CLERGYMAN IS MISSING

REV. D. C. PHILLIPS' ABSENCE CAUSES ALARM.

Departed Suddenly on Monday and the Last Heard of Him He Was at Binghamton - Successful Plum Tree Festival in Mears Hall-Cantata at the Plymouth Church. Meeting of the Wheelmen-William Connell Glee Club-Other Notes and Personals.

The family of Rev. D. C. Phillips, of 172 South Hyde Park avenue, are much disturbed on account of his absence from home, and fears for his safety are entertained. The well-known clergyman has been in Ill-health for some time, and on this account had to give up his charge in North Scranton several months ago.

For some time he had contemplated a visit to some health resort, but on Monday left his home without saying where he was going. During the day his family received a message from him at Binghamton, saving that he intended remaining there for a few days, An effort was made to communicate with him, but he could not be located yesterday in Binghamton, and his son went to the Parlor city in search of him. He had not returned last night, and Mrs. Phillips will go to Binghamton today in search of him. On account of his ill-health it is feared that he has been overcome

Plum Tree Festival.

One of the most successful affairs ever held for the benefit of St. Patrick's church was conducted in Mears hall last evening by the ladies of the parish, assisted by the members of St. Brenden's council, Young Men's Institute. The half was crowded all during the evening and up to midnight, when dancing was enjoyed.

The magnet that drew the crowds was the "plum tree," from which many valuable prizes were shaken, including a ton of coal, chairs, shoes, slippers, and other articles of value. During the evening Irish music was discoursed by Eagpiper McAuliffe, and the lively strains kept the crowd in good

Tables for refreshments were arranged in the rooms on the second floor, and the ladies in charge were kept busy serving ice cream, cake, etc. It

Women Were Frightened.

Complaint has been made that two unknown men have on several occasions frightened a number of women on Tenth street, between Scranton and Washburn streets, during the evening and that they have been even bold enough to catch hold of them.

Their practice is to conceal themelves within the shadow of the trees and when unprotected women pass that way, follow after and frighten The police are keeping a sharp watch on the place and if the intruders are caught they will be pun-

DUNMORE DOINGS.

The school board met in .. aular session last night," with five members present. The superintendent's report showed an enrollment of 2,500, with an average attendance of 2,450. At the commencement of the year the commercial course had an enrollment of eighty, which during the year has dropped to thirty-six. He reported that the attendance during the past year was below that of several years past. It was decided to close the schools on June 27. Superintendent Eovard was granted a three days' leave of absence, when he will act as examiner at Stroudsburg Normal school. The superintendent reported that several teachers took the liberty to close their schools on circus day, without permission, but he was not prepared to state who they were. The board instructed him to be prepared with a complete report at the next meeting, when they will take action on the matter. Duplicates of the receipts of ex-Tax Collector Boland, which were given him by the auditors, were received by the board. Hills for the following amounts were ordered paid: D. Swartz Son. $14.28; T. J. Hughes, $3.43; Jacob Lutz, $3; Walter Graves, $17.60; Mrs. Thomas Walsh, $9.50; Reynolds Bros., $3, The pay-roll, amounting to $2,646,46, was opproved. The secretary's salary for the past year was fixed at $25 per month. PLEASANT EVENT AT HOME OF MRS. M. E. SANDERS.

Given a Surprise by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Providence M. E. Church, of Which She Is President. Lecture of Rev. H. P. Corser at the Court Street M. E. Church-Funeral of Mrs. Samuel Powell-Arranging for a Cantata-News Notes of an Interesting Nature.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Provience Methodist Episcopal church yes terday morning paid a visit to their president, Mrs. M. E. Sanders, at her iome on Church avenue, and spent the day with her. The visit was a surprise one in every respect, and the ladies, forty in number, had thorough satisfaction in the manner with which they came unaware upon the object of their visit. After a hearty welcome and a bid to make themselves at home, which the ladies came amply prepared to do. they took full possession of the house and made their president wholly subservient to their wishes. The occasion was also the birthday of Mrs. Sanders, and as a token of their regards the ladies presented her with a dozen stering silver teaspoons. The presentation remarks were made by Mrs. G. A. Cure, who spoke highly of the splendid work attained by the Ladies' Aid society during the four years Mrs. Sanders has been president, and the excellent inancial aid the society has been to the work of the church, ending with a presentation of the gift as but a slight oken of the regard which the ladies have for their president.

Mrs, Sanders made an agreeable response to the kind words of the repreentative of the visitors, and said that was their willing co-operation which had made possible the work which the society had accomplished. The ladies brought strawberries, cake, coffee and other refreshments along and they nade their visit a thoroughly enjoyable one. Mrs. Sanders was helped in making the visit pleasurable by her daughter. Bertha, and the mother of Mr. Sanders, Mrs. Susan B. Sanders, of Northumberland, who is here on a The visitors were grouped on the lawn and several photographs taken of them before they departed for their homes.

Rev. Mr. Corser's Talk.

Last evening Rev. H. P. Corser, of Fort Wrangle, Alaska, gave a very interesting lecture and showed some of his stereopticon views of Alaska in the Court Street Methodist Episcopal church before a large attendance. Mr. Corser's lecture was on the missions of Alaska and the work which is being done by the missionaries of that part of the country. He also gave a descriptive talk on the workings of the gold field and the mining of the precious metal. His stereopticon views showed the cautiful scenery in that part of the United States, and the glaciers which are seen there. In the number shown one of the most instructive was a picture of the gold seekers washing the gold dirt in the small creeks. Mr. Corser is now the guest of his parents and his brother, Dr. John B.
