HUSBAND HAD WIFE ARRESTED

MRS. BRATOSKY RETURNED HOME UNEXPECTEDLY.

She Was Arraigned Before Alderman Kelly Yesterday and Was Committed to the County Jail—Closing Exercises at No. 14 School—Salvation Army Will Conduct a Novel Auction Sale—Exciting Runaway on Luzerne Street—Little Boy Run Over—Notes and Personals.

John Bratosky, residing at 509 Ninth street, had his wife, Margaret, arraigned before Alderman Kelly yesterday on the charge of unfaithfulness. The couple were married in May, 1900, and lived together until August of the same year, when the wife had the husband arrested for desertion and non-support.

Bratosky appeared before the alderman at that time, settled the case, paid the costs, and left the office with his wife apparently happy. The next day, when he went to work, his wife disappeared and he did not learn anything of her whereabouts until last Saturday, when she returned to her home from New York.

The woman is in a delicate condition, and the prosecution is the outcome. Being unable to furnish bail, Alderman Kelly committed her to the county jail, and notified Mrs. Duggan, agent of the associated charities, to look after the case. She formerly resided on the Scranton resided on the Scranton flats.

An Exciting Runaway.

A horse owned by Butcher John James, of Bellevue, ran away yesterday, and the driver, Thomas Griffiths, had a narrow escape from serious injury. The shaft became detached from the wagon and when the horse started to run, pulled Griffiths, who held the reins, over the dashboard.

He was dragged along the street about twenty-five yards before he let go of the reins, and sustained slight bodily bruises. The horse finally stopped after running several blocks, and was captured by George Allen.

Auction Sale of Children.

The local corps of the Salvation Army will conduct what they call an auction sale of children at the army hall on Price street, next Friday evening. The event is something new in the way of an entertainment, and the method of the sale will not be fully revealed until the evening designated.

A rumor was circulated yesterday to the effect that several street waifs would be auctioned off, but the officers of the army assure their patrons that the sale will be legitimate and will be conducted within the scope of the law.

A similar sale was conducted in New York some time ago and attracted thousands of people.

Captain William Price vouches for the entertainment, which will commence at 8 o'clock, after which ice cream and cake will be served.

At the Powell music rooms last evening Miss Maye Stata Peck, pupil of E. E. Southworth, was heard in a varied programme of classical music to the great pleasure of an audience both critical and sympathetic. Grieg's Sonata (opus 7), the opening number, was played by her with an intimate appreciation of the characteristics of the composer, a grace and delicacy of touch and tone through brought enthusiastic evidence of approval from her hearers. A Mandalinata by Saint-Saens, a wonderfully fascinating group of Cecile Chaminade's compositions, a spirited Ballade by Reinecke, and two of Moszkowski's most characteristic tone poems were rendered by her afterwards, following William F. Jones' vocal selections.

Miss Peck's playing is full of charm—the charm of a gifted musical nature finely trained. In the Reinecke Ballade one was reminded of a famed writer's saying: "I never hear the old ballad of Percy and Douglas but I feel my heart stirred as with the sound of a trumpet." The rendering of this piece came as a surprise after her dainty interpretation of the Chaminade Air de Ballet.

William F. Jones sang delightfully two of Edward MacDowell's songs, his setting of "Bonnie Doon," to which the composer gives the title "Deserted," and a dreamy "Slumber Song." Mr. Jones is the possessor of a rich and effective tenor voice and sings with much expression. He declined to answer to a re-demand.

An unusually entertaining evening of music was enjoyed at Guernsey hall last night on the occasion of the piano recital given by Miss Rose Conway, a talented young pupil of Haydn Evans. The audience, which crowded the hall to the doors, was moved to the most demonstrative applause by Miss Conway's playing and the vocal number of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Burns, of Wilkes-Barre, who assisted her.

Miss Conway's numbers included some extremely difficult movements from Weber, Moszkowski, Schubert, Klein, Schumann, Rubenstein, Tschaikowski and Chopin. Her remarkably artistic interpretation of each of these varying styles displayed a versatility that in one so young is truly marvelous. The critics invited by Mr. Evans to hear his talented pupil were unanimous in coinciding with him in his prophecies of a brilliant future for her.

Mr. Burns sang of the "Toreador" of Couclois and Handel's "Why Do the Nations Rage?" and Mrs. Burns rendered the spirited "Bendemeer Stream" and the Concone "Judith." Mr. and Mrs. Burns together sang a "Tantum Ergo," which was, indeed, a rare treat.
