THE JAM WAS TERRIFIC.

Many Persons Lost Money and Had Clothes Torn at Buffalo Bill Ticket Wagon.

There was only one ticket wagon pen at the afternoon performance of Buffalo Bill and the crush around it was terrific. Many persons who had large bills to change for tickets never saw them or their change after they passed them up to the ticket sellers, because they would be pushed to one side before the latter got a chance o hand them back their change. Several men came out of the jamith their coats torn and the number women's hats crushed out of shape vill never be known. Superintendent of Police Robling served an ultimatum pon the ocfficals in charge that if hey did not open an extra wagon for he night performance he would cause heir arrest. He procured a warrant from Magistrate Millar for this purose, but it was not needed, as the xtra wagon was opened in time for he night show

This wasn't all the trouble that Buffalo Bill had in town. It appears that a certain constable in Miners' Mills, whose name is Mulvey, whiles eway a few of his idle moments by posting bills. He posted a large num-ber of Wild West lithographs in and round the town and received in paynent a good-sized bunch of tickets, he price agreed upon before-hand. FOR BOSTON. NEW LICENSE TAX ORDINANCE

IT IS VERY COMPLETE AND

Every Business and Person Not Already Paying a State Mercantile Tax Is Taxed in One Way or Another-Big Corporations Taxed According to Their Gross Receipts -Contractors Rated According to Business-Thirty-three Provisions for Disposition of Receipts.

The license tax ordinance prepared by City Solleitor Watson, approved by in select council last Thursday night by Councilman Cosgrove, of the Fourteenth ward, is the most complete and exhaustive ordinance of its kind ever introduced in the councils of this city. Every person and every business that could possibly be taxed with any degree of fairness is included in its provisions. Merchants who are taxed under the state mercantile tax law are, of course, not included, but all others are. The measure has been referred to the license committee, which will meet some night this week to consider it. It is very generally predicted that its promoters have an uphill fight ahead through councils it will not be until it s very much amended. As mentioned some weeks ago in the Tribune, the ordinance provides for a tax of five per cent, of the gross receipts of gas, water and street rail-way companies. It imposes a tax of two per cent, upon the gross receipts of telegraph, telephone, electric light, electric heat and power and steam of them and that if it ever gets heat companies BANKS AND BANKERS.

Private banks and bankers are taxed $100, pawnbrokers, $100; money brokers, $100; brokers, $50, and stock brokers, $25. Theatres or halls having a seating capacity of 1,000 or over in which public entertainments are given are taxed $100; those having a seating eapacity of from $500 to 1,000 are taxed $75, while those with a seating ca-pacity of less than 500 are taxed $50. This is not intended to include halls in which society entertainments, etc., ar exclusively given.

The keepers of pool and billiard tables are taxed $10 per table, and the keepers of bowling alleys, $10. Auctioneers are taxed according to the volume of their business, as shown in the following schedule: Under $25,000, $25; from $25,000 to $50,000, $50; from $50,000 to $75,000, $75; from $75,000 to $100,000, $100, and the sum of $25 for each $25,-000 or major fraction thereof over $100.

Contractors are also taxed according to the amount of business done every year. The tax imposed is $5 for each contractor and $5 for each additional $5,000 worth of business done over $5,000. The aggregate tax not to exceed the sum of $150 in any one year. Butchers are taxed $15, as are also hucksters, who may sell upon the streets any fresh fish, fruit or vegetables not of their own raising. Push cart peddlers are taxed $10, as are also the proprietors of peanut, fruit and candy stands and hawkers and vendors of merchandise in the city streets. All merchants not taxed under the iercantile tax law are taxed $5.

ON TEAMSTERS.

The tax upon teamsters, draymen and liverymen is arranged according to the following schedule: Drays, $5; carts, $2; one horse wagons, $2; hacks, $5; one horse carriages, $2; two horse carriages, $5; two horse wagons, $5; four horse wagons, $10; omnibuses, $10 Sales agents selling goods by sample or merchants or firms not doing business in the city are taxed $100. This is not intended to include commercial travelers, but merely those merchants who rent an office and make permanent headquarters of the city, selling shoes, cut glass, underwear, etc., from a line of samples. It will be a satis faction to many, perhaps, to know that all book agents, male and female, are taxed $25.

Lumber dealers, both wholesale and retail, are taxed $10. Real estate agents or persons who make a business of collecting rents for a commission are taxed $10, as are also fire insurance agents. Non-resident life or necident insurance agents are taxed $25, while resident life and accident insurance agents are let off with a nominal tax of $5. Industrial insurance agents and collectors are also taxed $5. Vendors of patent medicines who may offer their goods for sale on the streets of the city are taxed $10 for the privilege of so doing. Museums are taxed $10. Circuses are required to pay $100 for a license and when combined with a menagerle the sum of $200 is required. Animal shows are taxed $10. Advertising agencies are taxed

LIABLE TO FINE. Persons failing to take out a license are liable to arrest and fine of not less than $5 nor more than $100, or in default thereof imprisonment for a term not to exceed thirty days. The ordinance provides that fifty per cent. of the revenues derived shall be used in paying off judgments against the city in the order of their priority. Twentyfive per cent, is to be used in improving the fire department and the other of such incidentals for the several departments as emergency may require, The ordinance, according to its present wording, is to go into effect on July 1, if passed in time, that date to be made the beginning of the license

SAID HIS FIRST MASS. Rev. Timothy Tierney Began His Duties as Priest Yesterday.

Rev. Timothy Tierney, son of Mr and Mrs. P. F. Tierney, of Stone avenue, celebrated his first mass yesterday morning in St. Peter's cathedral EXHAUSTIVE. in the presence of a very large congregation. The ceremony took the form of a seigmn high mass, the officers of which were as follows: Celebrant, Rev. Timothy Tlerney leacon, Rev. Father Cherry, of New York: sub-deacon, Rev. Michael Loftus; master of ceremonies, Rev. J. J. Griffin; arch-priest, Rev. J. A. O'Reilly. After the mass those present thronged the alter rail, as is the usual custom, to receive the blessing of the new priest. Rev. Father Tierney was born in this city twenty-seven years ago and was brought up here. He is a graduate of St. John's seminary, Dunwoodie, N. Y., and was ordained on Former Recorder Moir and introduced in select council last Thursday night York city, by Archbishop Corrigan. He will leave the latter end of this week for New York city, where he will take up his priestly work. will not be assigned to any church until he presents himself to Archbishop Corrigan.

A most eloquent sonmon was preached by Rev. R. K. Wakeham, professor of scripture, at the semi-nary from which Father Tierney graduated. He took for his text the 115th Psalm, "I am thy servant, O Lord, and the Son of thy Handmaid." He referred to the Old Testament story of the dedication of Samuel to God by his parents before his birth and of his acceptance of the call of God to become one of His servants. He told of the necessity of parents encouraging children to fulfill the vocations to which they may be called. There are two things, however which parents must avoid, he said. One of these is the settlement of a child's vocation by his parents and another the retarding if it when the child has his mind set upon a certain

THREE HORSES AND COW

They Were Burned to Death in a Stable of Michael O'Boyle, of Pittston.

Fire broke out last night about 9.40 'clock in a barn situated in the rear of 516 South Washington avenue, just south of Hickory street. It was owned by Michael O'Boyle, of Pittston, and occupied by Jacob Rich, who drives a junk wagon. The flames originated in an unknown manner, and were first seen by some of the neighbors, who promptly turned in an alarm from Box 41, at the corner of South Washington avenue and Hickory street.

When the South Scranton companies arrived on the scene the whole barn was a mass of flames and little could be done except to save the adjoining buildings, which were clustered very thick about the burned structure. The barn was completely destroyed by the flames, and three horses and a cow were burned to death. Their frenied cries of pain as the fla their stalls were pitiful to hear. The damage done amounted to about $1,-000, partly covered by insurance. house next to the barn occupied by P. Harowitz and J. Weiss, was

During the six days 258 points were scored by the various contestants, as follows: Lewis. Miss Griffin, 34; Anderson, 34; Miles, 29; Miss Pedrick, 27; Buckingham, 25; Brunner, 15; Kemmerer, 11; Schwenker, 10; Emery 8; Miss Meredith, 6; Griffis, 6, and Campbell, 3.

On Saturday the only change in poition was that of Ray Buckingham, of Elmhurst, who advanced from eleventh to tenth place, W. H. Harris dropping. Meyer Lewis, Frank Kemmerer and David Emery all strengthened their present position. The tie between the three ladies is still unbroken.

A Word of Caution.

Contestants should use the greatest care in writing the names of new subcribers. Be sure they are spelled properly and that the initials are correct; also take particular pains to get the right street and number. If do not understand clearly, do not hesitate to ask a second time, or even a third time, as by so doing you avoid no end of trouble and difficulty through the inability of the carrier to find the proper house, and the subscriber's failure to receive his paper. The Tribune desires to have the new subscribers receive their papers as soon as possible after the subscription s taken, and to have them properly

In Regard to New Contestants. The Tribune continues to urge the oung people of Scranton and Northeastern Pennsylvania to start in the getting style and value is contest. This is not said with a view to dis couraging any of those who are already at work. Of course the Tribune desires to have as many contestants as possible, and to have them all at work. Such a condition means all or an equal footing. The best plan for those already in it is to keep continually at it, for those in the lead can never tell how soon a new contestant may come in with friends enough to give him a promising start; neither can those who are farther down the list know how soon some of the leaders may get discouraged and stop active canvassing. THE PRISONER ESCAPED. .

Wm. Guthinson Got Away from Alderman Kasson's Office.

Scranton Tribune, Scranton, Pa.

William Guthinson, who resides on Jackson street, escaped from Alderman Kasson's office on Saturday morning, after the latter had placed him under arrest. Guthinson got into an altercation with E. S. Hughes about 9 o'clock, in front of the Price building, on North Washington avenue, and struck him. The elevator boy from the building joined in the fray and assisted Mr. Hughes to resist the onslaught of Guthinson.

In the midst of the melee, Alderman Kasson, who had heard the noise. came down stairs and placed Guthinson under arrest. He walked him up stairs to his office and sat him down. ◆ He turned his back for a moment. and when he looked again the prisoner had escaped, having run out into the hall and bounded down the
