna and tion. Be glad to see you any time, Western Railroad Company, Office of Master Car Builder. King Miller, Merchant Tailor, Scranton, Pa., May 24, 1901. 435 SPRUCE STREET. NOTICE.

Allis-Chalmers Co Successors to Machine Business of Dickson Manufacturing Co., Scranton and Wilkes-Barre, Pa. Stationary Engines, Boilers, Mining Machinery, Pumps.

325-327 Penn Avenue.

French Organdie Stationery

We are displaying Whiting's line of French Organdie Papers which is now complete in seven different shades and sizes and which has become so popular for fine correspondence.

We also have a new and handsome line of Wedding Invita-tions which will certainly interest buyers in this particular line. Many new novelties in box papers for the spring and summer.

Keller had made an unsuccessful attempt to have action on it indefinitely postponed Mr. Melvin's electric light resolution, passed by select council last Thursday lenly jolted off. Cooking with Gas FREE DEMONSTRATION.

We have secured the services of

To lecture on and demonstrate the