INDUSTRIAL AND LABOR

STRIKERS DECIDE NOT TO RE-TURN TO WORK.

Held Important Meeting In This City Yesterday and Saturday. Present Condition of the Anthracite Coal Market Oliver S. Lutz Has Resigned His Position as Business Agent of the Carpenters Union-Make Up of the D. L. & W. Board for Today Short Notes.

The striking car builders turned out in force yesterday afternoon and teported at Fruehan's hall, South Scrantop, where it had been reported to hem that a meeting was to be held for the purpose of starting an opposition union. It had been reported at headquarters that one Jacob Welsman, who struck with the other men and is now employed at Nay Aug park, had gone among the car builders of South Scranton, acting as an agent for the company.

Weisman, it was said, had told the men that the company was willing to grant a 1216 per cent, increase. the straight ten hour day, and that the executive committee was unwilling to confer with Master Builder Cantield. He arranged for a general meeting of the men vesterday afterfied, asking for an audience with him, to discuss the matter.

He declined, however, to meet them until they stated their business explicitly. Mr. Canfield is also said tive taken the same attitude as Mr. 7-loyd regarding the matter of meeting representatives of the strikers to discuss the general situation, the offor being made through the citizens' committee. When the strikets appeared at Fruchan's hall vestorday, they found no one but the owner of the place about, and when he heard the purpose of the meeting be locked the doors and left. The strikers and South Scranton men then adjourned to Schimpff's hall, where the latter men were made acquainted with the exact condition of affairs, Today the executive committee will petition Director of Public Works Roche to remove Weisman from his position at the park. A meeting of the striking blacksmiths was held Saturday afternoon, for the purpose of discussing the rumored inention of thirty of the Cliff works blacksmiths of returning to work this morning. Short speeches were given by several of those present, showing the Dickson pien what affect this action would have on the body as a whole, and then everyone left the meeting except the Cliff works employes themselves and President Humphrey B. Campbell, of the council. whom the men insisted upon being present.

A vote was taken on the question of returning to work, the motion being out in the affirmative form: "Resolved that we resume work on Mon-Two of the men present left the from before the vote was taken and of hose present every man voted against the proposal. A committee was then appointed to wait upon Superintendent Delaney and notify him that he need not open the shops to-day.

An effort has been made to and Lackawanna company, the general eltizens' committee acting as the intermediary. The company authorities however refused to meet any commit tee until the employes first signified their willingness to make some conessions from the original demands.

Lackawanna's striking car builders Saturday petitioned Recorder Connell not to appoint to any position on the police force ex-Lieutenant M. S. Spellman, nor to make H. F. Ferber chief of the fire department. Their reason for presenting the petition that both men are acting as special police for the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad company,

The Hard Coal Market.

The hard coal market is feeling the arrival of warmer weather, though the tonnage shipped from the mines is, on the whole, holding up well. Scattered strikes and a general disposition among the miners to take things easy affect the output. The tonnage mined per day's work is undoubtedly less than a year ago.

Trade in the west shows some odd features. Retail buying is light, yet there is little coal accumulating on the locks. Shipments up the lakes are now of normal volume. The regular rate from Buffalo to Lake Michigan and Lake superior ports is now 40c. but this may be reduced to 35c. At head of the lakes supplies have been unusually low, but coal is now arriving more freely. In Chicago ter ritory the new system of monthly discounts seems to be working well and the large dealers have been getting in coal as fast as arrivals permitted. The retail demand is small. Along the seaboard demand has held up well The heavy movement to points beyond Cape Cod, however, begins to show signs of falling off. This will probably not affect the mining companies much since it will permit a heavier move-ment up the lakes. A general lessen-ing in buying is to be expected soon anyway and the real test of the new selling plan will come next month. So far the weather has favored the coa man and the year's productions prom ises to be large, very possibly the largest on record. white ash coal f. o. b. New York are: Broken, $2.70; egg. $3.75; stove and nut, $4.20. Pea is about $2.75; buckwheat $2.25.-Engineering and Mining Jour-

Lutz Has Resigned.

Oliver S. Lutz has resigned the position of business agent of the local carpenters' union and is now considering several offers of which he is in receipt. He may accept a place out of the city. His resignation was tendered Friday night and Saturday he was notified of its acceptance.

Mr. Lutz is succeeded by E. C. Parerson, president of the union, and the latter's place will be filled next Fri-day night, when occurs the annual election of the carpenters' union. Mr. Lutz succeeded J. W. Knowlton as business agent, and has done excellent work in the capacity.

The carpenters' strike was on when he took hold of it and the fact that moon. On the ear builders hearing of matters have been practically adjusted this, a message was sent to Mr. Can- and that though on strike all of the carpenters are now working at good wages and hours is due to the foresight and care which Mr. Lutz exercised in handling affairs.

WILLIAM O'HARA HELD UP.

Was Robbed of $15 by a Gang of Thugs Saturday Morning.

There have been several hold-ups lear the Phelps street crossing of the Delaware & Hudson rallfoad within the past few weeks. The latest occurred early Saturday morning, when William O'Hara, of Green Ridge, was halted by a gang of four or five men and robbed of $15.

The gang demanded his money and when he refused to turn it over they knocked him down and beat him be fore forcibly taking it. The police have been notified of the occurrence.

BILLIOTT IS A FREE MAN

JURY RETURNS A VERDICT OF NOT GUILTY. .

Finding Means That the Jury Believes Frank Tollerego Did the Stabbing - The First Ballot Stood Eight for Acquittal and Four for Conviction-Three Murder Cases in this Week's List -Little Libel Case Scheduled for To-morrow-Sentences Imposed.

Early Saturday morning the jury in the Billiott murder case came to an agreement and, at the opening of court, reported a verdict of acquit-

Before retiring at 11 o'clock Friday night, the jury, it is said, stood eight for acquittal and four for conviction. The case hinged on the reasonable doubt, it is said, and after breakfast Saturday morning, the whole twelve concluded that there was a very reasonable doubt that Frank Tollerego and not Sam Billiott committed the orlme.

Billiott evidenced no great concern over the verdict. He has no relatives in this country and no one whom he could consider anything more than an acquaintance, consequently he made his way from the court room without anyone weeping on his shoulder or anything like that. He shook hands with his attorneys, O'Brien & Martin, and a few of his countrymen, and went away, accompanied by two of the latter.

Three murder cases are scheduled or today, but it is probable that only one of them will be tried. District Attorney W. R. Lewis said last week that he thought the case against Josephine Bevelayqua would be the one to go to trial. She is charged with the shooting of Mary Paul Rose, and her husband is charged with having incited her to do the deed. The cases will not be tried together. The hus band's case will depend on the finding in the wife's case. The Papa case which was put over from last week. is likely to be again continued.

LITTLE LIBEL CASE.

Tomorrow the case of Richard Littie, editor of the Scrantonian, charged with libelling John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers, is scheduled for trial. It is the first case on the list for the day, and unless something unexpected intervenes to put it over, it will go to trial. Mr. Mitchell arived in the city last night to consult with his attorneys, O'Brien & Martin, in the preparation of the prosecution. Little will be defended by John J. Murphy. Other attorneys are acting as advisory counsel for the defense but as yet they have not had their appearance entered,

The case in which Martin Flaherty and Frederick Dilcher are accused by | Scragg is his attorney.

Richard Little with conspiracy to kill off the Scrantonian is at the head of Wednesday's list. As the attorneys in the libel case are also interested in this case, the chances are it will not he reached till the end of the week, if the liber case goes to trial.

The Minooka fraudulent voting cases prosecuted by John J. Coyne. and the gaming house cases against Stephen E. Cawley, Michael Gallagher and Harry Oblinger, prosecuted by Robert Wilson, of the Municipal league, are to come up tomorrow. Judge Kelly will preside in the main court room: Judge Carpenter in No. 2, and Judge G. I., Halsey, of Luzerne, in

SENTENCES IMPOSED.

Fines of $100 were imposed by Judge Edwards on Edward Padden and Thomas Barry, convicted of the least serious of the accusations made Hunt. In pronouncing sentence, Judge Edwards said the jury had been very lenient. The law does not proimprisonment as a penalty for this offense, the judge said, and accordinly he had to be content to sentence them to pay $100 apiece and costs.

John Upsit, of Austin Heights charged with assault and battery on John Sharrak, his boarding boss, and a more serious offense against Sharrak's wife was fined $5 and costs in the first case and $25 and costs in the second.

C. E. Weise and Edward Chapman were sentenced to pay the costs in the case in which they were charged by Joseph Walker with forcible entry and detainer.

John Harris and Joseph Walsh, convicted of stealing a slot machine, were remanded for sentence. Attorney Herbert L. Taylor will apply for a new trial for Harris. Walsh is defendant in another thievery case set down for this week.

Taylor also had sentence suspended in the case of Henry Walters. the bottler, who was found not guilty. but directed to pay half the costs in the case in which the Municipal league charged him with selling by the glass. Mr. Taylor informed the court that Agent Wilson had Mr. Walters arested again Saturday on the same charge.

Court House News Notes.

Attorney S. B. Price, representing the plaintiff, has taken an appeal to the Superior dourt in the case of George L. Peck, trustee, against William Connell. It is returnable the second Monday of January, 1902.

Dennis P. Kane, by Attorneys Rice & Donnelly, brought suit Saturday against the Scranton Railway company for $3,000 damages. Mr. Kane illeges he was injured to that extent in a street car collision on Penn avenue, March 19 last.

Application for divorce was made Saturday by David Brown, the colored Rough Rider. He alleges that his wife. Lottie Brown, whom he married while doing garrison duty in Montana, refused to stay in Scranton and when he declined to go back to the west with her, she went alone, and has never returned. John F.

NINETIETH ANNIVERSARY OF ISAAC DEAN CELEBRATED

to Congratulat: Him.

The ninetieth anniversary of the birth of Israel Dean, one of the oldest and most prominent residents of this county and who has resided considerably in this city, was celebrated at the beautiful country home of his son, Attorney Arthur D. Dean, on Saturday, in Waverly. It was an event long to be remembered by those present, for was also a time of reunion for the Dean family. Fully one hundred and lifty persons responded personally to the invitations issued and many re grets were received from those unable to attend. Among the guests were representatives from five different states. Four generations of the Dean family were represented. The house was tastefully decorated

The day, though somewhat chilly, did not prevent the use of the spacious lawn and porch. No special programme was carried out, but each had a most delightful social time and Mr. and Mrs. Dean most generously displayed their hospitality. Isaac Dean, n whose honor the event occurred, was present, and that happy, animated spirit which nature has endowed him with was at its best. He gladly welcomed all the guests and received their congratulations, not with feebleness that might be expected in one who had reached ninety mile stones in life's race, but with the alertness of youth. Mr. Dean is a remarkable man for one of his age, being of excellent physical and mental strength and full of energy such as has always characterized him. He bids fair to each the century mark if his physical constitution is any indication of lon-

Mr. Dean is of a family of eight chilthen, of whom only two others besides himself are living. They are Myron Dean, of this city, and Mrs. Mary Dean Eaton, of Dalton, Mr. Dean is tlso the father of five children, Emma Louise Anderson, who died in 1896, Albert Willander, Dalton: Arthur D. Waverly: Mrs. George Shires, Scranton: Dr. George Edgar, Scranton, and Mrs. M. R. Walter, Scranton. He also has nine grandchildren, Harry Nor-thup Dean, Walter Clark Dean, Maurice Bessel Dean, Carroll Sisson James Davis Dean, Mirian Dean, Elsie M. Shires, Percy Shires. and he is especially honored with two great grandchildren. Prentice and George Edgar Dean, sons of Harry N. Dean, of this city. All of the grand children and great grandchildren were present excepting Walter Clark Dean, who is an electrician in the UUnited States navy at Norfolk, Va.

At noon a bountiful repast was served to all the guests in the house and on the porch. The following perserved at the tables: Miss Blanche Kennedy, Miss Marjorie Dean Sophia Miller, Elsie Shires, Etta Miller, Sue Frances Waite, Miss Mayme Hodgson, Mrs. W. A. Dean, Maurice Dean, Carroll S. Deane, Russell Dean Percy Shires, Harry N. Dean, W. A. Dean and Mrs. Harry N. Dean.

After the dinner was served Thoma Hall favored the guests with a vocal solo, accompanied on the piano by Mrs Arthur D. Dean. Photographer Manchester took several pictures of the guests in a group on the lawn and about 3 o'clock many began to disperse for their homes, while others remained until a later hour.

Round Top-Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Dershimer. Isaac Dean was the oldest son of Mr.

and Mrs. James Dean and was born in Abington, Luzerne county, now Lackawanna, on June 9, 1811. His parents came from New England in the early part of the past century and they were of English ancestry. At the time Isaac Dean was born the country where his parents fived was principally a wilderness, there being only occasional clear-ings, but New England settlers were rapidly migrating here and establishng homes. Mr. Dean began in early life the felling of the forests and the cultivating of the virgin soil on his fether's extensive farm. His opporunities were meagre for acquiring an education, only a few months in win-ter were devoted to study, but he equalled those in learning who had better advantages in those times. Among his first teachers were Alvinza Clardner and William Dean, taught at Baileytown. When twelve years of age he attended the school of Samuel Coglizer at Providence, which was located on what is now North Main avenue, and this was probably the first school house erected in that part of Scranton. At this time ha made his home with his aunt. Mrs. Holden Tripp, and he recalls driving during the winter to Kingston, crossing the Susquehanna at Pittston on were experienced in making journeys were experienced in making journeys over the new and rugged roads. When the construction of the Abington and Wakeford turnpike was completed in the early thirties Mr. Dean, accompanied by his cousins, Ira and Isaac Tripp, each with a load of coal in a sleigh from the coal bed of his uncle, Stephen Tripp, went with it to Ithaca.

In Mr. Dean's early life horses and wagons were few in his home locality and most of the travel was done by horseback or with teams and handmade sleds and many inconveniences

Stephen Tripp, went with it to Ithaca.

N. Y., where they sold it for $13 a ton.

When Mr. Dean was quite a young man he purchased grain and hauled it to Carbondale and Honesdale, where he sold it to the Delaware & Hudson company. He also spent considerable time at lumbering and rafting down the Susquehanna from 1830 to 1837.

Mr. Dean has always been a great walker, and is yet. On one day he walked sixty miles, and fourteen of walker, and is yet. On one un, walked sixty miles, and fourteen of walked sixty miles, and fourteen of before breakfast. In 1843 Mr. Dean was married to Polly S Heermans, daughter of Henry Heer mans, the first merchant of Providence. He bought land in the vicinity of his birthplace and began with his accustomed energy to make for himself and wife a home. In connection with farming he butchered and bough live stock, which he frequently drove to New Jersey for the city markets. When the Second National Bank of this city was organized Mr. Dean was an active promoter of the enterprise under the lead of his brother-in-law W. W. Winton, Though some of his investments did not prove as profitable as anticipated and many losses of money were incurred, he never lost his usual cheerfulness and observance of the bright side of life.

After the death of Mr. Dean's wife on July 8, 1868, Mr. Dean left the farm and moved to Providence, his oldest daughter becoming his housekeeper. Since her death in 1896 Mr. Dean has made his home among his children and has made visits among his relatives cattered over a large part United States. Three times he has crossed the continent and visited various states on the Pacific coast. When $9 years of age he spent six months on the Pacific coast and traveled over 7,000 miles through portions of twentyfive states and territories. Mr. Dean still cultivates his own garden and takes an active interest in the business and political affairs of the country. There is probably no person living in this county who has so extensive an acquaintance with the families of the older settlers. Nothing affordhim more pleasure than to hifeh up his horse and take a drive of from twenty to forty miles and make short visits among his numerous friends of earlier days. He is a pleasing entertainer, his wonderful memory brings forth facts of great interest to one who converses with him. He has seen changes which those of the present generation never will see, Wildernesses have been turned into fertile farms, country towns have been reared, the stage coach and ox teams tall, Thomas G. reared, the stage coach and ox teams have given place to steam cars, electric rallways, bleycles and horseless carriages. The telephone and telegraph have been invented in his time, the coal fields developed, and he has seen this city grow from two or three houses to its present size. Mr. Dean has not lived a selfish life, for no one has been more obliging and ready ted o a favor to a friend or neighbor than he. The wish of his many friends is that he may live to celebrate his hundredth anniversary.
