THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-SATURDAY, JUNE 1, 1901.

MONTROSE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Montrose, May 31 .- Memorial Day was fittingly observed in Montrost yesterday. In the early morning the Grand Army of the Republic post met at the post hall and, forming in line, marched to the cemetery and planted a large grove upon the grave of each sleeping comrade. The town donned holiday attire and was bright with the national colors; flags of bunting being displayed almost everywhere. Martial music was furnished throughout the day by the Springville Cornet band. At 1.45 p. m. the Grand Army of the Republic post and the Sons of Veterans camp formed on West Church street and moved up Public avenue to the Soldiers' monu-ment, where, with appropriate coremonics, garlands of evergreens were deposited in memory of those com-rades who died on the battlefield, in hospital, or in southern prison pens, and fill unknown graves. Crowds of people, many of whom were from out town, lined the principal streets when, at 2 o'clock, the procession moved from Monument Square to the cemetery, in the following order: Color beaters and colors, Springville hand; Four Brothers post, officer of the day commanding; disabled veterans in carriages, Captain H. F. Beardsley camp, Sons of Veterans, G. D. Ayres, commanding, Spanishe American War veterans, Co. G. Thirteenth Regiment, N. G. P., Captain J. C. Harrington, commanding; Montrose lodge, Knights of Pythias, H. D. Jones, chancellor commander; speaker and clergy in carriages, glee club in carriages. At the cemetery, the procession formed a hellow square about the grave of Captain J. R. Lyons. Vocal selections were rendered by a glee club composed of Messrs, Munger, Ayres, Fancher and Brewster, Misses Post, Barney and Harrington and Mrs Beach. Rev, E. K. Thomas offered prayer. The usual and heautiful service of the Grand Army of the Republle was participated in by Adjutant F. I. Lott, Past Commander J. P. Taylor, Dr. C. C. Halsey and Judge W. Searle, Ranks were broken, a firing squad from Company G fired , shiute to the dead, and each soldier's grave was visited and a wreath of evergreen and a bouquet of flowers were bestowed thereon. The line was again formed, and the march was inade to Village Hall, where the fol-lowing exercises occurred. After a song by the glee club, prayer was offered by Rev. A. L. Benton, D. D., and there was a brief service by the The necrology of the post for the past year was read by the adm-But one death has occurred. tant. that of Lieutenant Hyde Crocker Lincoln's Gettysburg address was read in an impressive manner by Adjutant Lott, and, after another selection by the glee club, the orator of the day, A. 'i. McCollum, esq., was introduced. Mr. McCollum has an established reputation as an able and entertaining speaker, and this reputation was materially added to by his splendid address yesterday. At the conclusion of the address, the assemblage joined in singing "America." and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Thomas. The exercises

Memorial day was well observed in this town. In the morning at 10 o'clock the Grand Army of the Republic marched to the Marcy cemetery, where they decorated the graves of their fallen comrades. Services were after-wards conducted by them, in which Rev. Greene gave a very interesting address.

The Junior Order United American Mechanics presented the East district and central schools with flags. At 1.30 p. m. the Troy council, of Wyoming, accompanied by the Wyoming band, gathered on Stephenson street. The Pittston council, accompanied by the Leek Cornet band, soon came, and they were met by the Slocum council of Moosic. The parade was soon formed.

with the speakers in carriages. The next division was the Leek band, followed by the school children: then the Wyoming band, followed by the different councils.

The programme arranged was an excellent one. The first number on the programme was given by the Leek band, followed by the presentation of the flag by J. G. Houser, &r Wilkes-Barre, who delivered an excellent address. The school children sang several patriotic songs, then the flag was raised to the pole, amid the cheers of the crowd and sweet music by the bands.

Prof. F. J. Regan accepted the flags in a very neat address, one that made all the school children form a better
