

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

TUNKHANNOCK.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Tunkhannock, May 23.—Judge E. M. Durbin, Attorney E. J. Jordan and Dr. F. J. Badwell left for Philadelphia on Thursday afternoon for a short conference.

Mrs. W. H. Montzer, of Hazleton, is visiting friends in town this week.

John F. Sieker, Anderson Dana and Mrs. Arthur E. Betts are in attendance at the Odd Fellows' state convention at Gwynedd, as delegates from the local Independent Order of Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges.

The Grand Army and Women's Relief corps of this place will attend the Methodist Episcopal church in a body on next Sunday morning, when the annual memorial sermon will be preached by Rev. Grinnell.

John Flummefert, of the township, contemplates removing to Arizona, where he has a son, and will sell his farm on Prospect hill.

Mrs. F. H. Jarvis is visiting friends at McPherson this week.

W. E. Ross, of Windham, was doing business in town on Thursday.

William T. McHugh is principal of the Scranton graded schools at Laceyville, passed through town on Thursday, en route to South Gibson Susquehanna county, where he will visit relatives and friends.

Clarence Stage and Miss Flora Lucht, both of Overfield, were invited in marriage at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage on Wednesday by Rev. H. W. Duthier.

On Sunday last, Lee Carpenter and William Nichols procured a livery rig of Livermore A. E. Betts to drive to McPherson. On their return trip from that place, while driving along the highway near Hardings mills in Eaton township, they had the misfortune to drive over the bank at a point where the road was unpaved with railing. The wagon was badly broken and the horse seriously injured by the accident. Mr. Betts has made a demand on the supervisors of Eaton for adequate damages for his losses sustained. The supervisors are considering the matter.

BROOKLYN.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Brooklyn, May 23.—A. S. Wadlie and C. H. Tiffany were in Scranton yesterday on business.

Ames Kent, of New Milford, has been visiting relatives and friends in town.

E. H. Kent, Charles Mead and A. S. Wadlie visited the county seat last Tuesday.

Mrs. Jane Tiffany is very sick with pneumonia. She is attended by Dr. Taylor, of Hopkinton.

Mrs. Alva Quirk has undergone a very serious operation in a hospital in Scranton.

Mrs. Carrie Dolaway was in Montrose on Tuesday.

O. M. Dolaway is attending the Grand Lodge at Gwynedd this week.

Mrs. M. B. Grimes is visiting her daughter in Carbonton.

Miss Josie Dolaway is visiting friends in Scranton.

Mrs. D. C. Barnes has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Miller.

Boy Shadwick, Earl Ainey and George Kubina, of Keystone academy, spent Sunday with Brooklyn friends.

Miss Jessie Miller is learning to ride her new wheel.

A small company of dancers spent the evening very pleasantly at the home of H. W. Roper last Monday.

Miss Ethel Sterling, who has been teaching at Portland Mills, Elk county, has returned home.

SUSQUEHANNA.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Susquehanna, May 23.—Rev. Charles W. Boot, being in the east on a vacation, there will be no services in Christ Episcopal church on Sunday next.

Zoomeotives from the Erie ships at Hornellsville are going eastward for repairs.

At the hearing before Justice Williams yesterday, in the case of the commonwealth vs. Charles Ploutz, who is charged with assault with intent to kill, defendant gave bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance before the grand jury of the county.

In the absence of Pastor Williams, Mr. Thomas Jeffreys will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist church on Sunday morning.

Miss Lena Barrett is in Pittsburgh, completing a course in King's School of Oratory.

Rev. C. C. Mackay and Harry H. Smith, of Oakland, are at Walton, N. Y., attending the Congregational association of ministers.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Epes, of Oneonta, are guests of Mr. Epes' brother, C. M. Epes, West Church street.

Prof. Haylett James Risk, a former popular principal of the Susquehanna High school, is now a resident of Amsterdam, N. Y. He is making an excellent reputation as a professional reader and impersonator.

Congressman and Mrs. Amos J. Cummings will arrive at Columbia Grove about June 1, for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Boyden, of

TOLD IN SCRANTON.

It's the Evidence of Scranton People Published in Scranton Papers That Has Made Such a Reputation for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

Standing clear and distinct, marking the difference, the superior merit, the adaptability to present-day ailments is the volume of local testimony for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. It's so different to the ordinary remedies referring to cures made at distant points which it is hard to verify. There is a reason for Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills commanding home evidence wherever they are known. It is their wonderful influence in bringing up the standard of nerve health.

Mr. Henry Alberts, of No. 616 Birch street, Scranton, Pa., says: "For about two years my back and kidneys had been sore, lame and the secretions had bad shape. Nothing seemed to help me until I get Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills at Mathew Bros' drug store, No. 329 Lackawanna avenue. They did the work, curing the soreness and lameness, making the secretions healthy, and generally giving me health and strength."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 5¢ a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

Oakland township, will in a few days leave for Pike county, on a deer-hunting trip.

Miss Margaret Bresnan, late of Susquehanna, has been appointed a head nurse in Bellevue hospital, New York city.

Mrs. Richard Moss, of Newark, N. J., who has been seriously ill for several months at the home of her mother, Mrs. Carrie Cook, Washington street, is recovering.

Susquehanna does not appear to be especially interested in the work of bringing poor children from New York city to the county next summer, and few will come here.

The funeral of the late Edward Larkin took place this morning from St. John's Catholic church, where requiem high mass was celebrated. The remains were interred in Laurel Hill cemetery.

Warner & Bowers' orchestra will give concerts from the Cascade House Hotel in the near future.

Leonard Tiffany, of Leicestershire, is at the home of his parents, in Oakland.

R. O. Sutherland is erecting a building on the Oakland side, to be occupied by Tonsorial Artist Club.

Engineer and Mrs. Martin O'Malley, of Laurel street, were in Honesdale on Tuesday, attending the funeral of Mrs. O'Malley's mother, the late Mrs. Frank Doherty, who died on Saturday, aged 65 years.

The first annual ball of the boiler-makers' helpers, held last evening, in Hogan Opera House, was largely attended and a pleasant social occasion.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, report a pleasant visit in Port Jervis on Wednesday.

The annual commencement exercises of the Lansboro High school, held this evening in the Lansboro Methodist church, were largely attended by the parents and friends of the class of 1901. The class acquired itself very creditably, and the exercises were thoroughly interesting. Following was the programme: Marsh; invocation, Rev. D. L. Moyer; overture, orchestra; salutation, "The Aggregation of Wealth"; Willard Austin; Spears; essay, "Trifles"; Libbie Katherine McCullough; vocal solo, "A May Morning"; Miss Black; oration, "Booker T. Washington"; Charles Simon Flaherty; essay, "The Power of an Idea"; Irene Jane Plew; selection, orchestra; vocal solo, "Love Me Well"; Miss Black; oration, "Influence of the Newspaper"; Benjamin Franklin; Tewksbury; class history, Lena Grace Whitney; selection, orchestra; oration, "National Advancement"; John Earl Jacobs; valedictory, "The Open Eye"; Rema Brown; vocal solo, "Good Night, Little Girl, Good Night"; Miss Black; conferring diploma; class song; benediction; selection, orchestra. The class motto was "Row, Not Float." Under the capable direction of Principal Dennison and his assistant teachers, the class is in a highly prosperous condition.

FOREST CITY.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Forest City, May 23.—The funeral of Stephen Egan was held today. Services were held at St. Agnes church. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery here.

Mr. Egan was sitting upon the cellar wall of the Murray property, on Main street, last week, engaging in conversation with some friends, and when he attempted to arise, was overcome with paralysis, and falling back into the cellar received injuries which undoubtedly was the immediate cause of his death.

The condition of Joseph White was very encouraging today. It is possible that he may yet recover.

The Erie mines are working eight and five hours every other day.

On Friday evening, May 24, Lyman H. Howe will exhibit his moving pictures at the Davis opera house. The previous entertainments given by him have proven highly successful and large audiences greeted him at each event. This time an entirely new and interesting programme will be given. The prices, 25¢ and 35 cents, will enable anyone who wishes an evening's amusement to attend.

The public schools will be closed for the summer on June 3.

Dr. B. F. Maxey has returned to Wilkes-Barre, having been the guest of his parents for the past week.

Quite a little business in the real estate line is being transacted here this spring. Many properties on the hill have already changed hands, and it is under way for the sale of several others. The prosperity which the mines enjoyed last year is responsible for the boom.

Duggist Davis is at Buffalo, taking in the sights at the Pan-American exposition.

NEW MILFORD.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

New Milford, May 23.—Mrs. John Tompkins and daughter, Theodora, of Jackson, called on New Milford friends on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker, of Monroe, were guests at the home of E. S. Garrett this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boyle spent Sunday with relatives in Carbondale.

Union services will be conducted in the Methodist church on Sunday morning. Rev. Charles Smith will conduct the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Ainey spent Sunday at Nicholson.

Mr. A. M. Aldrich spent Tuesday with his daughter at Hallstead.

Mr. T. Austin was in Binghamton Wednesday evening.

Fred Hayden, who has been visiting his parents the past few weeks, returned to Scranton last Monday.

Mayor DeWitt and wife, of Binghamton, spent Sunday at the home of their father, Levi DeWitt.

Mrs. Grace Hakes, of Broken Bow, Nebraska, is a guest of relatives in town.

WELSH HILL.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Welsh Hill, May 23.—Prof. Harry Anthony and Miss Louise Morgan were united in marriage by Rev. R. N. Harris, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Morgan, on Wednesday, May 22.

Attorney Bunnell, of Scranton, was a visitor at this place on Sunday last.

Last Sunday evening our pastor, Rev. R. N. Harris, gave us an excellent sermon on "The Greatest Evil and How to Escape It." It was the sixth of his alarm talks to young people. Mr. Harris is an able speaker and is worth coming a long distance to hear.

We are glad to see Mr. Thomas Bevan and wife with us again. Mr. Bevan has rented Mr. Henry Harris' house for the summer.

Mrs. Richard Lloyd, of Carbondale, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davies, of this place.

Mr. Reuben Craft is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. W. Watkins.

Messrs. H. Harris, J. Evans and W. H. Davies commenced drawing their milk to the South Gibson creamery this week.

Several people of this place are anticipating a pleasure trip to the Buffalo exposition.

Miss Mary Reynolds, of Forest City, visited her sister, Mrs. Thomas Davies, of this place, over Sunday last.

The ladies of the Ladies' Aid society met at the church and gave it a spring renovating this week. Dinner was served at the hall.

Mr. S. Bronson, of Uniondale, was at this place buying cattle this week.

THEATRICAL.

ATTRACtIONS TODAY.

LYCUM—"Sis Hopkins," Night.

ACADEMY—"Vera de Nole Stock Company, Matinee and Night.

"Sis Hopkins" Tonight.

The matinées of the Lycum offer an unusually interesting attraction for tonight, when Miss Hopkins, supported by a strong company, will present that unique and laughter-movelling comedy, "Sis Hopkins." Miss McVille appearing in the title role, "The Play" is one of absorbing interest and has favorably passed every critic along the deviating theatrical lines of the story. The scenes are well planned and the dialogue is good, and the audience will be greatly pleased.

The matinée intriges of the play Miss McVille paints a character study that is well worth seeing. First one looks upon her as the raw and uncouth country girl, but, as the story evolves, she blossoms into a well-dressed, graceful and not to say, handsome metropolitan favorite of society. The scenery carried by the company is strong and the lighting laid in with such skill that one is carried back among the familiar scenes of a busy town.

The matinée intriges of the play Miss McVille presents a character study that is well worth seeing. First one looks upon her as the raw and uncouth country girl, but, as the story evolves, she blossoms into a well-dressed, graceful and not to say, handsome metropolitan favorite of society. The scenery carried by the company is strong and the lighting laid in with such skill that one is carried back among the familiar scenes of a busy town.

The matinée intriges of the play Miss McVille presents a character study that is well worth seeing. First one looks upon her as the raw and uncouth country girl, but, as the story evolves, she blossoms into a well-dressed, graceful and not to say, handsome metropolitan favorite of society. The scenery carried by the company is strong and the lighting laid in with such skill that one is carried back among the familiar scenes of a busy town.

The matinée intriges of the play Miss McVille presents a character study that is well worth seeing. First one looks upon her as the raw and uncouth country girl, but, as the story evolves, she blossoms into a well-dressed, graceful and not to say, handsome metropolitan favorite of society. The scenery carried by the company is strong and the lighting laid in with such skill that one is carried back among the familiar scenes of a busy town.

The matinée intriges of the play Miss McVille presents a character study that is well worth seeing. First one looks upon her as the raw and uncouth country girl, but, as the story evolves, she blossoms into a well-dressed, graceful and not to say, handsome metropolitan favorite of society. The scenery carried by the company is strong and the lighting laid in with such skill that one is carried back among the familiar scenes of a busy town.

The matinée intriges of the play Miss McVille presents a character study that is well worth seeing. First one looks upon her as the raw and uncouth country girl, but, as the story evolves, she blossoms into a well-dressed, graceful and not to say, handsome metropolitan favorite of society. The scenery carried by the company is strong and the lighting laid in with such skill that one is carried back among the familiar scenes of a busy town.

The matinée intriges of the play Miss McVille presents a character study that is well worth seeing. First one looks upon her as the raw and uncouth country girl, but, as the story evolves, she blossoms into a well-dressed, graceful and not to say, handsome metropolitan favorite of society. The scenery carried by the company is strong and the lighting laid in with such skill that one is carried back among the familiar scenes of a busy town.

The matinée intriges of the play Miss McVille presents a character study that is well worth seeing. First one looks upon her as the raw and uncouth country girl, but, as the story evolves, she blossoms into a well-dressed, graceful and not to say, handsome metropolitan favorite of society. The scenery carried by the company is strong and the lighting laid in with such skill that one is carried back among the familiar scenes of a busy town.

The matinée intriges of the play Miss McVille presents a character study that is well worth seeing. First one looks upon her as the raw and uncouth country girl, but, as the story evolves, she blossoms into a well-dressed, graceful and not to say, handsome metropolitan favorite of society. The scenery carried by the company is strong and the lighting laid in with such skill that one is carried back among the familiar scenes of a busy town.

The matinée intriges of the play Miss McVille presents a character study that is well worth seeing. First one looks upon her as the raw and uncouth country girl, but, as the story evolves, she blossoms into a well-dressed, graceful and not to say, handsome metropolitan favorite of society. The scenery carried by the company is strong and the lighting laid in with such skill that one is carried back among the familiar scenes of a busy town.

The matinée intriges of the play Miss McVille presents a character study that is well worth seeing. First one looks upon her as the raw and uncouth country girl, but, as the story evolves, she blossoms into a well-dressed, graceful and not to say, handsome metropolitan favorite of society. The scenery carried by the company is strong and the lighting laid in with such skill that one is carried back among the familiar scenes of a busy town.

The matinée