WEST SCRANTON

DESCRIPTION OF NEW CHURCH

WHICH HAMPTON STREET METHODISTS WILL ERECT.

It Will Be a Modern Gothic Structure and Cost About $8,000—Dodge Fund Entertainment—Queen of the Cow Girls Has Returned Home. An Evening with Lincoln—Cantata This Evening in Mears' Hall. Two Funerals—Boys Arrested. Notes and Personals.

The plans drawn by Architect Albert Hartman for the proposed new church to be erected on South Main avenue for the congregation of the Hampton street M. E. church, were selected from a number submitted to the body of trustees by architects from various parts of the country.

The board's action was a nice compliment to Mr. Hartman, who is one of the youngest architects in the city. At present the Memorial Baptist church in North Scranton is being built from his plans, and the new Patriotic Order Sons of America building on North Main avenue was designed by him. He is also the architect of several of the recently erected houses in West Park and other sections of the city.

The new Methodist church will be a modern Gothic structure of wood, brick and stone. The foundation will be built above the ground to allow for a ten foot ceiling in the basement, which will contain Sunday school and class rooms, ladies' parlor, reception and toilet rooms, together with a well appointed kitchen for suppers, etc.

The building will have a frontage of fifty feet, and will be about ninety feet in depth. It will cost about $8,000, and will have a seating capacity for 450 people in the main auditorium. Circular pews will be installed, and the choir loft will be stationed in the rear of the pulpit.

Two pretty towers will grace the exterior front, one being somewhat higher than the other. Memorial windows in the old building on Hampton street will be placed in the new building, together with other modern stained glass windows. The structure will be covered with a ridge roof, with gables at the front and rear.

The main entrance to the church will be in the centre of the building, where a loggia will be built for conveniences in rainy weather, etc. There will be a vestibule on the inside, with separate doors leading into the aisles. The church will be heated by steam and lighted by gas and electricity.

It is expected that the contract for building the church will be let in a few days and that work will be commenced shortly. The board will invite bids in a short time, and the work be given out to some local builder. If their present building on Hampton street is not disposed of intact, it will probably be reconstructed into a dwelling house.

During Rev. James Benninger's pastorate the church has grown wonderfully, and conditions have wrought such a change in the lower end of West Scranton that the present building is inadequate to their needs, besides being undesirably located. A suitable building lot was secured in the new plot on South Main avenue, at the corner of Bryn Mawr street, and will be convenient for the people of Lincoln Heights, and the residents of the Sixth and Fifteenth wards.

Queen of the Cow Girls Home.

Miss Cressy Titman, of Jackson street, professionally known as Teresa Russell, "Queen of the Cow Girls," who had a most miraculous escape from death during a circus rehearsal at Vincennes, Indiana, several weeks ago, has arrived home, accompanied by her mother, who went after her shortly after the accident occurred.

According to the young woman's own statement, she was engaged in rehearsing what is known as "the chase for the bride," and in passing from one horse to another, while the animals were galloping at full speed, her foot caught in the stirrup of her saddle, and she fell headlong to the ground and was dragged along in that position for several hundred yards.

Her head was battered until she became unconscious, and her shoulder was dislocated, while her left foot was badly wrenched and contused. For nine days afterwards she remained unconscious, but through tender care and proper medical attention the plucky young woman was brought back to life again, and is now on a fair way to recovery.

The accident has greatly incapacitated her, however, and she is still confined to her bed and likely to remain there for a long time. Her shoe, which caught in the stirrup, was torn, like her clothing, almost into shreds, and the "king of the cowboys," who assisted in rescuing Miss Titman, had one of his fingers torn off by coming in contact with an iron stake.

"Daniel, or the Restoration."

The cantata of "Daniel, or the Restoration and Capitvity," will be produced in Mears' hall this evening by the Tabernacle United choir, under the direction of Prof. Hugh Jones. Nearly a hundred trained voices will appear in the production, which promises to be a splendid musical treat.

The characters will be assumed by Mrs. Frank Brundage, Mrs. Howell G. Reese, John W. Jones, David W. Davis, David Stephens, Thomas Abrams, Thomas Jones, Jacob Jenkins, Samuel Rogers and others. The cantata will include solos, duets, quartettes, quintettes, and choruses of Israelites, Assyrians and Persians, with accompaniments by an orchestra of ten pieces.

An Evening with Lincoln.

All who wish to enjoy a pleasant evening will attend the entertainment at the Welsh C. M. church, South Main avenue, to-morrow evening, under the management of Mrs. George Howell's Sunday-school class. It is for the benefit of the church. The following is the programme.

Piano Duet ..... Selected

Entertainment and Social.

The Dodge Mine Accidental fund will conduct an entertainment and social in Mears' hall tomorrow evening, for the purpose of raising funds to recoup their dilapidated treasury, out of which over $800 were paid in benefits during the past year.

The talent secured will include David Stephens, David Jenkins, John Jones, Boyd Roberts, William Davis, George Edwards, Frank Strine, Joseph Whitehouse, Otto Richards, Thomas Abrams, Theodore Richards, George Chappel, William Price, Misses Agnes Warn, Effie Browning, Jennie Roberts, Kate O'Connor, Mamie Harris, Lottie James, and others.

The committee in charge of the affair is Richard Phillips, John O'Brien, John O'Hearn, D. T. Williams and W. J. Williams.

Mischief-Makers Arrested.

Joseph Wilhelm, Michael Wilhelm, John Lopi and William Lopi, each about ten years of age, were committed to the county jail last night by Alderman Martin Joyce, of the Twenty-first ward, in default of fines imposed for disorderly conduct.

The boys were arrested at the instance of William Heffron, of Twenty-second street, who charged them with beating and knocking down his son, and otherwise conducting themselves in a disorderly manner. The quartette spent the night in the station house, their parents refusing to secure their release.

Weekly School Deposits.

Only a few weeks more remain before the public schools close for the summer vacation, and in consequence the pupils of Nos. 13 and 19, are still maintaining their interest in the deposit funds, which have been accumulating for several years in the West Side bank. Many of the depositors will use their savings in various ways during the vacation season, while others will continue to have interest added to their deposits. A total of $72.81 was collected yesterday as follows:

No. 19—Miss Lees, $2.90; Miss Nichols, $1.31; Miss Bramith, 50 cents; Miss Morgan, 55 cents; Miss Hutton, $2.05; Miss Davis, $2.80½; Miss Evans, $2.15; Miss Kellow, 65 cents; Miss Flynn, $1.45; Miss Wade, $1.92; Miss Murphy, $1.18; Mrs. Ferber, $1.18; Miss Peck, $1.60; total, $21.02.

No. 13; David Owens, 15 cents; Martha Watkins, 50 cents; Alice Evans, 24 cents; Bertha Kelly, $1.50; Nellie Richards, 71 cents; Edna L. Evans, 90 cents; Catherine Phillips, 91 cents; Nellie Kelly, 41 cents; Sarah McDonald, $2.16; Elizabeth Price, $2.25; Mary Harris, $1.10; total, $11.79.

Plum Tree Social.

There will be a plum tree social in Mears' hall, Tuesday evening, June 4, under the auspices of St. Brenden's council, Young Men's Institute, for the benefit of St. Patrick's church. The fifty-dollar prize will be chanced off, and all holding tickets should attend. The contest for the five prizes to be given to those selling the most tickets is a great incentive, as all are anxious to secure one of the prizes (good for ten days to the Pan-American exposition).

Some very valuable prizes have been secured to be chanced off on the plum tree. A social will follow the disposal of the prizes. The affair should be a great success, as the St. Brenden boys are royal entertainers.

Two Funerals Yesterday.

Services over the remains of the late Thomas Campbell, of Grant avenue, were conducted yesterday morning in St. Patrick's Catholic church. The services were largely attended. Interment was made in the Cathedral cemetery.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Flyte occurred yesterday from the house, 453 Aswell court. Rev. Messenger officiated. The pall-bearers were William Nichols, James W. Lott, Ezra Brant and William Gibbons. Interment was made in the Cambria cemetery.

YOU CANNOT CURE PILES.

By Internal Remedies.

The only sure way to cure every form of piles is to use a remedy like the Pyramid Pile Cure, which is applied directly to the parts affected and its wonderful healing effects are apparent from the first application, because the medicinal properties are rapidly absorbed by tissues and sensitive membranes of the rectum, and the cure is made speedily and almost before the patient is aware of it every trace of piles has left him.

This is one of the reasons why the Pyramid Pile Cure has been so uniformly successful. It is applied directly just where it is needed and where it will do the most good. Not by the round about way of the stomach nor the harsh barbarous methods of various surgical operations.

Direct application to the seat of the disease is the only rational way, and this is fully accomplished by the Pyramid Pile Cure.

If the voluntary testimony of thousands who have tried this remedy is worth anything then no sufferer has any excuse for further delaying in giving it a fair trial, knowing that when you do so the Pyramid Pile Cure will have made one more friend, the best possible advertisement we can have. The chief advantages of the remedy are: It cures without pain, the cure is lasting, it contains no poison, and, lastly, it is the cheapest and quickest cure yet found. Your druggist can tell you what it has done for others.

Testimonials of cures from all parts of the United States will be sent on application to the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich.

GREEN RIDGE NOTES.

Character of Grant the Subject of a Talk by A. B. Stevens in No. 27 School—Other News Notes.

Upon invitation of Prof. J. B. Hawker, commanding the American Guard of No. 27 school, A. B. Stevens addressed the battalion of four companies and the pupils of the school yesterday afternoon. After having dwelt upon the cause of the Rebellion and its results, Mr. Stevens eulogized the great general of that war, U. S. Grant. He said, in part:

The character of Grant is farthest removed from that of a blood-thirsty warrior. While relentless and seemingly desperate to fight it out "on this line if it takes all summer," it was because stern necessity imposed this as the most economical expenditure of life and treasure. He was not in the slightest degree careless of the lives and blood of his men. He realized that to tamper or play war with the blazing rifles and cannon of a secession foe was to throw away the noble defenders, who were marshaled cheerfully and utterly under his lead.

General Grant's tender regard for his men and for the nation glows with growing brightness. Nothing in his whole career redounds more to his credit, of his head as well as his heart, than the terms he granted to Lee. And these terms were Grant's alone. The north was surprised. Lincoln did not suggest them. Andrew Johnson disapproved them. Congress would certainly not have suggested them. And it was because Grant was able to act with authority that he succeeded and the possibility of another rising of the south was averted forever. He consulted no human being, but sat down in the presence of Lee and wrote the terms which made him more than any other man the savior of the Union.

Neither Wellington nor Bonaparte proved himself more than a great soldier, but Grant rose to the level of the moulders of states. He won his victory and used it, too. No Richelieu or Bismarck by one stroke of statesmanship ever achieved so much for his country. No act of Lincoln or Washington was more beneficient to the nation or more important to mankind than the far-reaching grasp of patriotism with which Grant brought back the beaten, broken Confederates into the Union.

But the civil life of General Grant showed equally and in even greater measure the superior soul within. For this greatness in daily duties an equal chance in America is offered to every one, just as far as energy and ability can be made to win. The more the charming character of Grant is known and understood the greater the stimulus to every youth to emulate his vigor and his virtues.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

A poll taken at No. 27 school indicates that two hundred and eighty-seven pupils and one hundred and four parents will attend the field-day excursion to Lake Lodore, Saturday next. Nos. 27 and 28 schools have always been well represented on the annual excursion. This may be owing to the fact that Principal Hawker, of No. 27 school, has been the president of the Teachers' association for the past five years and has been especially active in arousing enthusiasm each year in the Green Ridge section in behalf of the association under whose auspices these excursions are held.

Robert Elder, son of Joshua Elder, received a badly bruised face last evening by being struck with a pin at the alleys of the Green Ridge Wheelmen.

At the regular meeting of Green Ridge lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Thursday evening, the initiatory degree will be conferred on one candidate.

Dr. F. A. Wright, of Glen Cove, L. I., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. H. B. Pratt, of Green Ridge street.

Miss Mary Serfoss has returned to her home in Stroudsburg, after a six weeks' stay with her sister, Mrs E. S. Rinker, of Green Ridge street.

A. B. Stevens, a veteran of the Civil war, delivered addresses before the scholars of schools No. 27 and 28 yesterday. His subject was "The Saving of the Union," and his talk was interesting and instructive, and calculated to inspire the children who heard him with a greater love for their flag, their country and its honored president.

A collection will be taken in the different rooms of school No. 27 today for money to buy flowers with which to decorate the soldiers' graves Thursday. The children of No. 28 gathered their money yesterday, the largest amount collected by any one room being $1.16, by Miss Clara Niemeyer's scholars.

S. B. Price, of Washington avenue, entertained the Green Ridge Chautauqua circle last evening.

PARK PLACE.

The Scranton District of the American Homing Pigeon Fanciers will have a two hundred-mile fly, June 2.

George Watson, who was killed in the Manville mine last Friday night by the cage dropping on him, was buried yesterday at 2:30 o'clock. Services were held at his late residence on Parker street, and interment was made in Forest Hill cemetery.

L. J. Smith, of Falls Pa., spent a few days with friends in Park Place.

Charles Ackerson, of Tunkhannock, spent a few days with friends in Park Place last week.

NORTH SCRANTON

REV. JOHN A. EVANS HAS RESIGNED HIS CHARGE.

Ill Health Has Induced Him to Ask to Be Relieved of the Duties of Pastor of the West Market Street Welsh Baptist Church—Funeral of George R. Watson Who Was Killed in the Manville Shaft. Classes in Physical Culture.

Rev. John A. Evans, pastor of the Welsh Baptist church on West Market street, has presented his resignation to the congregation, to take effect immediately. This course is taken by Rev. Mr. Evans because of continued ill health, and he is forced to do it with a feeling of deep reluctance, as he had become warmly attached to his congregation during the three years he has been the pastor.

Rev. Mr. Evans came to North Scranton from Mayfield, where he had been pastor a number of years, to succeed the Rev. W. F. Davies, who is now pastor of the Memorial Welsh Baptist church, an off-shoot of the West Market street church. Rev. Mr. Evans, who is now 62 years old, has no plans for the future, other than seeking an improvement in his health.

He will continue to reside in Scranton for some time to come, and it is quite possible he may now and then preach in pulpits of Welsh churches in the valley. He has no intention, however, of assuming a regular pastorate. The church has not yet acted upon the resignation, and he will deliver no formal farewell sermon until this is done. The church committee has not yet decided when it will act upon the matter.

Watson Funeral.

The funeral of George R. Watson, who was instantly killed in the Manville shaft while making some repairs Friday, took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his late home on Parker street. The funeral was largely attended by many friends and relatives.

Services were conducted by Rev. G. E. Guild, D. D., of the Providence Presbyterian church. The inside Accidental Fund and the local lodge of the Knights of Pythias, of which he was secretary, attended in a body. The pall bearers were members of both of the above organizations. Interment was made in Forest Hill cemetery.

NEWS TERSELY TOLD.

Mrs. Fred Mayo, of North Main avenue, has as her guest her mother, Mrs. John Thomas, of Pittston.

The Keystone Literary and Dramatic club will produce "Because She Loved Him So," at the Grand opera house in Carbondale next week.

Miss Fanny Crosby Myers, a graduate of the Philadelphia College of Physical culture, who has been brought here expressly for the North Main Avenue Baptist church gymnastic school, will open her classes in about two weeks in the Sunday school rooms of the church. There will be classes for men, women, and children over twelve years of age. The evening classes will be for the men and boys who toil during the day. The afternoon classes will be for the women and children. The scholars of the school have special training in dumb-bell and breathing exercises. The classes will be continued for five weeks and end with an entertainment in the Auditorium.

Rev. George L. Ahrich's Bible study Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Subject, "The Prophecies of Daniel." Study in the eighth chapter of Daniel.

The choir of the Memorial Baptist church is very busy putting the finishing touches to the beautiful cantata, "Our Flag." The farmer and soldier boys will rehearse and drill Monday and Wednesday evenings. A general rehearsal of the choruses, single parts and orchestra will be held Tuesday evening. The performance will take place June 11, at the Auditorium, and will be a rare musical treat.

The William Fisher colored sextette will give a cakewalk and ball in the Auditorium, Friday evening.

Stephen O'Boyle, John Heffron and James Lynch, young men of this part of the city, who are soon to be ordained to the priesthood by Rt. Rev. Bishop Hoban, will celebrate their first masses in Holy Rosary on the Sunday following their ordination, which will be June 23.

J. C. Bochman, of Court street, is not mourning the disappearance of his fine flock of chickens, as the evening papers recorded. He was alarmed somewhat when he found his hennery empty on Saturday morning, and reported to the police that thieves had visited his place. An officer was sent to investigate and found a board had been knocked off the hennery by a passing wagon, giving the chickens a chance to go visiting among the neighbors. In the evening they returned to their own roosts.

DUNMORE.

Tomorrow night at Washington hall, Milner & Mace's minstrels will make their initial bow before the local public. They will present such well known artists as Walter Deckelnick, formerly with the Primrose & West company, and Al. Austin, an old-time member of Cleveland's minstrel troupe, who has delighted large audiences in town in previous years.

It is expected that the various societies in town and the public school children will parade with the Grand Army of the Republic on Thursday next, and assist in the decorating of the graves. At Dunmore cemetery, Rev. J. D. Dabney, of the Tripp avenue Christian church, will deliver the address of the day.

The pupils of rooms 8 and 9 at No. 4 school will conduct an entertainment in Washington hall this evening. An excellent programme has been arranged, under the direction of the respective teachers and Miss Cox, the instructor in elocution.

Word has been received here announcing the death in Los Angeles, Cal., of D. J. Rorer, who several years ago was a well-known local resident.

Mrs. Joseph Stein, of Drinker street, is visiting friends at Wilkes-Barre.

Mrs. Eunice Taft has returned to her home in Hawley, after an extended visit with friends in town.

W. C. Ames, of Hawley, visited friends in town yesterday.

Miss Anna Taft, of Harrisburg, is visiting her brother, Royal Taft, of Blakely street.

Mrs. Edward Milner is ill at her home on Apple street.

The Erie Coal company's employes will be paid tomorrow.
