BURNING OF MORTGAGE IN WELSH BAPTIST CHURCH.

Exercises Incident to the Formal Destruction of the Document Presided Over by Rev. D. D. Hopkins—Annual Outing of the Columbia Hose Company—Events of This Evening—Fifteen Thousand Dollars Appropriated for the West Side Hospital.

The members of the First Welsh Baptist church held a jubilee meeting last evening in honor of their being free from debt. The meeting was presided over by the pastor, Rev. D. D. Hopkins, who spoke of the happy event, and remarks were also made along the same line by the assistant chairman, John D. Phillips. During the evening a number of selections were rendered by the choir, under the direction of Chorister William Evans.

Resolutions were given by Misses Sadie Jones and Martha Davis, and solos were sung by William Evans, of New York; Myfanwy Beynon, John Evans, and Mrs. Mary Boston-Williams. Addresses on church and Sunday school work were given by Misses Sarah Meredith, Elizabeth R. Hughes, Jennie Reddick, Henry P. Davies and Evan J. Davis.

The burning of the mortgage was entrusted to Mrs. Evan S. Davis and Miss Emily Evans, and the ceremony witnessed with much pleasure by those in attendance. A feature of the services was the singing by the young ladies' choir and the chorus from the Sunday school, under the direction of John Evans.

Hospital Appropriations.

The appropriation committee of the state legislature has reported favorably on the appropriation of $15,000 for the West Side hospital. Announcement of its intention to do so was exclusively made in The Tribune a month ago.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

Clarence Beemer, of North Bromley avenue, has accepted a position with the Webster Coal company at Philadelphia.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

The funeral of Mrs. Henry Boetcher was held from the family residence on Cedar avenue yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services over the remains were held at the house by the Revs. Boyd and Zizelman.

DUNMORE.

Odd Fellows' hall was filled to overflowing last night, when Lucy McKinley lodge gave an entertainment and social. An excellent programme of music and recitations was rendered, after which refreshments were served and dancing was indulged in until an early hour.

FEDERAL COURT NOTES.

Reference in Bankruptcy C. A. Van Wormer returned home Tuesday night from Williamsport and yesterday morning conducted the final meeting of the creditors of Albert J. Saunders. The case is an old one, Saunders formerly having a market business on Penn avenue. Besides a few small wage claims, none of the creditors can receive anything.

DOING THEIR DUTY

Scores of Scranton Readers Are Learning the Duties of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidney's duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick. Backache and many kidney ills follow.

NORTH SCRANTON.

Last evening a large audience gathered at the Auditorium to witness Harry Cameron's famous four-act melodrama, "The Passion Slave," which was produced in excellent style by the Crystal Literary and Dramatic club, under the auspices of the North Scranton Glee club.

Frank Preitius, a Polish boy 14 years of age, residing on Oak street, while riding on a box car with a number of other boys, on the Lackawanna Keyser Valley branch railroad, fell from it, striking on his head and cutting a deep gash between his eyes and one in the back of his head.

OBITUARY.

ABRAM H. VANDLING—For many years superintendent of the coal department of the Delaware and Hudson Railroad company, was found dead in bed shortly before 3 o'clock yesterday morning, having a sound high school education and shortly after leaving school accepted a position as teacher in Northumberland county. He only remained at this profession a short while, and then engaged in the boot building trade at Lewisburg.

POLICE AND ALDERMEN.

Morgan Sweeney, for whose arrest a warrant was sworn out on Tuesday, charging him with tearing the ear of young Patrick McGuire partly off, appeared before Magistrate Miller yesterday and entered a bail in the sum of $200 for his appearance in court.

SOME FOOLISH PEOPLE

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," and in most cases it will wear away, but it will be induced by the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the relief after taking the first dose. Price 25c and 50c. Trial size free. At all druggists.

STORY OF THE ROSE MURDER

hold of Mrs. Bevilacqua's arm when he questioned her.

Coroner Roberts was recalled and asked hypothetically if it would have been possible for Mary Rose to travel from the stove to the bed room where she was found dead. If the wound behind the right ear had been inflicted when Mrs. Rose was standing near the stove, the answer was that it would have been perfectly impossible.

BEFORE JUDGE KELLY.

Andrew Gordon, of North Scranton, was put on trial late in the afternoon, charged with perjury. Simon Nerush is the plaintiff in the case. He is defended by R. A. Zimmerman and H. S. Alworth, and District Attorney Lewis and H. B. Taylor are conducting the prosecution. After Mr. Lewis' opening to the jury yesterday afternoon, the case was adjourned until today.

BEFORE JUDGE CARPENTER.

Thomas Connor was tried on a charge of assault and battery preferred by Joseph Hinckack. Connor is in charge of the air compressing plant of the Sterrick Creek Coal company's mine at Lewis, and also had the giving out of checks for the cars loaded by miners. Hinckack was a miner and said that at the request of the paymaster's clerk he went to Connor to get some checks. The latter refused to give Hinckack the cards without an order, but when he became angry, called him a scab and advanced toward him in a threatening manner with his hand on his hip.
