CONSTABLE PIERCE SERIOUSLY CHARGED

Accused of Extorting Money from Promise of Settling a Case of Criminal Assault-The Allegations Against Pierce.

Constable Henry Pierce, of the Thir1 ward has been charged with prosti-tuting his office to the purpose of extorting money or the promise of set-tling a charge of attempted criminal assault, brought by Carrie Stiles, was is now in juit, against Rolly A. Walls, of Chifford.

The warrant for his arrest is in the hands of Constable Neary, of Alderman Jones court.

The charges against Constable Pierce were brought by Squire T. P. Wells, of Ciliford, who has been justice of the reace of that village for nearly thirty years. The 'squire is a ocolaer of Rolly Wells, who is quite a celebrated character hereabouts, and who was the defendant in the case brought by the Stiles woman, who bears an unsavory reputation.

The information is as follows: "That the said tiener Pierce did on the first day of April, fint, at the city of Carbondale, under the color of his office did wilfully and fraudulently take and receive the sum of thirty dollars for the purpose of suppressing a charge of rape made against the deponent's son, R. E. Wells, contrary to act of

The history of the charges against the accused constable go back to the month of March, when Rolly Wells had Carrie Stiles, Lyman Baker, who was since drowned in Lake Lodore on May 29 and Winans Hull arrested on the charge of the larceny of his watch, which it was claimed took place during a meeting of Wells with the Stiles womain. Later the Stiles woman, backed by Baker, it was alleged, caused Wells' arrest on the charge of attempted criminal assuult. Baker, it is claimed, imhusband. Wells then had Carrie Stiles. arrested for periors. Baker for aiding in the false information, and Hull for impersonating an officer. The cases which attracted more than ordinary attention, came up at last week's term of criminal court. The Stiles woman admitted the falsity of the charge of attempted criminal assault made by her against Wells, and on pleading guilty was given thirty days in fail. Returning to the charge against Constable Pierce, it was his connection with the case of the Stiles woman against Wells that causes him to figure in court now. He was given the warrant to serve on Wells, whom he took in custody at the home of his brother, Squire Wells. Before returning with his prisoner, the constable, it is alleged, proposed to 'Squire Wells a settlement of the case against the latter's brother. Though the charge is placed calendar, Constable Pierce, according to the information of 'Squire, Wells, settlement on whatever grounds he might succeed in having the Stiles weman agree to. Rolly Wells, the man accused by the Stiles woman, was taken to this city, though he claimed he was not taken before any alderman, and was subsequently released when Constable Pierce returned to Squire Wells and informed him that the payment of thirty dollars would settle the The 'squire hesitated until he was convinced that no lesser amount would be satisfactory, and then paid The payment was made by check, the thirty dollars, as specified. dated March 30, and payable to Henry corsed by Henry Pierce and beneath by Mrs. Hattle Pierce.

There were some doubts after the cheek had been turned over, and the of the trial last week the Stiles oman was questioned as to what part the thirty dollars she received. She eplied that only five dollars were dived between herself and Lyman Baker, ho was her accomplice. She received

It is claimed by Wells and his friends that he is being persecuted and, besides this alleged fleeving, they elteas an instance his arrest at the court house during the trial in Scranton last of buying illuor for a minor. The million in this case was Ambrose Pidgeon, whom Wells had arrested on the charge of stealing his watch. Constable Pierce made the arrest, or he attempted to make it, but was prevented t but was prevented by the court beg appealed to on the ground that Wells was then immune from arrest, teing in attendance as a witness at a

DR. MALAUN WITHDRAWS POOR BOARD FIGHT

There Was Another Important Development at Last Night's Meeting of the Poor Board-The Settlement of the Surcharges Against the Old Directors-Other Board Happen-

There were important developments lisclosed at last night's meeting of the Carbondale poor board.

The first was the withdrawal of Dr E. Malaun as a candidate for docor at the poor house in opposition to Dr. Hailey, for the choice of office the board has been deadlocked for about three months.

Next in importance was the comunfeation from Attorney H. C. Butfor solicitor for the board telling of the success of his efforts in bringing about the settlement of the surcharge found against the old directors by the auditors in their report for the year ending April, 1900. One of the ex-directors, E. A. Robbins, settled his hortage, amounting to $97.85, yester-

Malaun's communication was rief. In withdrawing, he' did so, he said, for the sake of harmony. He thanked the directors for their loyal and disinterested support, and declared that his interest in the matter would lead him to make the observation that under their administration the interests of the citizens and the poor would alike be well cared for.

Dr. Malaun's withdrawal, however, did not break the deadlock for just before the meeting adjourned the doctorship was taken up again and after Mr. Lynch nominated Dr. Bailey, the remaining candidate. Secretary Williams followed with the name of Dr. Shields.

The vote was taken and another deadlock was the result, the same as before, Williams, McCabe and Thomas Shields, and Lynch, McMillan and Burke for Dr. Balley.

Solicitor Butler's information as to the surcharges found against some of the ex-directors was contained in the following:

A FISH DEALER'S TROUBLES.

Unable to Secure Bail W. V. Fuller Goes to Jail on Perjury Charge. William V. Fuller, of No. 4, whose figure is a familiar one as he drives about the city's streets on his fish wagon, was sent to jail yesterday because he was unable to locate a bonds man who would offer $400 security, the um required by Alderman Atkinson, before whom he was tried on the charge of perjury.

Fuller's accuser on this occasion, for he has been arrested before, was Mrs. Thomas Medland, of Canaan street. It appears that several weeks ago Fuller brought suit against Mrs. Medland to recover a bill for fish, amounting to $1.52. Fuller swore that he furnished the fish to Mrs. Medland. the bill be presented and on which the suit is claimed to have been based, was made out to Mrs. Reardon, the mother of Mrs. Medland. Mrs. Medland denies that she owes Fuller a cent, claiming to have paid him at each purchase. the declares that Fuller was aware of this and that he swore falsely to this effect at the hearing before 'Squire Williams, of No. 4, who gave him judgment in the sum of $1.52, the amount of the claim. Mrs. Mediand produced as evidence the bill for $1.52 made out in the name of Mrsr. Reardon, but which, she claimed, he swore to as being the claim against her. Alderman Atkinson held Fuller in $400 bail to await the grand jury's ac-
